THE CIVIL PROCEDURE ACT
(Cap. 21)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred by section 81 of the Civil Procedure Act, the Rules Committee makes the following Rules: —

THE CIVIL PROCEDURE RULES, 2010

These Rules may be cited as the Civil Procedure Rules, 2010 and shall come into force ninety days after publication in the gazette.

ORDER 1
PARTIES TO SUITS

[Order 1 rule 1.] Who may be joined as plaintiffs.

1. All persons may be joined in one suit as plaintiffs in whom any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same act or transaction or series of acts or transactions is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally or in the alternative, where, if such persons brought separate suits, any common question of law or fact would arise.

[Order 1, rule 2.] Power of court to order separate trial.

2. Where it appears to the court that any joinder of plaintiffs may embarrass or delay the trial of the suit, the court may either on the application of any party or of its own motion put the plaintiffs to their election or order separate trials or make such other order as may be expedient.

[Order 1, rule 3.] Who may be joined as defendants.

3. All persons may be joined as defendants against whom any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same act or transaction or series of acts or transactions is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally or in the alternative, where, if separate suits were brought against such persons any common question of law or fact would arise.

[Order 1, rule 4.] Court may give judgment for or against one or more of joint parties.

4. Judgment may be given without amendment—

(a) for such one or more of the plaintiffs as may be found to be entitled to relief for such relief as he or they may be entitled to;

(b) against such one or more of the defendants as may be found to be liable according to their respective liabilities.

[Order 1, rule 5.] Defendant need not be interested in all relief claimed.

5. It shall not be necessary that every defendant shall be interested as to all the relief claimed in any suit against him.

[Order 1, rule 6.] Joinder of parties liable on same contract.

6. The plaintiff may at his option join as parties to the same suit all or any of the persons severally, or jointly and severally liable, on any one contract, including parties to bills of exchange and promissory notes.

[Order 1, rule 7.] When plaintiff in doubt from whom redress to be sought.

7. Where the plaintiff is in doubt as to the persons from whom he is entitled to obtain redress, he may join two or more defendants in order that the question as to which of the defendants is liable, and to what extent, may be determined as between all parties.

8. [Order 1, rule 8.] One person may sue or defend on behalf of all in same interest.

(1) Where numerous persons have the same interest in any proceedings, the proceedings may be commenced, and unless the Court otherwise orders, continued, by or against any one or more of them as of all in same representing all or as representing all except one or more of them.

(2) The parties shall in such case give notice of the suit to all such persons either by personal service or, where from the number of persons or any other cause such service is not reasonably practicable, by public advertisement, as the court in each case may direct.

(3) Any person on whose behalf or for whose benefit a suit is instituted or defended under subrule (1) may apply to the court to be made a party to such suit.

[Order 1, rule 9.] Misjoinder and non-joinder.

9. No suit shall be defeated by reason of the misjoinder or non-joinder of parties, and the court may in every suit deal with the matter in controversy so far as regards the rights and interests of the parties actually before it.

[Order 1, rule 10.] Substitution and addition of parties.

10. (1) Where a suit has been instituted in the name of the wrong persons as plaintiff, or where it is doubtful whether it has been instituted in the name of the right plaintiff, the court may at any stage of the suit, if satisfied that the suit has been instituted through a bona fide mistake, and that it is necessary for the determination of the real matter in dispute to do so, order any other person to be substituted or added as plaintiff upon such terms as the court thinks fit.

(2) The court may at any stage of the proceedings, either upon or without the application of either party, and on such terms as may appear to the court to be just, order that the name of any party improperly joined, whether as plaintiff or defendant, be struck out, and that the name of any person who ought to have been joined, whether as plaintiff or defendant, or whose presence before the court may be necessary in order to enable the court effectually and completely to adjudicate upon and settle all questions involved in the suit, be added.

(3) No person shall be added as a plaintiff suing without a next friend or as the next friend of a plaintiff under any disability without his consent in writing thereto.

(4) Where a defendant is added or substituted, the plaint shall, unless the court otherwise directs, be amended in such manner as may be necessary, and amended copies of the summons and of the plaint shall be served on the new defendant and, if the court thinks fit, on the original defendants.

[Order 1, rule 11.] Government proceedings.

11. In respect of civil proceedings by or against the Government, this Order shall have effect subject to section 12 of the Government Proceedings Act (which relates to parties to such proceedings).

[Order 1, rule 12.] Conduct of suit.

12. The court may give the conduct of the suit to such person as it deems proper.

[Order 1, rule 13.] Appearance of one of several plaintiffs or defendants for others.

13. (1) Where there are more plaintiffs than one, any one or more of them may be authorized by any other of them to appear, plead or act for such other in any proceeding, and in like manner, where there are more defendants than one or more of them may be authorized by any other of them to appear, plead or act for such other in any proceeding.

(2) The authority shall be in writing signed by the party giving it and shall be filed in the case.

14. [Order 1, rule 14.] Practice.

Any application to add or strike out or substitute a plaintiff or defendant may be made to the court at any time before trial by chamber summons or at the trial of the suit in a summary manner.

[Order 1, rule 15.] Notice to third and subsequent parties

15. (1) Where a defendant claims as against any other person not already a party to the suit (hereinafter called the third party) —

(a) that he is entitled to contribution or indemnity; or

(b) that he is entitled to any relief or remedy relating to or connected with the original subject-matter of the suit and substantially the same as some relief or remedy claimed by the plaintiff; or

(c) that any question or issue relating to or connected with the said subject-matter is substantially the same question or issue arising between the plaintiff and the defendant and should properly be determined not only as between the plaintiff and the defendant but as between the plaintiff and defendant and the third party or between any or either of them, he shall apply to the Court within fourteen days after the close of pleadings for leave of the Court to issue a notice (hereinafter called a third party notice) to that effect, and such leave shall be applied for by summons in chambers ex parte supported by affidavit.

(2) A copy of such notice shall be filed and shall be served on the third party according to the rules relating to the service of a summons.

(3) The notice shall state the nature and grounds of the claim, and shall, unless otherwise ordered by the court, be filed within fourteen days of service, and shall be in or to the effect of Form No. 1 of Appendix A with such variations as circumstances require and a copy of the plaint shall be served therewith.

(4) Where a third party makes as against any person not already a party to the action such a claim as is mentioned in subrule (1), the provisions of this Order regulating the rights and procedure as between the defendant and the third party shall apply mutatis mutandis as between the third party and such person, and the court may give leave to such third party to issue a third party notice, and the preceding rules of this Order shall apply mutatis mutandis, and the expressions “third party notice” and “third party” shall respectively apply to and include every notice so issued and every person served with such notice.

(5) Where a person served with a notice by a third party under subrule (4) makes such a claim as is mentioned in subrule (1) against another person not already a party to the action, such other person and any subsequent person made a party to the action shall comply mutatis mutandis with the provisions of this rule.

[Order 1, rule 16.] Notice to Government as third party.

16. Notwithstanding anything in rule 15, leave to issue a third party notice for service on the Government shall not be granted unless the Court is satisfied that the Government is in possession of all such information as it reasonably requires as to the circumstances in which it is alleged that the liability of the Government has arisen and as to the departments and officers of the Government concerned.

17. [Order 1, rule 17.] Default of appearance by third party.

If a person not a party to the suit who is served as mentioned in rule 15 (hereinafter called the third party) desires to dispute the plaintiff’s claim in the suit as against the defendant on whose behalf the notice has been given, or his own liability to the defendant, the third party must enter an appearance in the suit on or before the day specified in the notice; and in default of his so doing he shall be deemed to admit the validity of the decree obtained against such defendant, whether obtained by consent or otherwise, and his own liability to contribute or indemnify, as the case may be, to the extent claimed in the third-party notice:

Provided that a person so served and failing to enter an appearance within the period fixed in the notice may apply to the Court for leave to enter an appearance, and for good cause such leave may be given upon such terms, if any, as the court shall think fit.

[Order 1, rule 18.] Default of appearance by Government as third party.

18. In the case of third-party proceedings against the Government, rule 17 shall not apply unless the court so orders; and any application for such an order shall be made by chamber summons Government served not less than seven days before the return day.

[Order 1, rule 19] Judgment against third party in default.

19. Where a third party makes default in entering an appearance in the suit, or in delivering any pleading, and the defendant giving the notice suffers judgment by default, such defendant shall be entitled, after causing the satisfaction of the decree against himself to be entered upon the record, to judgment against the third party to the extent claimed in the third-party notice; the court may upon the application of the defendant pass such judgment against the third party before such defendant has satisfied the decree passed against him:

Provided that it shall be lawful for the court to set aside or vary any judgment passed under this rule upon such terms as may seem just.

[Order 1, rule 20.] No judgment against Government without leave of the Court.

20. (1) A defendant shall not in any event be entitled to enter judgment against the Government under rule 19 without the leave of the court.

(2) Any application for leave to enter judgment against the Government under this rule shall be made by chamber summons served not less than seven days before the return day.

[Order 1, rule 21] Judgment after trial against third party in default.

21. (1) Where a third party makes default in entering an appearance in the suit, and the suit is tried and results in favour of the plaintiff, the court may either at or after the trial enter such judgment as the nature of the suit may require for the defendant giving notice against the third party:

Provided that execution thereof shall not be issued without leave of the court, until after satisfaction by such defendant of the decree against him.

(2) If the suit is finally decided in the plaintiff's favour, otherwise than by trial, the court may, upon application ex parte supported by affidavit, order such judgment as the nature of the case may require to be entered for the defendant giving the notice against the third party at any time after satisfaction by the defendant of the decree obtained by the plaintiff against him.

[Order 1, rule 22.] Appearance of third party and directions

22. If a third party enters an appearance pursuant to the third-party notice, the defendant giving the notice may apply to the court by summons in chambers for directions, and the court upon the hearing of such application may, if satisfied that there is a proper question to be tried as to the liability of the third party, order the question of such liability as between the third party and the defendant giving the notice, to be tried in such manner, at or after the trial of the suit, as the court may direct; and, if not so satisfied, may order such judgment as the nature of the case may require to be entered in favour of the defendant giving the notice against the third party.

[Order 1, rule 23.]

23. The court may decide all questions of costs between a third party and the other parties to the suit, and may make such orders as to costs as the justice of the case may require.

[Order 1, rule 24.] Defendant claiming against a co-defendant.

24. (1) Where a defendant desires to claim against another person who is already a party to the suit—

(a) that he is entitled to contribution or indemnity; or defendant.

(b) that he is entitled to any relief or remedy relating to or connected with the original subject-matter of the action which is substantially the same as some relief or remedy claimed by the plaintiff; or

(c) that any question or issue relating to or connected with the said subject-matter is substantially the same as some question or issue arising between the plaintiff and the defendant and should properly be determined not only as between the plaintiff and the defendant but as between the plaintiff and the defendant and such other person or between any or either of them, the defendant may without leave issue and serve on such other person a notice making such claim or specifying such question or issue.

(2) No appearance to such notice shall be necessary but there shall be adopted for the determination of such claim, question or issue the same procedure as if such other person were a third party under this Order.

(3) Nothing contained in this rule shall operate or be construed so as to prejudice the rights of the plaintiff against any defendant to the action.

[Order 1, rule 25.] Procedure.

25. Applications under rules 10 and 19 may be made orally in Court or by summons in chamber.

ORDER 2 PLEADINGS GENERALLY

[Order 2, rule 1.] Pleadings generally.

1. (1) Every pleading in civil proceedings including proceedings against the Government shall contain information as to the circumstances in which it is alleged that the liability has arisen and, in the case of the Government, the departments and officers concerned.

(2) In such proceedings if the defendant considers that the pleading does not contain sufficient information as aforesaid, the defendant may, at any time before the time limited by the summons for appearance has expired, by notice in writing to the plaintiff, request further information as specified in the notice.

(3) Where such a notice has been given, the time for appearance shall expire four days after the defendant has notified the plaintiff in writing that the defendant is satisfied or four days after the court has, on the application of the plaintiff by chamber summons served on the defendant not less than seven days before the return day, decided that no further information is reasonably required.

[Order 2, rule 2.] Formal requirements.

2. (1) Every pleading shall be divided into paragraphs numbered consecutively, each allegation being so far as appropriate contained in ment5 a separate paragraph.

(2) Dates, sums and other numbers shall be expressed in figures and not words.

[Order 2, rule 3.] Facts not evidence, to be pleaded.

3. (1) Subject to the provisions of this rule and rules 6, 7 and 8, every pleading shall contain, and contain only, a statement in a summary form of the material facts on which the party pleading relies for his claim or defence, but not the evidence by which those facts are to be proved, and the statement shall be as brief as the nature of the case admits.

(2) Without prejudice to subrule (1), the effect of any document or the purport of any conversation referred to in the pleading shall, if material, be briefly stated, and the precise words of the document or conversation shall not be stated, except in so far as those words are themselves material.

(3) A party need not plead any fact if it is presumed by law to be true or the burden of disproving it lies on the other party, unless the other party has specifically denied it in his pleading.

(4) A statement that a thing has been done or that an event has occurred, being a thing or an event the doing or occurrence of which constitutes a condition precedent necessary for the case of a party shall be implied in his pleading.

[Order 2, rule 4.] Matters which must be specifically pleaded.

4. (1) A party shall in any pleading subsequent to a plaint plead specifically any matter, for example performance, release, payment, fraud, inevitable accident, act of God, any relevant Statute of limitation or any fact showing illegality —

(a) which he alleges makes any claim or defence of the opposite party not maintainable;

(b) which, if not specifically pleaded, might take the opposite party by surprise; or

(c) which raises issues of fact not arising out of the preceding pleading.

(2) Without prejudice to subrule (1), a defendant to an action for the recovery of land shall plead specifically every ground of defence on which he relies, and a plea that he is in possession of the land by himself or his tenant shall not be sufficient.

(3) In this rule “land” includes land covered with water, all things growing on land, and buildings and other things permanently affixed to land.

[Order 2, rule 5.] Matter may be pleaded whenever arising.

5. Subject to rules 3 (1) and 6, a party may in any pleading plead any matter which has arisen at any time, whether before or since the filing of the plaint, arising.

[Order 2, rule 6.] Departure.

6. (1) No party may in any pleading make an allegation of fact, or raise any new ground of claim, inconsistent with a previous pleading of his in the same suit.

(2) Subrule (1) shall not prejudice the right of a party to amend, or apply for leave to amend, his previous pleading so as to plead the allegations or claims in the alternative.

[Order 2, rule 7.] Particulars in defamation actions.

7. (1) Where in an action for libel or slander the plaintiff alleges that the words or matters complained of were used in a defamatory sense other than their ordinary meaning, he shall give particulars of the facts and matters on which he relies in support of such sense.

(2) Where in an action for libel or slander the defendant alleges that, in so far as the words complained of consist of statements of fact, they are true in substance and in fact, and in so far as they consist of expressions of opinion, they are fair comment on a matter of public interest, or pleads to the like effect, he shall give particulars stating which of the words complained of he alleges are statements of fact and of the facts and matters he relies on in support of the allegation that the words are true.

(3) Where in an action for libel or slander the plaintiff alleges that the defendant maliciously published the words or matters complained of, he need not in his plaint give particulars of the facts on which he relies in support of the allegation of malice; but if the defendant pleads that any of those words or matters are fair comment on a matter of public interest or were published upon a privileged occasion and the plaintiff intends to allege that the defendant was actuated by express malice, he shall file a reply giving particulars of the facts and matters from which the malice is to be inferred.

(4) This rule shall apply in relation to a counterclaim for libel or slander as if the party making the counterclaim were the plaintiff and the party against whom it is made the defendant.

[Order 2, rule 8.] Particulars of evidence in mitigation.

8. In an action for libel or slander in which the defendant does not by his defence assert the truth of the statement complained of, the defendant shall not be entitled at the trial to give evidence in chief, with a view to mitigation of damages, as to the circumstances under which the libel or slander was published, or as to the character of the plaintiff, without the leave of the court, unless at least twenty-one days before the trial he has given the plaintiff particulars of the matters on which he intends to give evidence.

[Order 2, rule 9.] Points of law.

9. A party may by his pleading raise any point of law.

[Order 2, rule 10.] Particulars of pleading.

10. (1) Subject to subrule (2), every pleading shall contain the necessary particulars of any claim, defence or other matter pleaded including, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing —

(a) particulars of any misrepresentation, fraud, breach of trust, wilful default or undue influence on which the party pleading relies; and

(b) where a party pleading alleges any condition of the mind of any person, whether any disorder or disability of mind or any malice, fraudulent intention or other condition of mind except knowledge, particulars of the facts on which the party relies.

(2) The court may order a party to serve on any other party particulars of any claim, defence or other matter stated in his pleading, or a statement of the nature of the case on which he relies, and the order may be made on such terms as the court thinks just.

(3) Where a party alleges as a fact that a person had knowledge or notice of some fact, matter or thing, then, without prejudice to the generality of subrule (2), the court may, on such terms as it thinks just, order that party to serve on any other party —

(a) where he alleges knowledge, particulars of the facts on which he relies; and

(b) where he alleges notice, particulars of the notice.

(4) An order under this rule shall not be made before the filing of the defence unless the order is necessary or desirable to enable the defendant to plead or for some other special reason.

(5) No order for costs shall be made in favour of a party applying for an order who has not first applied by notice in Form No. 2 of Appendix B which shall be served in duplicate.

(6) Particulars delivered shall be in Form No. 3 of Appendix A which shall be filed by the party delivering it together with the original notice and shall form part of the pleadings.

[Order 2, rule 11.] Admissions and denials.

11. (1) Subject to subrule (4), any allegation of fact made by a party in his pleading shall be deemed to be admitted by the opposing party unless it is traversed by that party in his pleading or a joinder of issue under rule 10 operates as a denial of it.

(2) A traverse may be made either by denial or by a statement of non-admission and either expressly or by necessary implication.

(3) Subject to subrule (4), every allegation of fact made in a plaint or counterclaim which the party on whom it is served does not intend to admit shall be specifically traversed by him in his defence or defence to counterclaim; and a general denial of such allegations, or a general statement of non-admission of them, shall not be a sufficient traverse of them.

(4) Any allegation that a party has suffered damage and any allegation as to the amount of damages shall be deemed to have been traversed unless specifically admitted.

[Order 2, rule 12.] Denial by joinder of issue.

12. (1) If there is no reply to a defence, there is a joinder of issue on that defence.

(2) Subject to subrule (3)—

(a) there is at the close of pleadings a joinder of issue on the pleading last filed; and

(b) a party may in his pleading expressly join issue on the immediately preceding pleading.

(3) There can be no joinder of issue on a plaint or counterclaim.

(4) A joinder of issue operates as a denial of every material allegation of fact made in the pleading on which there is a joinder of issue unless, in the case of an express joinder of issue, any such allegation is excepted from the joinder and is stated to be admitted, in which case the express joinder of issue operates as a denial of every other such allegation.

[Order2, rule] Close of pleadings.

13. The pleadings in a suit shall be closed fourteen days after service of the reply or defence to counterclaim, or, if neither is served, fourteen days after service of the defence, notwithstanding that any order or request for particulars has been made but not complied with.

[Order 2, rule 14.] Technical objection.

14. No technical objection may be raised to any pleading on the ground of any want of form.

[Order2, rule 15.] Striking out pleadings.

15. (1) At any stage of the proceedings the court may order to be struck out or amended any pleading on the ground that—

(a) it discloses no reasonable cause of action or defence in law; or

(b) it is scandalous, frivolous or vexatious; or

(c) it may prejudice, embarrass or delay the fair trial of the action; or

(d) it is otherwise an abuse of the process of the court, and may order the suit to be stayed or dismissed or judgment to be entered accordingly, as the case may be.

(2) No evidence shall be admissible on an application under subrule (1) (a) but the application shall state concisely the grounds on which it is made.

(3) So far as applicable this rule shall apply to an originating summons and a petition.

[Order 2, rule 16.] Pleading to be signed.

16. Every pleading shall be signed by an advocate, or recognised agent (as defined by Order 9, rule 2), or by the party if he sues or defends in person.

[Order 2, rule 17] Proceedings in rem. Cap. 40

17. An application under section 25 (2) of the Government Proceedings Act may be made at any time before trial or during the trial.

ORDER 3

(4) In choosing a case track, the plaintiff shall have regard to all relevant considerations including the following-

- (b) the financial value of the claim;
- (c) the likely expense to the parties;
- (4) the importance of issues of law or fact to the public;
- (e) the nature of the remedy sought;
- (f) the number of parties or prospective parties; and
- (g) the time required for pre-trial disclosures and for preparation for trial or hearing;

[Order 3, rule 2.] Documents to accompany suit.

[Order 22, rule 22.] When court may stay execution.

22. 32. Every warrant for the arrest of a judgment-debtor shall direct the officer entrusted with its execution to bring him before the court with all convenient speed, unless the amount which he has been ordered to pay, together with the interest thereon and the costs (if any) to which he is liable, be sooner paid.

[Order 22, rule 33.] Subsistence allowance.

33. (1) No judgment-debtor shall be arrested in execution of a decree unless and until the decree-holder pays into court such sum as allowance may be sufficient for the subsistence of the judgment-debtor from the time of his arrest until he can be brought before the court.

(2) Where a judgment-debtor is committed to prison in execution of a decree the court shall fix for his subsistence such monthly allowance as he may be entitled to according to the scales fixed under section 41 of the Act, or, where no such scales have been fixed, as it considers sufficient.

(3) The monthly allowance fixed by the court shall be supplied by the party on whose application the judgment-debtor has been arrested by monthly payments to the officer of the court appointed in this behalf in advance before the first day of each month.

(4) Sums disbursed by the decree-holder for the subsistence of the judgment-debtor in prison shall be deemed to be costs in the suit:

Provided that the judgment-debtor shall not be detained in prison or arrested on account of any sum so disbursed.

[Order 22, rule 34.] Proceedings on appearance of judgment-debtor in obedience to notice or after arrest.

34. (1) Where a judgment-debtor appears before the court in obedience issued under rule 31, or is brought before the court after being arrested in execution of a decree for the payment of money, and it appears to the court that the judgment-debtor is unable, from poverty or other sufficient cause, to pay the amount of the decree, or, if that amount is payable by instalments, the amount of any instalment thereof, the court may, upon such terms as it thinks fit, make an order disallowing the application for his arrest and detention or directing his release, as the case may be.

(2) Before making an order for the committal of the judgment-debtor to prison, the court, for reasons to be recorded in writing, shall be satisfied —

(a) that the judgment-debtor, with the object or effect of obstructing or delaying the execution of the decree—

(i) is likely to abscond or leave the local limits of the jurisdiction of the court; or

(ii) has, after the institution of the suit in which the decree was passed, dishonestly transferred, concealed or removed any part of his property, or committed any other act of bad faith in relation to his property; or

(b) that the judgment-debtor has, or has had since the date of the decree, the means to pay the amount of the decree, or some substantial part thereof, and refuses or neglects, or has refused or neglected, to pay the same, but in calculating such means there shall be left out of account any property which is exempt from attachment in execution of the decree; or

(c) that the decree is for a sum for which the judgment-debtor was bound in a fiduciary capacity to account.

(3) While any of the matters mentioned in subrule (2) are being considered, the court may, in its discretion, order the judgment-debtor to be detained in prison, or leave him in the custody of an officer of the court, or release him on his furnishing security, to the satisfaction of the court, for his appearance when required by the court.

(4) A judgment-debtor released under this rule may be rearrested.

(5) Where the court does not make an order under subrule (1), it shall cause the judgment-debtor to be arrested, if he has not already been arrested, and, subject to the provisions of this Act, commit him to prison.

[Order 2, rule 35.] Examination of judgment-debtor as to his property.

35. Where a decree is for the payment of money, the decree-holder may apply to the court for an order that—

(a) the judgment-debtor;

(b) in the case of a corporation, any officer thereof; or

(c) any other person,

be orally examined as to whether any or what debts are owing to the judgment-debtor, and whether the judgment-debtor has any and what property or means of satisfying the decree, and the court may make an order for the attendance and examination of such judgment-debtor or officer, or other person, and for the production of any books or documents.

[Order 22, rule 36.] Attachment in case of decree for rent, or mesne profits, or other matter.

36. Where a decree directs an inquiry as to rent or mesne profits, or any other matter, the property of the judgment-debtor may, before the amount due from him has been ascertained, be attached, as in the case of an ordinary decree for the payment of money.

[Order 22, rule 37.] Attachment of movable property other than agricultural produce, in possession of judgment-debtor.

37. Where the property to be attached is movable property, other than agricultural produce, in the possession of the judgment-debtor, the attachment shall be made by actual seizure, and the attaching officer shall keep the property in his own custody, or in the custody of one of his subordinates, and shall be responsible for the due custody thereof:

Provided that, when the property seized is subject to speedy and natural decay, or when the expense of keeping it in custody is likely to exceed its value, the attaching officer may sell it at once; and further that when the property seized is livestock the court may make such arrangement for the custody and maintenance thereof as it may deem sufficient.

[Order 22, rule 38.] Attachment of agricultural produce.

38. Where the property to be attached is agricultural produce, the attachment shall be made by affixing a copy of the warrant of agricultural produce attachment—

(a) where such produce is a growing crop, on the land on which such crop is growing; or

(b) where such produce has been cut or gathered, on the barn, stock, or place in which it is deposited, and another copy on the outer door or on some other conspicuous part of the house in which the judgment-debtor ordinarily resides, or, with the leave of the court, on the outer door or on some other conspicuous part of the house in which he carries on business or personally works for gain, or in which he is known to have last resided or carried on business or personally worked for gain; and the produce shall thereupon be deemed to have passed into the possession of the court.

[Order 22, rule 39.] Provisions as to agricultural produce under attachment.

39. (1) Where agricultural produce is attached, the court shall make such arrangements for the custody thereof as it may deem sufficient, and, for the purpose of enabling the court to make such arrangements, every application for the attachment of a growing crop shall specify the time at which it is likely to be fit to be cut or gathered.

(2) Subject to such conditions as may be imposed by the court in this behalf, either in the order of attachment or in any subsequent order, the judgment-debtor may tend, cut, gather and store the produce and do any other act necessary for maturing or preserving it; and if the judgment-debtor fails to do all or any of such acts the decree-holder may, with the permission of the court and subject to the like conditions, do all or any of them either by himself or by any person appointed by him in this behalf, and the costs incurred by the decree-holder shall be recoverable from the judgment-debtor as if they were included in, or formed part of, the decree.

(3) Agricultural produce attached as a growing crop shall not be deemed to have ceased to be under attachment or to require reattachment merely because it has been severed from the soil.

(4) Where an order for the attachment of a growing crop has been made at a considerable time before the crop is likely to be fit to be cut or gathered, the court may suspend the execution of the order for such time as it thinks fit, and may in its discretion, make a further order prohibiting the removal of the crop pending the execution of the order of attachment.

[Order 22, rule 40.] Attachment of share and other property not in possession of judgment-debtor,

40. (1) In the case of—

(a) a share in the capital of a corporation; or

(b) other movable property not in the possession of the judgment-debtor.

(i) in the case of the share, the person in whose name the share may be standing from transferring the same or receiving any dividend thereon; or

(ii) in the case of the other movable property except as aforesaid, the person in possession of the same from giving it over to the judgment-debtor.

(2) A copy of such order shall be affixed on some conspicuous part of the precincts of the court, and another copy shall be sent, in the case of the share, to the proper officer of the corporation, and, in the case of the other movable property (except as aforesaid) to the person in possession of the same.

(3) If the person in possession of the movable property does not lay claim to such property under rule 51, the court may make an order for actual seizure of the property as if it were in the possession of the judgment-debtor.

[Order 22, rule 41.] Attachment of share in movables.

41. Where the property to be attached consists of the share or interest of the judgment-debtor in movable property belonging to him and another as co-owners, the attachment shall be made by a notice to the judgment-debtor prohibiting him from transferring the share or interest or charging it in any way.

[Order 22, rule 42.] Attachment of salary or allowance.

42. (1) Where the property to be attached is any salary or periodical allowance payable to the judgment-debtor by any person, the court, whether the judgment-debtor or the person by whom such salary or allowance is payable is or is not within the local limits of the court's jurisdiction, may order that the amount shall, subject to the provisions of section 44 of the Act, be withheld from such salary or allowance either in one payment or by monthly instalments as the court may direct; and upon notice of the order to the person by whom such salary or allowance is payable such person shall withhold and remit to the court or, if the court by the order so directs, to the advocate for the judgment-creditor, the amount due under the order or each or any monthly instalment, as the case may be.

(2) Where the attachable proportion of such salary or allowance is already being withheld and remitted in pursuance of a previous and unsatisfied order of attachment the person by whom such salary or allowance is payable shall retain every subsequent order and, upon satisfaction of such previous and unsatisfied order, shall withhold and remit the attachable proportion of the salary or allowance in accordance with the terms of the order next received by him.

(3) Subject to subrule (2), every order made under this rule shall, without further notice or other process, be binding on the person by whom such salary or allowance is payable while the judgment-debtor is in Kenya and also while the judgment-debtor is outside Kenya if he is in receipt of any such salary or allowance payable by such person; and the person by whom such salary or allowance is payable shall be liable for any sum paid in contravention of this rule.

[Order 22, rule 43] Attachment of partnership property.

43. (1) Save as otherwise provided by this rule, property belonging to a partnership shall not be attached or sold in execution of a decree other than a decree passed against the firm or against the partners in the firm as such.

(2) The court may, on the application of the holder of a decree against a partner, make an order charging the interest of such partner in the partnership property and profits with payment of the amount due under the decree, and may, by the same or a subsequent order, appoint a receiver of the share of such partner in the profits (whether already declared or accruing), and of any other money which may be coming to him in respect of the partnership, and direct accounts and inquiries and make an order for the sale of such interest or other orders as might have been directed or made if a charge had been made in favour of the decree-holder by such partner, or as the circumstances of the case may require. Applications under this subrule shall be in accordance with the provisions of section 27 of the Partnership Act. [Cap. 29]

(3) The other partner or partners shall be at liberty at any time to redeem the interest charged, or, in the case of a sale being directed, to purchase the same.

(4) Every application for an order under subrule (2) shall be served on the judgment-debtor and on his partners or such of them as are within Kenya.

(5) Every application made by any partner of the judgment-debtor under subrule (3) shall be served on the decree-holder and on the judgment-debtor, and on such of the other partners as do not join in the application and as are within Kenya.

(3) Where the liability of any person has been tried and determined under subrule (2), the order made thereon shall have the same force and be subject to the same conditions as to appeal or otherwise as if it were a decree.

(4) Save as against any property of the partnership, a decree against a firm shall not release, render liable, or otherwise affect any partner therein unless he has been served with a summons to appear.

(b) if the decree sought to be attached was passed by another court, then by the issue to such other court of a notice by the court which passed the decree sought to be executed, requesting such other court to stay the execution of its decree unless and until—

(i) the court which passed the decree sought to be executed cancels the notice; or

(ii) the holder of the decree sought to be executed or his judgment-debtor applies to the court receiving such notice to execute its own decree.

(2) Where a court makes an order under subrule (1) (a), or receives an application under subrule (1) (b) (ii), it shall, on the application of the creditor who has attached the decree of his judgment- debtor proceed to execute the attached decree and apply the net proceeds in satisfaction of the decree sought to be executed.

(5) The holder of a decree attached under this rule shall give to the court executing the decree such information and aid as may be required.

(6) On the application of the holder of a decree sought to be executed by the attachment of another decree, the court making an order of attachment under this rule shall give notice of such order to the judgment-debtor bound by the decree attached; and no payment or adjustment of the attached decree made by the judgment-debtor in contravention of such order after receipt of notice thereof, either through the court or otherwise, shall be recognised by any court so long as the attachment remains in force.

48. (1) Where the property to be attached is immovable, the attachment shall be made by an order prohibiting the judgment-debtor from transferring or charging the property in any way, and all persons from taking any benefit from such purported transfer or charge, and the attachment shall be complete and effective upon registration of a copy of the prohibitory order or inhibition against the title to the property.

(2) A copy of the order shall be affixed on a conspicuous part of the property.

[Order 22, rule 50.] Determination of attachment.

50. Where any property has been attached in execution of a decree, but by reason of the decree-holder's default the court is unable to proceed further with the application for execution, it shall either dismiss the application or for any sufficient reason adjourn the proceedings to a future date and upon the dismissal of such application the attachment shall cease.

[Order 22, rule 51.] Objection to attachment.

51. (1) Any person claiming to be entitled to or to have a legal or equitable interest in the whole of or part of any property attached in execution of a decree may at any time prior to payment out of the proceeds of sale of such property give notice in writing to the court and to all the parties and to the decree-holder of his objection to the attachment of such property.

(2) Such notice shall be accompanied by an application supported by affidavit and shall set out in brief the nature of the claim which such objector or person makes to the whole or portion of the property attached.

(3) Such notice of objection and application shall be served within seven days from the date of filing on all the parties.

52. Upon receipt of a valid notice and application as provided under rule 51, the court may order a stay of the execution for not more than fourteen days and shall call upon the attaching creditor by notice in writing to intimate to the court and to all the parties in writing within seven days whether he proposes to proceed with the attachment and execution thereunder wholly or in part.

[Order 22, rule 53.] Raising of attachment.

[Order 22, rule 57.] Notification of sale by public auction

57. (1) Where any property is ordered to be sold by public auction in execution of a decree, the court shall cause public notice and advertisement of the intended sale to be given in such manner as the court may direct.

[Order 22, rule 59.] Adjournment or stoppage of sale

59. (1) The court may, in its discretion, adjourn any sale hereunder to a specified day and hour, and the officer conducting any such sale may in his discretion adjourn the sale, recording his reasons for such adjournment:

Provided that where the sale is made in, or within the precincts of the court, no such adjournment shall be made without leave of the court.

(2) Where a sale is adjourned under subrule (1) for a longer period than seven days, fresh public notice shall be given, unless the judgment-debtor consents to waive it.

[Order 30, rule 2.] Disclosure of partners' names.

2. (1) Where a suit is instituted by partners in the name of their firm, the plaintiffs or their advocate shall, on demand in writing by or on behalf of any defendant, within seven days, declare in writing the names and places of residence of all the persons constituting the firm on whose behalf the suit is instituted.

(2) Where the plaintiffs or their advocate fail to comply with any demand made under subrule (1), all proceedings in the suit may, upon an application for that purpose, be stayed upon such terms as the court may direct.

(3) Where the names of the partners are declared in the manner referred to in subrule (1), the suit shall proceed in the same manner, and the same consequences in all respects shall follow, as if they had been named as plaintiffs in the plaint:

Provided that all the proceedings shall nevertheless continue in the name of the firm.

[Order 30, rule 3.] Service.

3. (1) Where persons are sued as partners in the name of their firm, the service of the summons shall be effected either—

(a) upon any one or more of the partners;

(b) at the principal place at which the partnership business is carried on within Kenya upon any person having, at the time of service, the control or management of the partnership business there; or

(c) as the court may direct.

(2) Such service shall be deemed good service upon the firm so sued, whether all or any of the partners are within or without Kenya:

Provided that, in the case of a partnership which has been dissolved to the knowledge of the plaintiff before the institution of the suit, the summons shall be served upon every person within Kenya whom it is sought to make liable.

[Order 30, rule 4.]

4. Where a summons is issued to a firm, and is served in the manner provided by rule 3, every person upon whom it is served shall be informed by notice in writing given at the time of such service, whether he is served as a partner or as a person having the control or management of the partnership business, or in both characters, and, in default of such notice, the person served shall be deemed to be served as a partner.

[Order 30, rule 5.] Appearance of partners.

[Order 30, rule 6.] No appearance except by partners.

6. Where a summons is served in the manner provided by rule 3, upon a person having the control or management of the partnership business, no appearance by him shall be necessary unless he is a partner of the firm sued.

[Order 30, rule 7.] Appearance in action against firms.

7. (1) Any person served as a partner under rule 3 but who denies that he was a partner or liable as such at any material time may enter an appearance stating therein that he does so as “a person served as a partner in the defendant firm, but who denies that he was a partner at any material time”; and such appearance as long as it stands shall be treated as an appearance for the firm.

(2) If an appearance is so entered —

(a) the plaintiff may apply to set it aside on the ground that the person entering it was a partner or liable as such, or may leave that question to be determined at a later stage of the proceedings; or

(b) the person entering the appearance may apply to set aside the service on him on the ground that he was not a partner or liable as such; or he may at the proper time deliver a defence denying either or both—

(i) his liability as a partner;

(ii) the liability of the defendant firm in respect of plaintiff’s claim.

(3) An order may on the application of either party at any time be made that the questions as to the liability of the person served and the liability of the defendant firm may be tried in such manner and at such time or times as the court may think fit.

ORDER 32

SUITS BY OR AGAINST MINORS AND PERSONS OF UNSOUND MIND

[Order 32, rule 1.] Minor to sue by next friend.

1. (1) Every suit by a minor shall be instituted in his name by a person who in such suit shall be called the next friend of the minor.

(2) Before the name of any person shall be used in any action as next friend of any infant where the suit is instituted by an advocate, such person shall sign a written authority to the advocate for that purpose, and the authority shall be filed.

[Order 32 rule 2.] Where suit is instituted without next friend.

2. (1) Where a suit is instituted by or on behalf of a minor without a next friend the defendant may apply to have the suit dismissed with costs to be paid by the advocate or other person by whom it was presented.

(2) Notice of such application shall be given to such person, and the court, after hearing his objections (if any), may make such order in the matter as it thinks fit.

[Order 32, rule 3.] Guardian ad litem.

3. (1) Where the defendant is a minor, the court, on being satisfied of the fact of his minority, shall appoint a proper person to be guardian ad litem of such minor.

(2) An order for the appointment of guardian ad litem may be obtained upon application in the name and on behalf of the minor or by the plaintiff.

(3) Such application shall be supported by an affidavit verifying the fact that the proposed guardian has no interest in the matters in controversy in suit adverse to that of the minor and that he is a fit person to be so appointed.

(4) No order shall be made on any application under this rule except upon notice to the minor and to any guardian of the minor appointed or declared by an authority competent in that behalf, or, where there is no such guardian, upon notice to the father or mother of the minor, or, where there is no father or mother of the minor, to the person in whose care the minor is, and, after hearing any objections which may be urged on behalf of any person served with notice under this subrule.

[Order 32, rule 4.] Who may act as next friend or be appointed guardian for the suit.

4. (1) Any person who is of sound mind and has attained majority may act as next friend of a minor or as his guardian ad litem:

Provided that the interest of such person is not adverse to that of the minor, and that he is not, in the case of a next friend, a defendant, or, in the case of a guardian ad litem, a plaintiff

(2) Where a minor has a guardian appointed or declared by competent authority, no person other than such guardian shall act as the next friend of the minor or be appointed his guardian ad litem, unless the court considers, for reasons to be recorded, that it is for the minor's welfare that another person be permitted to act, or be appointed, as the case may be.

(3) No person shall without his consent be appointed a guardian ad litem.

(4) Where there is no other person fit and willing to act as guardian ad litem, the court may appoint any of its officers to be such guardian, and may direct that the costs to be incurred by such officer in the performance of his duties as such guardian shall be borne either by the parties or by any one or more of the parties to the suit, or out of any fund in court in which the minor is interested, and may give directions for the payment or allowance of such costs as justice and the circumstances of the case may require.

[Order 32, rule 5.] Representation of minor by next friend or guardian for the suit.

5. (1) Every application to the court on behalf of a minor, other than an application under rule 10 (2), shall be made by his next friend or by his guardian ad litem.

(2) Every order made in a suit or on any application before the court in or by which a minor is in any way concerned or affected, without such minor being represented by a next friend or guardian ad litem, as the case may be, may be discharged, and, where the advocate of the party at whose instance such order was obtained, knew, or might reasonably have known, the fact of such minority, with costs to be paid by such advocate.

[Order 32, rule 6.] Receipt of properties or money on behalf of minor.

6. (1) A next friend or guardian ad litem shall not, without the leave of the court, receive any money or other movable property on behalf of a minor, either—

(a) by way of compromise before decree or order; or

(b) under a decree or order in favour of the minor.

(2) Where the next friend or guardian ad litem has not been appointed or declared by competent authority to be guardian of the property of the minor, or, having been so appointed or declared, is under any disability known to the court to receive the money or other movable property, the court shall, if it grants him leave to receive the property, require such security and give such directions as will, in its opinion, sufficiently protect the property from waste and ensure its proper application.

[Order 32, rule 7.] Agreement or compromise of suit on behalf of minor.

7. (1) No next friend or guardian ad litem shall, without the leave of the court expressly recorded in the proceedings, enter into any suit agreement or compromise on behalf of a minor with reference to the suit in which he acts as next friend or guardian.

(2) Any such agreement or compromise entered into without the leave of the court so recorded shall be voidable against all parties other than the minor.

[Order 32, rule 8.] Retirement of next friend.

8. (1) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, a next friend shall not retire without first procuring a fit person to be put in his place and giving security for the costs already incurred.

(2) The application for the appointment of a new next friend shall be supported by an affidavit showing the fitness of the person proposed and also that he has no interest adverse to that of the minor.

[Order 31, rule 9.] Removal of next friend.

9. (1) Where the interest of the next friend of a minor is adverse to that of the minor, or where he is so connected with a defendant whose interest is adverse to that of the minor as to make it unlikely that the minor's interest will be properly protected by him, or where he does not do his duty, or during the pendency of the suit ceases to reside within Kenya, or for any other sufficient cause, application may be made on behalf of the minor or by a defendant for his removal, and the court, if satisfied of the sufficiency of the cause assigned, may order the next friend to be removed accordingly, and make such other order as to the costs as it thinks fit.

(2) Where the next friend is not a guardian appointed or declared by an authority competent in this behalf, and an application is made by a guardian so appointed or declared who desires to be himself appointed in the place of the next friend, the court shall remove the next friend unless it considers, for reasons to be recorded by it, that the guardian ought not to be appointed the next friend of the minor, and shall thereupon appoint the applicant to be next friend in his place upon such terms as to the costs already incurred in the suit as it thinks fit.

[Order 32, rule 10.] Stay of proceedings.

10. (1) On the retirement, removal or death of the next friend of a minor, further proceedings shall be stayed until the appointment of a next friend in his place.

(2) Where the advocate of such a minor omits, within a reasonable time, to get a new next friend appointed, any person interested in the minor or in the matter in issue may apply to the court for the appointment of one, and the court may appoint such person as it thinks fit.

[Order 32, rule 11.] Retirement, removal, or death of guardian ad litem.

11. (1) Where the guardian ad litem desires to retire or does not do his duty, or where other sufficient ground is made to appear, the court may permit such guardian to retire or may remove him, and may make such order as to costs as it thinks fit.

(2) Where the guardian ad litem retires, dies, or is removed by the court during the pendency of the suit, the court shall appoint a new guardian in his place.

[Order 32, rule 12.] Procedure where minor attains majority.

12. (1) A minor plaintiff or a minor not a party to a suit on whose behalf an application is pending shall, on attaining majority, elect whether he will proceed with the suit or application.

(2) Where he elects to proceed with the suit or application he shall apply for an order discharging the next friend and for leave to proceed in his own name.

(3) The title of the suit or application shall in such case be corrected so as to read thenceforth thus —

“A.B., late a minor, by C.D., his next friend, but now having attained majority.”

(4) Where he elects to abandon the suit or application he shall, if a sole plaintiff or sole applicant apply for an order to dismiss the suit or application on repayment of the costs incurred by the defendant or opposite party, or which may have been paid by his next friend.

(5) Any application under this rule may be made ex pane by chamber summons; but no order discharging a next friend and permitting a minor plaintiff to proceed in his own name shall be made without notice to the next friend.

[Order 32, rule 13.] Where minor co –plaintiff attaining majority desires to repudiate suit.

13. (1) Where a minor co-plaintiff on attaining majority desires to repudiate the suit, he shall apply to have his name struck out as co- plaintiff; and the court, if it finds that he is not a necessary party, shall dismiss him from the suit on such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fit.

(2) Notice of the application shall be served on the next friend, on any co-plaintiff, and on the defendant.

(3) The costs of all parties to such application, and of all or any proceedings theretofore had in the suit, shall be paid by such persons as the court directs.

(4) Where the applicant is a necessary party to the suit, the court may direct him to be made a defendant.

[Order 32, rule 14.] Unreasonable or improper suit.

14. (1) A minor on attaining majority may, if a sole plaintiff, apply that a suit instituted in his name by a next friend be dismissed on the ground that it was unreasonable or improper.

(2) Notice of the application shall be served on all the parties concerned; and the court, upon being satisfied of such unreasonableness or impropriety, may grant the application and order the next friend to pay the costs of all parties in respect of the application and of anything done in the suit, or make such other order as it thinks fit.

[Order 32, rule 15.] Application of rules to persons of unsound mind.

15. The provisions contained in rules 1 to 14, SO far as they are applicable, shall extend to persons adjudged to be of unsound mind, and to persons who though not so adjudged are found by the court on inquiry, by reason of unsoundness of mind or mental infirmity, to be incapable of protecting their interests when suing or being sued.

[Order 33, rule 4.] Examination of applicant.

4. Where the application is in proper form and duly presented the court may, if it deems fit, examine the applicant or his agent, when the applicant is allowed to appear by agent, regarding the merits of the claim and the property of the applicant.

(3) The court shall then either allow or refuse to allow the applicant to sue as a pauper.

[Order 33, rule 8.] Procedure if application admitted.

14. An order refusing to allow the applicant to sue as a pauper shall be a bar to any subsequent application of the like nature by him in respect of the same right to sue; but the applicant shall be at liberty to institute a suit in the ordinary manner in respect of such right provided that he first pays the costs (if any) incurred by the Government and by the opposite party in opposing his application for leave to sue as a pauper.

6. The court may make all such orders as are just and reasonable as to costs and all other matters including, where appropriate, orders for the sale or disposal of the subject-matter of the dispute, and where an order for costs is in favour of the applicant the court may give him a charge over the subject-matter.
