Adjustment Orders

18. (1) this section shall apply to —

(a) any premise to which members of the public are ordinarily admitted whether on payment of a fee or otherwise; and

(b) any services or amenities ordinarily provided to members of the public.

(2) without prejudice the provisions of the section 19, if the Board considers that any premises, services or amenities are inaccessible to Persons with Disabilities by reason of any structural, physical, administrative or other impediment to such access, the Board may, subject to this section, serve upon the owner of the premises or the provider of the services or amenities concerned an adjustment orders —

(a) Setting out —

(i) a full discrimination of the premises, services or amenities concerned; and

(ii) the grounds upon which the board considers that the premises, services or amenities are inaccessible to Persons with Disabilities;

(b) requiring the owner or provider concerned to undertake at his own expense such action as may be specified in order to secure reasonable access by Persons with Disabilities to the premises, services or amenities concerned; and

(c) stipulating the period within which the action referred to in paragraph (b) shall be commenced and completed.
(3) Before serving an order under subsection (2) the Board shall serve notice upon the person concerned—

(a) specifying the ground upon which the adjustment order is to be issued and the nature of the action which the board considers necessary to rectify the situation which has given rise to the proposed order;

(b) stipulating the maximum period that the board considers reasonable for the implementation of the action it proposes to order; and

(c) calling upon the person concerned, if he wishes to do so, to make representations to the board within thirty days from the date of the service of the notice.

(4) After considering any representations described in subsection (3) (c) the board may issue, or refrain from or defer the issuing of, an adjustment order.

(5) Within thirty days after an adjustment order is confirmed or issued under subsection (4), the person concerned may appeal against the confirmation or issue to the High Court in the prescribed manner on any grounds including on the grounds that—

(a) he cannot reasonably be expected to bear the whole or any part of the expense required in implementing the adjustment order;

(b) the period stipulated for implementing the adjustment order is unreasonable; or

(c) the nature of the action required to be taken in terms of the adjustment order is, in the circumstances of the case, unreasonable; or

(d) adequate access to the premises, services or amenities concerned may be secured without recourse to the action required by the adjustment order.

(6) Upon hearing an appeal under subsection (5) the Court may—

(a) confirm, vary or set aside the adjustment order appealed against; and

(b) make such order as to the cost of the appeal as it thinks fit.

Denial of admission into a premise

19. (1) No person shall, on the ground of disability alone, deny a person with a disability —

(a) admission into any premises to which members of the public are ordinarily admitted; or
(b) the provision of any services or amenities to which members of the public are entitled, unless such denial is motivated by a genuine concern for the safety for such person.

(2) The proprietor of premises referred to in subsection (1) (a) shall not have the right, on the ground of the person’s disability alone, to reserve the right of admission to his premises against such person.

(3) A person with a disability who is denied admission into any premises or the provision of any service or amenity contrary to subsection (1) shall be deemed to have suffered an injury and shall have the right to recover damages in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(4) Without prejudice to subsection (3), damages awarded under that subsection shall be recoverable summarily as a civil debt.
