so called upon declines to accept such office, the payment of his pension may be suspended until he has attained the age of fifty years.

circumstances in which he is permitted by the law or regulations of the service in which he is last employed to retire on a pension or gratuity, be granted, in respect of his service in the

(iii) if that one-third is more than the full annual pensionable emoluments enjoyed by him at the date of his retirement in respect of the office then held by him, those pensionable emoluments shall be taken.

   Provided that where the annual pensionable emoluments of the pensionable office from which he has been transferred are not taken into account by reason of his having been reduced in rank for a disciplinary offence, then the emoluments in that other office which would have been pensionable emoluments had that office been a pensionable office shall be taken into account provided that the amount in that other office does not exceed the annual pensionable emoluments of the office from which he has been transferred.

(7) Where a period of service in a non-pensionable office is taken into account under this regulation, the officer shall during that period be deemed for the purposes of regulation 20 or 30 to be holding a pensionable office, and where that period is taken into account under paragraph (6), to have been confirmed therein.

27. Acting service
