“strike” means the cessation of work by employees acting in combination, or a concerted refusal or a refusal under a common understanding of employees to continue to work for the purpose of compelling their employer or an employers’ organisation of which their employer is a member to accede to any demand in respect of a trade dispute;

“trade dispute” means a dispute or difference, or an apprehended dispute or difference, between employers and employees, between employers and trade unions, or between an employers’ organisation and employees or trade unions, concerning any employment matter, and includes disputes regarding the dismissal, suspension or redundancy of employees, allocation of work or the recognition of a trade union;
“trade union” means an association of employees whose principal purpose is to regulate relations between employees and employers, including any employers’ organisation;

“unionisable employee” in relation to any trade union means the employees eligible for membership of that trade union.

3. Application

This Act shall not apply to any person in respect of his employment or service—

(a) in the armed forces, or in any reserve force thereof;
(b) in the Kenya Police, the Administrative Police Force, the Kenya Prisons Service and the National Youth Service, or in any reserve force or service thereof.

PART II – FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION

4. Employee’s right to freedom of association

(1) Every employee has the right to—

(a) participate in forming a trade union or federation of trade unions;
(b) join a trade union; or
(c) leave a trade union.

(2) Every member of a trade union has the right, subject to the constitution of that trade union to—

(a) participate in its lawful activities;
(b) participate in the election of its officials and representatives;
(c) stand for election and be eligible for appointment as an officer or official and, if elected or appointed, to hold office; and
(d) stand for election or seek for appointment as a trade union representative and, if elected or appointed, to carry out the functions of a trade union representative in accordance with the provisions of this Act or a collective agreement.

(3) Every member of a trade union that is a member of a federation of trade unions has the right, subject to the constitution of that federation to—

(a) participate in its lawful activities;
(b) participate in the election of any of its office bearers or officials; and
(c) stand for election or seek for appointment as an office bearer or official and, if elected or appointed, to hold office.

5. Protection of employees

(1) No person shall discriminate against an employee or any person seeking employment for exercising any right conferred in this Act.
(2) Without limiting the general protection conferred by subsection (1), no person shall do, or threaten to do any of the following—

(a) require an employee or a person seeking employment not to be or become a member of a trade union or to give up membership of a trade union;

(b) prevent an employee or person seeking employment from exercising any right conferred by this Act or from participating in any proceedings specified in this Act;

(c) dismiss or in any other way prejudice an employee or a person seeking employment—

(i) because of past, present or anticipated trade union membership;

(ii) for participating in the formation or the lawful activities of a trade union;

(iii) for exercising any right conferred by this Act or participating in any proceedings specified in this Act; or

(iv) for failing or refusing to do something that an employee may not lawfully permit or require an employee to do.

(3) No person shall give an advantage, or promise to give an advantage, to an employee or person seeking employment in exchange for the person not exercising any right conferred by this Act or not participating in any proceedings in terms of this Act:

Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent the parties to a dispute from concluding an agreement to settle that dispute.

6. Employer's right to freedom of association

(1) Every employer has the right to—

(a) participate in forming an employers' organisation or a federation of employers organisations; and

(b) subject to its constitution, join an employers organisation or a federation of employers' organisations.

(2) Every member of an employers' organisation has the right, subject to the constitution of that employers' organisation to—

(a) participate in its lawful activities;

(b) participate in the election of any of its office bearers or officials; and

(c) stand for election or seek for appointment as an office bearer or official and, if elected or appointed, to hold office.

(3) Every employer, whether or not that employer is a member of an employers' organisation that is a member of a federation of employers organisations, has the right, subject to the constitution of that federation to—

(a) participate in its lawful activities;

(b) participate in the election of any of its office bearers or officials;

(c) stand for election and be eligible for appointment as an office bearer or official; and
(d) stand for election or seek appointment as an office bearer and if elected or appointed to hold office.

(4) An employer that is a juristic person may exercise the right to stand for election and hold office in an employer’s organisation or federation of employers’ organisation through a representative.

7. Protection of employers’ rights

(1) No person shall discriminate against an employer for exercising any right conferred by this Act.

(2) Without limiting the general protection conferred by subsection (1), no person shall do, or threaten to do any of the following—

(a) require an employer not to be or become a member of an employers’ organisation or to give up membership of an employer organisation;

(b) prevent an employer from exercising any right conferred by this Act or from participating in any proceedings specified in this Act;

(c) in any way prejudice an employer—

(i) because of past, present or anticipated employers’ organisation membership;

(ii) for participation in the formation of the lawful activities of an employers’ organisation;

(iii) for exercising any right conferred by this Act or participation in any proceedings specified in this Act; or

(iv) failing or refusing to do something that an employer may not lawfully do.

(3) No person shall give an advantage, or promise to give an advantage to an employer in exchange for the employer not exercising any right conferred by this Act or not participating in any proceedings provided for in this Act: Provided that, nothing in this section shall prevent the parties to a dispute from concluding an agreement to settle that dispute.

8. Rights of trade unions, employers’ organisations and federations

Every trade union, employers’ organisation or federation has the right to—

(a) subject to the provisions of this Act—

(i) determine its own constitution and rules; and

(ii) hold elections to elect its officers;

(b) plan and organise its administration and lawful activities;

(c) participate in forming a federation of trade unions or a federation of employers organisations;

(d) join a federation of trade unions or a federation of employers organisations, subject to its constitution, and to participate in its lawful activities; and
(e) affiliate with, and to participate in the affairs of any international workers organisation or international employers organisation or the international labour organisation, and to contribute or receive financial assistance from those organisations.

9. Provision may not be varied by agreement

A provision in any contract of employment or collective agreement, whether concluded before or after the commencement of this Act, that contradicts or limits any provision of this section is invalid, unless the contractual provision is expressly permitted by this Act.

10. Disputes under Part

If there is a dispute about the interpretation or application of any provision of this Part, any party to the dispute may refer the dispute in writing—

(a) to the Minister to appoint a conciliator as specified in Part VIII; or

(b) if the dispute is not resolved at conciliation, to the Industrial Court for adjudication.

11. Burden of proof

In any proceedings under this Act—

(a) a party that alleges that a right or protection conferred by this part has been infringed shall prove the facts of the conduct; and

(b) the party who is alleged to have engaged in that conduct shall prove that their conduct did not infringe any provision of this Part.

PART III – ESTABLISHMENT AND REGISTRATION OF TRADE UNIONS AND EMPLOYERS’ ORGANISATIONS

12. Establishing a trade union or employers’ organisation

(1) No person shall recruit members for the purpose of establishing a trade union or employers’ organisation unless that person has obtained a certificate from the Registrar issued under this section.

(2) An application for the certificate referred to in subsection (1) shall—

(a) be signed by two persons who are promoting the establishment of the trade union or employers’ organisation;

(b) specify the name of the proposed trade union or employers’ organisation; and

(c) contain any other prescribed information.

(3) The Registrar shall issue a certificate within thirty days of receiving an application unless—

(a) the application is defective; or

(b) the name of the proposed trade union or employers’ organisation is the same as that of an existing trade union or employers’ organisation or is sufficiently similar so as to mislead or cause confusion.
(4) A certificate issued under subsection (3) shall specify that—
   (a) the promoters may undertake lawful activities in order to establish a trade union or employers’ organisation; and
   (b) an application for the registration of the trade union or employers’ organisation shall be made to the Registrar within six months of the date of issue of the certificate.

(5) The Registrar may withdraw a certificate issued under this section if the Registrar has reason to believe that—
   (a) the certificate was obtained by fraud, misrepresentation or as a result of a mistake; or
   (b) any person has undertaken an unlawful activity, whether in contravention of this Act or any other law, on behalf of the proposed trade union or employers’ organisation.

13. Application to register a trade union or employers’ organisation

A trade union or employers’ organisation shall apply to the Registrar for registration within six months of receiving a certificate issued under section 12.

14. Requirements for registering a trade union

(1) A trade union may apply for registration if—
   (a) the trade union has applied for registration in accordance with this Act;
   (b) the trade union has adopted a constitution that complies with the requirements of this Act, including the requirements set out in the First Schedule;
   (c) the trade union has an office and postal address within Kenya;
   (d) no other trade union already registered is—
      (i) in the case of a trade union of employers or of employees, sufficiently representative of the whole or of a substantial proportion of the interests in respect of which the applicants seek registration; or
      (ii) in the case of an association of trade unions, sufficiently representative of the whole or a substantial proportion of the trade unions eligible for membership thereof:

Provided that the Registrar shall, by notice in the Gazette and in one national daily newspaper with wide circulation, notify any registered trade union, federation of trade unions or employers’ organisations which appear to him to represent the same interest as the applicants of the receipt of such application and shall invite the registered trade union federation of trade unions or employers’ organisation concerned to submit in writing, within a period to be specified in the notice, any objections to the registration;

   (e) subject to subsection (2), only members in a sector specified in the constitution qualify for membership of the trade union;
(f) the name of the trade union is not the same as that of an existing trade union, or sufficiently similar so as to mislead or cause confusion;

(g) the decision to register the trade union was made at a meeting attended by at least fifty members of the trade union;

(h) the trade union is independent from the control, either direct or indirect, of any employer or employers’ organisations; and

(i) the trade union’s sole purpose is to pursue the activities of a trade union.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1)(d), the Registrar may register a trade union consisting of persons working in more than one sector, if the Registrar is satisfied that the constitution contains suitable provisions to protect and promote the respective sectoral interests of the employees.

15. Requirements for registering employers’ organisation

(1) An employers’ organisation may apply for registration if—

(a) the employers’ organisation has applied for registration in accordance with the requirements of this Act;

(b) the employers’ organisation has adopted a constitution that complies with the requirements of this Act, including the requirements of the First Schedule;

(c) the employers’ organisation has an office and postal address within Kenya;

(d) no other employers’ organisation already registered is—

(i) in the case of a trade union of employers or of employees, sufficiently representative of the whole or of a substantial proportion of the interests in respect of which the applicants seek registration; or

(ii) in the case of an association of trade unions, sufficiently representative of the whole or a substantial proportion of the trade unions eligible for membership thereof:

Provided that the Registrar shall, by notice in the Gazette and in any one national daily newspaper with wide circulation, notify any registered trade union federation of trade unions or employers’ organisation which appears to him to represent the same interest as the applicants of the receipt of such application and shall invite the registered trade union federation of trade unions or employers’ organisation concerned to submit in writing within a period to be specified in the notice, any objections to the registration;

(e) subject to subsection (2), the constitution of the employers’ organisation specifies that only employers within a specified sector qualify for membership;

(f) the name of the employers’ organisation is not the same as that of an existing employers’ organisation or sufficiently similar so as to mislead or cause confusion;
(g) the decision to register was taken at a meeting attended by at least four members;
(h) the employers' organisation is independent from the control, either directly or indirectly of any trade union or federation of trade unions;
(i) the employers' organisation’s primary purpose is to conduct the activities of an employer’s organisation.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1)(c), the Registrar may register an employers' organisation consisting of employers in more than one sector, if the Registrar is satisfied that the constitution contains suitable provision to protect and promote the respective sectoral interests of employers.

16. Requirements for registering federation of trade unions

The requirements for registration as federation of trade unions are—

(a) the federation has applied for registration in accordance with this Act;
(b) the federation has adopted a constitution that complies with the requirements of this Act;
(c) the federation has an office and postal address in Kenya;
(d) the constitution of the federation specifies that its members are registered trade unions only;
(e) the federation was established at a meeting attended by the representatives of at least three registered trade unions with the mandate of their respective executive boards;
(f) the name of the federation is not the same as one of an existing trade union or federation or sufficiently similar so as to mislead or cause confusion; and
(g) the federation is independent from the control, either, directly or indirectly, of any employers' organisation or federation of employers.

17. Requirements for registering a federation of employers

The requirements for registration of a federation of employers are—

(a) the federation has applied for registration in accordance with this Act;
(b) the federation has adopted a constitution that complies with the requirements of this Act;
(c) the federation has an office and postal address in Kenya;
(d) the constitution of the federation specifies that its members are employers or registered employers' organisations;
(e) any other trade union already registered is—

(i) in the case of a trade union of employers or of employees, sufficiently representative of the whole or of a substantial proportion of the interests in respect of which the applicants seek registration; or
(ii) in the case of an association of trade unions, sufficiently representative of the whole or a substantial proportion of the trade unions eligible for membership thereof:

Provided that the Registrar shall, by notice in the Gazette and in any one national daily newspaper with wide circulation, notify any registered trade union, federation of trade unions or employers' organisation which appears to him to represent the same interest as the applicants of the receipt of such application and shall invite the registered trade union or federation of trade unions or employers organisation concerned to submit, in writing within a period to be specified in the notice, any objections to the registration;

(f) the federation was established at a meeting attended by the representatives of at least three members;

(g) the name of the federation is not the same as one of an existing federation of employers or sufficiently similar so as to mislead or cause confusion;

(h) it is independent from the control, either directly or indirectly of any trade union or federation of trade unions.

18. Application for registration

(1) An application to register a trade union, employers' organisation or federation shall be made to the Registrar in Form A set out in the Second Schedule, accompanied by—

(a) the prescribed fee;

(b) a certified copy of the constitution of the trade union or employers' organisation; and

(c) a certified copy of the attendance register and minutes of the meeting at which the trade union, employers' organisation or federation was established.

(2) An application to register a trade union shall be signed by seven members of the trade union.

(3) The Registrar may—

(a) call for further information for the purposes of evaluating an application for registration; or

(b) give an applicant for registration an opportunity to rectify the application within a period specified by the Registrar.

(4) If the proposed name of a trade union, employers' organisation or federation is the same or sufficiently similar to that of an existing organisation so as to mislead or cause confusion, the Registrar shall—

(a) request the applicant for registration to alter the name of the trade union or employers' organisation or federation; or

(b) not register the trade union, employers organisation or federation until a suitable alteration has been made.
19. Registration of trade union, employers’ organisation or federation

(1) If the Registrar is satisfied, after consulting the Board, that a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation that has applied for registration meets the requirements of the Act, the Registrar shall register that trade union, employers organisation or federation and shall—

(a) issue a certificate of registration in Form B set out in the Second Schedule; and

(b) enter the name and details of the trade union, employers’ organisation or federation in the appropriate register in Form C set out in the Second Schedule.

(2) A certificate of registration issued under subsection (1) is conclusive evidence that the trade union, employers’ organisation or federation has been duly registered under this Act unless it is proved that the certificate has been withdrawn or cancelled.

20. Refusal to register a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation

If the Registrar is not satisfied that a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation meets the requirements for registration and refuses the application for registration, the Registrar shall advise the trade union, employers’ organisation or federation of the reasons for that refusal in Form D set out in the Second Schedule.

21. Effect of registration

A trade union, employers’ organisation or federation shall be registered as a body corporate—

(a) with perpetual succession and a common seal;

(b) with the capacity in its own name to—

(i) sue and be sued; and

(ii) enter into contracts; and

(c) hold, purchase or otherwise acquire and dispose of movable and immovable property.

22. Objects in restraint of trade not unlawful

A registered trade union, employers’ organisation or federation is not an association in restraint of trade and its objects may not, by reason only that they are in restraint of trade—

(a) be deemed to be unlawful so as to render any member of the trade union liable to criminal prosecution for conspiracy or otherwise; or

(b) be unlawful so as to render void or voidable any agreement or trust.

23. Consequences of failure to register

(1) No person shall perform any act in furtherance of a trade union or employers’ organisation unless that trade union or employers’ organisation—

(a) is registered under this Act; or
(b) an application for its registration is being considered.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), an employers’ organisation or trade union may undertake activities in order to secure compliance with the requirements for registration if—

(a) the Registrar has issued a certificate specified under section 12; and
(b) less than six months have elapsed from the time the registrar issued a notice as requested under section 14.

(3) The provisions of this section do not apply to any activity undertaken for the purpose of—

(a) defending proceedings against a trade union or employers’ organisations; or
(b) dissolving the trade union or employers’ organisation and disposing of its funds in accordance with its rules.

(4) No person shall act or purport to act as an officer or official of a trade union or employers’ organisation that is not registered or has had its registration cancelled.

24. Registered office

(1) Every trade union, employers’ organisation or federation shall—

(a) have a physical office and postal address to which all communication and notices may be addressed; and
(b) give notice of its physical office and postal address and of any change of office or address to the Registrar in Form E set out in the Second Schedule, who shall enter it in the appropriate register.

(2) No trade union, employers’ organisation or federation shall—

(a) operate without having a registered physical office; and
(b) fail to give notice of its office and address or any change of office or address as required under subsection (1).

25. Registration of branches

(1) A trade union, employers’ organisation or federation shall apply to the Registrar to register its branches in Form F set out in the Second Schedule.

(2) An application to register a branch shall—

(a) be made by an authorised representative within thirty days of the formation of the branch;
(b) specify the name of the branch, its postal address and the place at which the branch will meet or conduct its business; and
(c) specify the titles, names, ages, occupation and place of work of all officials of the branch.

(3) The authorised representative specified under subsection (2) shall give notice to the Registrar in writing of the dissolution of any branch of a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation.
(4) The Registrar—
   (a) shall maintain registers reflecting the branches of trade unions, employers’ organisations and federations; and
   (b) may request further information before deciding whether to register a branch or remove its name from the relevant register.

(5) No person shall act or purport to act as an official of a branch of a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation if that branch is not registered or has had its registration cancelled.

26. Amalgamation of trade unions, employers’ organisations or federations

(1) A registered trade union, employers’ organisation or federation may amalgamate with one or more registered trade unions or employers’ organisations, as the case may be.

(2) An amalgamation of trade unions, employers organisation or federation may occur without a dissolution or division of the funds of the amalgamating trade unions, employers’ organisations or federations.

(3) An amalgamation under this section may only occur if—
   (a) each of the amalgamating trade unions, employers’ organisations or federations has conducted a secret ballot in compliance with any prescribed requirements;
   (b) at least fifty per cent of the members of each trade union, employers’ organisation or federation entitled to vote have voted; and
   (c) the number of members who vote in favour of the proposed amalgamation exceeds by at least twenty per cent the number of members who vote against the amalgamation.

(4) Notice of a proposal to amalgamate a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation shall be in Form G set out in the Second Schedule and shall be signed by the authorized representative of each party to the amalgamation.

(5) If the amalgamated trade union, employers’ organisation or federation proposes to represent members in more than one sector, the Registrar may only register the amalgamated trade union, employers’ organisation or federation if satisfied that the constitution contains suitable provision to protect and promote the respective sectoral interests of employees or employers.

(6) Where the amalgamated trade union, employers' organisation or federation is registered under this Act, the Registrar shall—
   (a) issue a certificate of amalgamation in Form H set out in the Second Schedule; and
   (b) remove the amalgamating trade unions or employers’ organisations from the relevant register.

(7) The Registrar may not register the amalgamated trade union, employers’ organisation or federation if its name is the same or sufficiently similar to that of an existing union, organisation or federation so as to be likely to mislead or cause confusion.
(8) Where the Registrar has registered an amalgamated trade union, employers’ organisation or federation—

(a) all the assets, rights, obligations and liabilities of the amalgamating trade unions, employers’ organisations or federations devolve upon and invest in the amalgamated trade union, employers’ organisation or federation; and

(b) the amalgamated trade union, employers’ organisation or federation succeeds the amalgamating trade union, employers’ organisations or federations in respect of—

(i) any right that the amalgamating trade unions, employers’ organisations or federations enjoyed;

(ii) any fund established under this Act or any other law;

(iii) any court proceedings, court order, arbitration award or collective agreement or other agreement;

(iv) any written authorization by a member for the periodic deduction of levies or subscription due to the amalgamating organisation; and

(v) any notice by the Minister in respect of the deduction of trade union subscriptions as specified in Part VI.

27. Change of name or constitution of trade union, employers’ organisation or federation

(1) A trade union, employers’ organisation or federation may resolve to—

(a) change or replace its constitution; or

(b) change its name.

(2) A registered trade union, employers’ organisation or federation may apply to the Registrar to approve a change of name or an amendment to its constitution and rules by submitting to the Registrar—

(a) a notice in Form I or Form J as the case may be set out in the Second Schedule duly completed and signed by the secretary;

(b) a copy of the resolution containing details of the change; and

(c) a certificate signed by the secretary stating that the resolution was passed in accordance with the constitution and rules.

(3) Notice of the change specified in subsection (2) shall be submitted to the Registrar within fourteen days of any resolution to change the name or constitution.

(4) Upon receipt of the notice of change of name or constitution, the Registrar shall give a notice of at least twenty-one days in the Gazette and in three daily newspapers of national circulation inviting any objections to the proposed change of name or constitution by members of the trade union and where any such objection is raised, the Registrar shall investigate the complaint and the grounds relied upon and may—

(a) refer the matter to the Industrial Court;

(b) refuse to accept the proposed amendments; or

(c) make any orders that he may deem fit in the circumstances.
(5) The Registrar may approve a change of name or to the constitution if the applicable requirements of registration of a trade union, employer’s organisation or federation are met.

(6) The Registrar shall issue a certificate of change of name or change of the constitution in Form K or Form L, as the case may be.

(7) Any change of name or change to the constitution and rules of a registered trade union, organisation or federation shall take effect when the Registrar approves the change under this section.

(8) A change in the name of a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation does not—
   (a) affect any right or obligation of that trade union, employers’ organisation or federation;
   (b) render defective any legal proceedings by or against it and any proceeding instituted under the former name may be continued or commenced by or against it under the new name.

(9) Where the Registrar refuses to approve a change under this section, the Registrar shall give written notice of that decision and the reasons for the refusal.

28. Cancellation or suspension of registration

(1) The Registrar shall cancel or suspend the registration of a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation if—
   (a) the trade union, employers organisation or federation is dissolved;
   or
   (b) the Registrar is satisfied that the trade union, employers’ organisation or federation has ceased to exist.

(2) The Registrar may cancel or suspend the registration of a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation if the Registrar is satisfied that the trade union, employers’ organisation or federation—
   (a) was registered as a result of fraud, misrepresentation or mistake;
   (b) is operating in contravention of this Act;
   (c) is being used for an unlawful purpose;
   (d) has failed to conduct elections in accordance with the requirements of this Act; or
   (e) is not independent.

(3) The Registrar shall not cancel or suspend registration of a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation under subsection (2), unless the Registrar has—
   (a) given the trade union, employers’ organisation or federation at least two months notice of his intention to suspend or cancel its registration in Form M set out in the Second Schedule; and
   (b) considered any representations made by the trade union, employers’ organisation or federation within that two month period.
(4) If the Registrar cancels or suspends the registration of a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation, the Registrar shall—
   (a) notify it of that decision in Form N set out in the Second Schedule; and
   (b) give reasons for the decision.

(5) A trade union, employers’ organisation or federation may appeal against a decision of the Registrar to the Industrial Court.

29. Notice of dissolution

(1) When a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation is dissolved, the trade union, employers’ organisation or federation shall give notice of the dissolution in Form O set out in the Second Schedule which—
   (a) shall be submitted to the Registrar within fourteen days of the resolution to dissolve; and
   (b) shall be signed—
      (i) by an authorized representative; and
      (ii) by seven members of a trade union or three members of an employers’ organisation or federation.

(2) The Registrar shall—
   (a) issue a certificate of dissolution in Form P set out in the Second Schedule; and
   (b) register the dissolution if satisfied that the dissolution complies with the applicable constitution.

(3) The dissolution of a trade union, employer’s organisation or federation takes effect from the date of its registration.

30. Appeals against decision of Registrar

Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Registrar made under this Act may appeal to the Industrial Court against that decision within thirty days of the decision.

PART IV – OFFICIALS AND MEMBERS OF TRADE UNIONS AND EMPLOYERS’ ORGANISATIONS

31. Officials

(1) The officials of a trade union or employers’ organisation shall be persons who are, or have been, engaged or employed in the sector for which the trade union or employers’ organisation is registered.

(2) No person shall be an official of more than one trade union or employer’s organisation.

(3) An official of a trade union may also be an official of a federation of trade unions to which the trade union is affiliated.
(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1)—

(a) the general secretary of a trade union or the chief executive or association secretary of an employers’ organisation may be a person not engaged or employed in the sector concerned;

(b) a person may be an official of more than one employer’s organisation; and

(c) the Registrar may, on application by a trade union or employers’ organisation, permit any other office to be filled by a person not engaged or employed in the sector concerned.

(5) No person who has been convicted of a criminal offence involving fraud or dishonesty shall be an official of a trade union or employer’s organisation.

32. Membership of minors

An employee who has not attained the age of eighteen years but appears to be above the apparent age of sixteen years may be a member of—

(a) a trade union and, unless the constitution provides otherwise, shall enjoy all the rights of a member; and

(b) shall not be a member, the executive or a trustee of the trade union.

33. Voting members of trade union

No person shall be a voting member of—

(a) a trade union unless that person is employed in the sector for which the trade union is registered;

(b) an employers’ organisation unless that person has a physical address or an office in Kenya; or

(c) a registered trade union or employer’s organisation if that person’s subscriptions are more than thirteen weeks in arrears.

34. Election of officials

(1) The election of officials of a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation shall be conducted in accordance with their registered constitutions.

(2) The constitution of a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation shall—

(a) not contain a provision that discriminates unfairly between incumbents and other candidates in elections; and

(b) provide for the election, by secret ballot, of all officials of a trade union at least once every five years.

(3) Notice of the election of officials under this section shall be given to the Registrar in the prescribed form within fourteen days of the completion of the election.

(4) Disputes arising from, or connected directly or indirectly to, elections held under this section may be referred to the Industrial Court.
(5) The Registrar may issue directions to a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation to ensure that elections are conducted in accordance with this section and their respective constitutions.

35. Notification of officials

(1) A trade union, employers’ organisation or federation shall exhibit prominently—

(a) in its registered office, a notice giving the names of all officials and their titles;

(b) in every branch office the notice specified in paragraph (a) and in addition, a notice giving the names and titles of the officials of the branch.

(2) Notice of any changes of officials or of the title of any officials shall be submitted to the Registrar in Form Q set out in the Second Schedule, within fourteen days after the change, together with the prescribed fee, and the Registrar shall register the change, subject to subsection (4) and subsection (5).

(3) Before registering any change of officials or correcting any register, the Registrar may require the production of any relevant evidence of the change.

(4) If, after inquiry, the Registrar is not satisfied as to the validity of any appointment or the propriety of any proposed correction, the Registrar may refuse to register the change of officials or to correct the register.

(5) No change of officials shall have effect until it is registered by the Registrar.

(6) No person who is not registered by the Registrar in accordance with this section shall act or purport to act as an official of a trade union, employers’ organisation, or federation or of any branch.

PART V – PROPERTY, FUNDS AND ACCOUNTS OF TRADE UNIONS, EMPLOYERS’ ORGANISATIONS AND FEDERATIONS

36. Trustees

(1) The constitution of a trade union, employers’ organisation and federation shall provide—

(a) for the appointment or election of at least three trustees; and

(b) for the filling of any vacancy in the office of a trustee to ensure that there are at least three trustees at all times.

(2) Subject to section 35, any officer, official or member of a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation may be a trustee.

(3) No person who has been convicted of a crime involving fraud or dishonesty shall be a trustee.

(4) Any person appointed as a trustee under this section shall comply with the duties and responsibilities of a trustee specified in the Trustees (Perpetual Succession) Act (Cap. 164).
37. Property to be vested in trustees

(1) All property, whether movable or immovable, of a registered trade union, employers’ organisation or federation shall vest in its trustees for the use and benefit of the trade union, employers’ organisation or federation and its members.

(2) The Minister may, with the consent of the trade union, employers’ organisation or federation concerned and by notice in the Gazette, authorize the transfer of specified property of that trade union, employers’ organisation or federation to persons other than its trustees, or for public purposes, other than the use of the trade union, employer’s organisation or federation and its members, which the Minister may prescribe.

38. Devolution of property

Upon any change in the office of any trustee, the property of a registered trade union, employers’ organisation or federation shall vest in the trustees for the time being of the union for the same estate and interest as the former trustee or trustees had therein, and subject to the same trusts, without any transfer, conveyance or assignment.

39. Application of funds

Subject to its rules and the provisions of this Act, the funds of a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation may be used only for the following purposes—

(a) the payment of salaries, allowances and expenses to its officials;

(b) the payment of expenses for the administration of the trade union, employer’s organisation or federation including auditing of its accounts;

(c) the prosecution or defence of any legal proceedings to which the trade union, employers’ organisation or federation or any member thereof is a party, when the prosecution or defence is undertaken for the purpose of securing or protecting its rights or the rights of any member in any matter concerning employment or the application of any employment law;

(d) the conduct of trade disputes on its behalf or on behalf of any member thereof;

(e) the compensation of members for loss arising out of trade disputes;

(f) the payment of allowances to members or their dependants on account of death, old age, sickness, accidents or unemployment of those members;

(g) the payment of subscriptions and fees to any registered federation to which it is affiliated; and

(h) subject to any condition determined by the Minister, any other object which the Minister may, on application of any trade union, employers’ organisation or federation, declare by notice in the Gazette to be an object for which its funds may be expended.
40. Prohibition of payment of fines or penalties

The funds of a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation shall not be used, either directly or indirectly, to pay the whole or part of a fine or penalty imposed upon a person by sentence or order of any court, except a fine or penalty imposed upon the union or federation under this Act or its regulations.

41. Injunction to restrain misuse of funds

(1) The Industrial Court may grant an injunction restraining unauthorized or unlawful expenditure of the funds of a trade union, employer’s organisation or federation on application by the Registrar, or by five or more persons having a sufficient interest in the relief sought.

(2) If, when granting an injunction under this section the Industrial Court cancels the registration of a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation, the court may order that the funds of that trade union, employer’s organisation or federation be paid to the public trustee for disposal in accordance with the rules of that trade union, employer’s organisation or federation.

42. Treasurer to render accounts

(1) In this section, “official” means the treasurer of a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation and every other official responsible for the accounts of a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation for collecting, disbursing, keeping in custody or controlling its funds or moneys.

(2) Every official shall render an accurate account of all moneys received or paid by the official—

(a) to the trade union, employers’ organisation or federation and its members—

(i) upon resigning or vacating office;

(ii) at least once in every year at such time as may be specified by the rules of the trade union, employers’ organisation or federation; and

(iii) at any other time required by a resolution of the members of the trade union, employers’ organisation or federation or by its rules;

(b) to the Registrar, when requested by the Registrar.

(3) An account rendered under this section shall specify—

(a) all amounts received or paid by the official since assuming office or, if the official has previously rendered an account, since the date of the last account;

(b) the balance remaining in the possession of the official at the time of rendering the account; and

(c) all bonds, securities or other property of the trade union, employers’ organisation or federation entrusted to the custody of, or under the control of the official.

(4) An account rendered under this section shall be in the Form R set out in the Third Schedule.
(5) The account rendered under this section shall be verified by statutory declaration, and shall be audited by the holder of a practising certificate issued pursuant to section 21 of the Accountants Act, 2008 (Cap. 531).

(6) After the account has been audited, the official shall, if resigning, vacating office or if required by the trustees to do so, forthwith hand over to the trustees of the trade union, employer’s organisation or federation any balance in the official’s possession and all bonds securities, effects, books, papers and property of the trade union, employer’s organisation or federation in the official’s possession or custody or otherwise under the official’s control.

(7) Any official of a trade union, employer’s organisation or federation or any person who—
(a) neglects or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section;
or
(b) willfully makes, orders, causes or procures to be made any false entry in or omission from an account rendered in terms of this section,
commits an offence.

[Act No. 15 of 2008, S. 50.]

43. Annual returns

(1) The authorised representative of a registered trade union, employers’ organisation, or federation shall furnish annually by a prescribed date to the Registrar a general statement of all receipts and expenditure during the year ending 31st December of the preceding year including—
(a) all sums of money received by way of donations or grants from any local or overseas sources;
(b) a list of assistance received from any sources; and
(c) a list of the assets and liabilities of the trade union as at 31st December.

(2) The statement specified under subsection (1) shall be accompanied by a copy of the auditor’s report and shall be prepared in such form and contain such particulars as may be prescribed.

(3) The authorised representative referred to in subsection (1) shall simultaneously furnish to the Registrar—
(a) an inventory of the trade union or organisation’s assets;
(b) a copy of the rules in force, including all alterations and amendments to the rules, and of all new rules; and
(c) a list of all changes of officials during the preceding year.

(4) Every member of a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation is entitled to receive, free of charge on request, a copy of the general statement referred to in subsection (1).

(5) An authorised representative of any trade union or employers’ organisation who—
(a) fails to comply with any of the requirements of this section;
(b) willfully makes or orders, causes or procures to be made a false entry in or omission from a general statement, copy or list delivered to the Registrar in terms of this section, commits an offence.

44. Inspection of accounts and records

The accounts of a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation and a list of its members shall be open to inspection by—

(a) an official or member of a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation at such times as may be specified in its constitution; and

(b) by the Registrar, or any person authorized in writing by the Registrar, at any reasonable time.

45. Obstructing inspection by Registrar

A person who obstructs or impedes the Registrar, or any person authorized by the Registrar, from inspecting the accounts of a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation or the list of its members commits an offence.

46. Power to require detailed accounts

(1) The Registrar may, at any time, call upon the treasurer, the executive or management board by whatever name called, or any other official of a trade union or employers’ organisation to render detailed accounts of its funds or the funds of any branch for any period, in the manner and containing such information as the Registrar may require.

(2) A person who fails to comply with a request made by the Registrar under subsection (1) commits an offence.

47. Misuse of money or property of a trade union

(1) The Industrial Court may—

(a) order any person who has in his possession or control any property of a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation in violation of its rules or who has unlawfully expended or withheld its moneys, to deliver that property or pay that money to its trustees; and

(b) suspend any official who contravenes paragraph (a).

(2) A complaint under this section shall be brought by—

(a) the Registrar; or

(b) a member of a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation at the time of bringing the complaint of the trade union or employers’ organisation concerned.

PART VI – TRADE UNION DUES, AGENCY FEES AND EMPLOYERS’ ORGANISATION FEES

48. Deduction of trade union dues

(1) In this Part “trade union dues” means a regular subscription required to be paid to a trade union by a member of the trade union as a condition of membership.
(2) A trade union may, in the prescribed form, request the Minister to issue an order directing an employer of more than five employees belonging to the union to—

(a) deduct trade union dues from the wages of its members; and

(b) pay monies so deducted—

(i) into a specified account of the trade union; or

(ii) in specified proportions into specified accounts of a trade union and a federation of trade unions.

(3) An employer in respect of whom the Minister has issued an order under subsection (2) shall commence deducting the trade union dues from an employee’s wages within thirty days of the trade union serving a notice in Form S set out in the Third Schedule signed by the employees in respect of whom the employer is required to make a deduction.

(4) The Minister may vary an order issued under this section on application by the trade union.

(5) An order issued under this section, including an order to vary, revoke or suspend an order, takes effect from the month following the month in which the notice is served on the employer.

(6) An employer may not make any deduction from an employee who has notified the employer in writing that the employee has resigned from the union.

(7) A notice of resignation referred to in subsection (6) takes effect from the month following the month in which it is given.

(8) An employer shall forward a copy of any notice of resignation he receives to the trade union.

49. Deduction of agency fees from unionisable employees covered by collective agreements

(1) A trade union that has concluded a collective agreement registered by the Industrial Court with an employer, group of employers or an employers’ organisation, setting terms and conditions of service for all unionisable employees covered by the agreement may request the Minister to issue an order requiring any employer bound by the collective agreement to deduct an agency fee from the wages of each unionisable employee covered by the collective agreement who is not a member of the trade union.

(2) A request in accordance with subsection (1) shall—

(a) be signed by the authorized representatives of the trade union and employer, group of employers or employers’ organisation;

(b) supply a list of all employees prepared by the employer in respect of whom a deduction shall be made;

(c) specify the amount of the agency fee, which may not exceed the applicable trade union dues; and

(d) specify the trade union account into which the dues shall be paid.
(3) An employer in respect of whom the Minister has issued an order as specified in subsection (1) shall commence deducting agency fees from the employees named in the Minister’s notice within thirty days of receiving the Minister’s notice.

(4) The Minister may vary an order issued under this section on application by the trade union, group of employers or employers’ organisation concerned.

(5) A member of a trade union covered by a collective agreement contemplated by subsection (1) who resigns from the union, is immediately liable to have an agency fee deducted from his wages in accordance with this section.

(6) If a collective agreement is implemented retrospectively after registration by the Industrial Court, the agency fee shall be deducted and paid to the trade union for the period of retrospective implementation in accordance with this section.

50. General provisions applicable to deductions

(1) Any amount deducted in accordance with the provisions of this Part shall be paid into the designated trade union, or employers’ organisation account within ten days of the deduction being made.

(2) The Minister may revoke or suspend a notice issued in accordance with this Part if the Minister has reason to believe that—
   (a) the order was obtained by misrepresentation or fraud;
   (b) the money is not being paid into the designated account; or
   (c) the money is being used for a purpose other than the lawful trade union or federation activities.

(3) No amount deducted from the wages of an employee in accordance of this Part may be recovered from the employer by that employee.

(4) Any amount deducted from the wages of a member of a trade union by the member’s employer in accordance with this section discharges the liability of the member to pay trade union dues.

(5) An employer may set off against any sum payable to a trade union in accordance with this section, the amount of any money over paid by the employer into the account designated by the Minister.

(6) No employer shall make a deduction from the wages of an employee for the purposes of making a payment to any trade union, except in accordance with the provisions of this Part.

(7) A trade union or a trade union federation shall acknowledge receipt of any monies paid to it within fourteen days of receiving the money.

(8) No employer shall—
   (i) fail to comply with an order or a notice issued under this Part;
   (ii) deduct any money and not pay it into the account designated in the notice issued by the Minister; or
   (iii) pay money into an account other than the account designated in the notice issued by the Minister.
(9) No person shall—
(i) request an employer to pay money deducted in accordance with this section into an account other than the account designated by the Minister in the notice; or
(ii) use any money deducted in accordance with this section for any purpose other than the lawful activities of a trade union or a trade union federation.

(10) An employer or any person who contravenes the provisions of this section commits an offence.

51. Collection of levies other than trade union dues

The Minister may make regulations providing for the collection from employees and the payment to trade unions and trade union federations by employers of sums in respect of levies, subscriptions or payments, other than trade union dues, for particular purposes or objects approved by the Minister.

52. Direct payment of trade union dues

Nothing in this Part prevents a member of a trade union from paying any dues, levies, subscriptions or other payments authorised by the constitution of the trade union directly to the trade union.

53. Payments by members to employers’ organisations

An employers’ organisation may provide in its constitution for its members to—
(a) pay subscriptions or levies as a condition of their membership of the employers’ organisation; and
(b) to charge its members a fee for services rendered to, and expenses incurred on behalf of the member.

PART VII – RECOGNITION OF TRADE UNIONS AND COLLECTIVE AGREEMENTS

54. Recognition of trade union by employer

(1) An employer, including an employer in the public sector, shall recognise a trade union for purposes of collective bargaining if that trade union represents the simple majority of unionisable employees.

(2) A group of employers, or an employers’ organisation, including an organisation of employers in the public sector, shall recognise a trade union for the purposes of collective bargaining if the trade union represents a simple majority of unionisable employees employed by the group of employers or the employers who are members of the employers’ organisation within a sector.

(3) An employer, a group of employers or an employer’s organisation referred to in subsection (2) and a trade union shall conclude a written recognition agreement recording the terms upon which the employer or employers’ organisation recognises a trade union.

(4) The Minister may, after consultation with the Board, publish a model recognition agreement.
(5) An employer, group of employers or employers’ association may apply to the Board to terminate or revoke a recognition agreement.

(6) If there is a dispute as to the right of a trade union to be recognised for the purposes of collective bargaining in accordance with this section or the cancellation of recognition agreement, the trade union may refer the dispute for conciliation in accordance with the provisions of Part VIII.

(7) If the dispute referred to in subsection (6) is not settled during conciliation, the trade union may refer the matter to the Industrial Court under a certificate of urgency.

(8) When determining a dispute under this section, the Industrial Court shall take into account the sector in which the employer operates and the model recognition agreement published by the Minister.

55. Election of trade union representatives

(1) Without limiting the matters that may be dealt with in a recognition agreement, a recognition agreement shall provide for trade union members in a workplace to elect from among themselves trade union representatives in accordance with the constitution of the trade union.

(2) A trade union representative elected under subsection (1) is entitled to—

(a) represent members in grievance and disciplinary hearings at the workplace; and

(b) perform any other functions specified in the recognition agreement or constitution of the trade union.

56. Trade union access to employer’s premises

(1) Without limiting the matters that may be dealt with in a recognition agreement, a recognition agreement shall provide for an employer to grant a trade union reasonable access to the employers premises for officials or authorised representatives of the trade union to pursue the lawful activities of the trade union, including but not limited to—

(a) recruiting members for the trade union;

(b) holding meetings with members of the trade union and other employees outside of working hours;

(c) representing members of the trade unions in dealings with the employer; and

(d) conducting ballots in accordance with the constitution of the trade union.

(2) An employer may—

(a) impose reasonable conditions as to the time and place of any rights granted in this section to avoid undue disruption of operations or in the interest of safety; and

(b) require officials or trade union representatives requesting access to provide proof of their identity and credentials.
(3) Any dispute concerning the granting of access, or the conditions upon which access is to be granted, may be referred to the Industrial Court under a certificate of urgency.

57. Collective agreements

(1) An employer, group of employers or an employers’ organisation that has recognised a trade union in accordance with the provisions of this Part shall conclude a collective agreement with the recognised trade union setting out terms and conditions of service for all unionisable employees covered by the recognition agreement.

(2) For the purpose of conducting negotiations under subsection (1), an employer shall disclose to a trade union all relevant information that will allow the trade union to effectively negotiate on behalf of employees.

(3) All the information disclosed by an employer as specified in subsection (2) is confidential and shall not be disclosed by any person to a person who is not engaged in the negotiations.

(4) An employer is not required to disclose information that—

(a) is legally privileged;

(b) the employer cannot disclose without contravening a prohibition imposed on the employer by any law or an order of any court;

(c) if disclosed, may cause substantial harm to the employer or employee; or

(d) is private personal information relating to an employee, unless an employee consents to the disclosure of that information.

(5) If there is a dispute about what information is required to be disclosed in accordance with the provisions of this section, any party to the dispute may, in writing, refer the dispute to the Minister for conciliation.

(6) If a dispute remains unresolved, after it has been referred to the Minister under subsection (5), any party to the dispute may refer the dispute to the Industrial Court under a certificate of urgency.

(7) In any dispute about an alleged breach of confidentiality, the Industrial Court may order that the right to disclosure of information be withdrawn for a period specified by the court.

(8) No person shall disclose any confidential information disclosed under this section to a person who is not a party to those negotiations.

58. Alternative dispute resolution

(1) An employer, group of employers or employers’ organisation and a trade union may conclude a collective agreement providing for—

(a) the conciliation of any category of trade disputes identified in the collective agreement by an independent and impartial conciliator appointed by agreement between the parties; and

(b) the arbitration of any category of trade disputes identified in the collective agreement by an independent and impartial arbitrator appointed by the agreement between the parties.
(2) A party that has referred a dispute to conciliation in terms of an agreement contemplated in subsection (1) is not required to refer it to the Minister for conciliation.

(3) An award in an arbitration in terms of a collective agreement contemplated in subsection (1) is final and binding and—
   (a) is subject to appeal on points of law to any court;
   (b) may be set aside by the Industrial Court on any ground recognised in law; or
   (c) may be enforced by the Industrial Court.

(4) An application to review an arbitration award shall be made to the Industrial Court within thirty days of the award.

59. Effect of collective agreements

(1) A collective agreement binds for the period of the agreement—
   (a) the parties to the agreement;
   (b) all unionisable employees employed by the employer, group of employers or members of the employers’ organisation party to the agreement; or
   (c) the employers who are or become members of an employers’ organisation party to the agreement, to the extent that the agreement relates to their employees.

(2) A collective agreement shall continue to be binding on an employer or employees who were parties to the agreement at the time of its commencement and includes members who have resigned from that trade union or employers’ association.

(3) The terms of the collective agreement shall be incorporated into the contract of employment of every employee covered by the collective agreement.

(4) A collective agreement shall be in writing and shall be signed by—
   (a) the chief executive officer of any employer, the chief executive or national secretary of an employers’ organisation that is a party to the agreement or a representative designated by that person; and
   (b) the general secretary of any trade union that is a party to the agreement or a representative designated by the general secretary.

(5) A collective agreement becomes enforceable and shall be implemented upon registration by the Industrial Court and shall be effective from the date agreed upon by the parties.

60. Registration of collective agreement

(1) Every collective agreement shall be submitted to the Industrial Court for registration within fourteen days of its conclusion.

(2) The employer or employer’s organisation which is party to an agreement to be registered under this section shall submit the agreement to the Industrial Court for registration.
(3) If an employer or employers’ organisation fails to submit the collective agreement to the Industrial Court as specified in subsection (1), the trade union may submit it.

(4) The Industrial Court may request the parties to a collective agreement to supply further information or make oral or written representations to it for the purposes of this section.

(5) The Industrial Court may register an agreement—
   (a) in the form it was submitted by the parties; or
   (b) with any amendment or modification agreed to by the parties.

(6) The Industrial Court shall not register a collective agreement that—
   (a) conflicts with this Act or any other law; or
   (b) does not comply with any directives or guidelines concerning wages, salary levels and other conditions of employment issued by the Minister.

(7) The Industrial Court—
   (a) may register a collective agreement within fourteen days of receiving it;
   (b) may refuse to register a collective agreement unless all parties to the agreement have had an opportunity to make oral representations to the Industrial Court; and
   (c) shall give reasons for refusing to register any collective agreement.

61. Terms and conditions of service in the public sector where there is no collective bargaining

(1) The Minister may, after consultations with the Board, make regulations establishing machinery for determining terms and conditions of employment for any category of employees in the public sector.

(2) The terms and conditions of employment determined under subsection (1) shall have the same effect as a collective agreement registered under this Part and may be enforced as if it were a collective agreement.

(3) The Minister may—
   (a) determine different terms and conditions for different categories of employees; or
   (b) not exercise the powers under this section in respect of a category of employees who are represented by a trade union that is entitled to be recognised in terms of this Part.

PART VIII – DISPUTE RESOLUTION

62. Reporting of trade disputes to the Minister

(1) A trade dispute may be reported to the Minister in the prescribed form and manner—
   (a) by or on behalf of a trade union, employer or employers’ organisation that is a party to the dispute; and
(b) by the authorised representative of an employer, employers’ organisation or trade union on whose behalf the trade dispute is reported.

(2) A person reporting a trade dispute shall—

(a) serve a copy by hand or registered post on each party to the dispute and any other person having a direct interest in the dispute; and

(b) satisfy the Minister that a copy has been served on each party to the dispute by hand or by registered post.

(3) A trade dispute concerning the dismissal or termination of an employee shall be reported to the Minister within—

(a) ninety days of the dismissal; or

(b) any longer period that the Minister, on good cause, permits.

(4) If the issue in dispute concerns the redundancy of one or more employees, a trade union may report a trade dispute to the Minister at any stage after the employer has given notice of its intention to terminate the employment of any employee on grounds of redundancy.

(5) The reporting of a trade dispute by a trade union under subsection (4) does not prevent an employer from declaring employees redundant on the expiry of notice of intention to declare the employees redundant.

63. Respondent may file replying statement

(1) Every party to a trade dispute referred to in section 62 shall file a replying statement in the prescribed form and manner with the Minister within fourteen days of receiving a copy of the report of the dispute.

(2) The failure by a party to file a replying statement does not affect the validity of a referral.

64. Interested party may file statement of interest

Any party which has an interest in any dispute may file a statement with the Minister within fourteen days of receiving a copy of the referral.

65. Minister to appoint conciliators

(1) Within twenty-one days of a trade dispute being reported to the Minister as specified under section 62, the Minister shall appoint a conciliator to attempt to resolve the trade dispute unless—

(a) the conciliation procedures in an applicable collective agreement binding on the parties to the dispute have not been exhausted; or

(b) a law or collective agreement binding upon the parties prohibits negotiation on the issue in dispute.

(2) The Minister may require any party to a trade dispute to supply further information for the purpose of deciding whether to appoint a conciliator.

(3) If the Minister refuses to appoint a conciliator as specified in subsection (1), the Minister shall supply the parties to the dispute with written reasons for that decision.
(4) Where a party is aggrieved by a Minister’s decision under this section, that party may refer the matter to the Industrial Court under a certificate of urgency.

(5) The Minister may consult the Board on any trade dispute, which has been reported for conciliation.

66. Persons appointed to conciliate

(1) A person appointed to conciliate a dispute under this Part shall be—
   (a) a public officer;
   (b) any other person drawn from a panel of conciliators appointed by the Minister after consulting the Board; or
   (c) a conciliator from the Conciliation and Mediation Commission.

(2) If the Minister appoints a conciliation committee to conciliate a trade dispute, the Minister shall appoint—
   (a) a chairperson in accordance with subsection (1);
   (b) an even number of persons drawn equally from lists submitted to the Minister by the employer and trade union representatives respectively on the Board; and
   (c) the secretary of the conciliation committee.

67. Conciliator’s powers to resolve dispute

(1) The conciliator or conciliation committee appointed under section 66 shall attempt to resolve the trade dispute referred to in section 65(1) within—
   (a) thirty days of the appointment; or
   (b) any extended period agreed to by parties to the trade dispute.

(2) For the purposes of resolving any trade dispute, the conciliator or conciliation committee may—
   (a) mediate between the parties;
   (b) conduct a fact-finding exercise; and
   (c) make recommendations or proposals to the parties for settling the dispute.

(3) For the purposes of resolving any trade dispute, the conciliator or conciliation committee may—
   (a) summon any person to attend a conciliation;
   (b) summon any person who is in possession or control of any information, book, document or object relevant to resolving the trade dispute to appear at the conciliation; or
   (c) question any person present at a conciliation.

(4) The Minister shall pay the prescribed witness fee to any person who appears before a conciliator or conciliation committee in response to a summons issued under subsection (3).
(5) No person shall without good cause fail to—
   (a) comply with a summons issued under subsection (3);
   (b) produce any book, document or item specified in a summons issued under subsection (3); or
   (c) answer any relevant question asked by a conciliator or conciliation commission under subsection (3).

68. Dispute resolved after conciliation

(1) If a trade dispute is settled in conciliation the terms of the agreement shall be—
   (a) recorded in writing; and
   (b) signed by the parties and the conciliator.

(2) A signed copy of the agreement shall be lodged with the Minister as soon as it is practicable.

69. Dispute unresolved after conciliation

A trade dispute is deemed to be unresolved after conciliation if the—
   (a) conciliator issues a certificate that the dispute has not been resolved by conciliation; or
   (b) thirty day period from the appointment of the conciliator, or any longer period agreed to by the parties, expires.

70. Minister may appoint conciliator in public interest

(1) If the Minister is satisfied that it is in the public interest to prevent a dispute from arising or to resolve a dispute, the Minister may appoint a conciliator or conciliation committee to attempt to present a dispute or resolve the dispute.

(2) The Minister may appoint a conciliator or conciliation committee under subsection (1)—
   (a) in respect of a dispute that—
      (i) has not been referred to conciliation; or
      (ii) is unresolved after conciliation;
   (b) irrespective of whether—
      (i) a trade union is a party to the dispute or not; or
      (ii) the dispute is in the public or private sector.

71. Committee of inquiry

The Minister may appoint a committee of inquiry to investigate any trade dispute and report to the Minister.

72. Exercise of powers of the Minister

The Minister may delegate his powers under this Part to the Commissioner for Labour or the Chief Industrial Relations Officer.
PART IX – ADJUDICATION OF DISPUTES

73. Referral of dispute to Industrial Court

(1) If a trade dispute is not resolved after conciliation, a party to the dispute may refer it to the Industrial Court in accordance with the rules of the Industrial Court.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), if a trade dispute—
   (a) is one in respect of which a party may call a protected strike or lock-out, the dispute may only be referred to the Industrial Court by an aggrieved party that has made a demand in respect of an employment matter or the recognition of a trade union which has not been acceded to by the other party to the dispute; or
   (b) is in an essential service, the Minister may, in addition, refer the dispute to the Industrial Court.

(3) A trade dispute may only be referred to the Industrial Court by the authorised representative of an employer, group of employers, employers’ organisation or trade union.

74. Urgent referrals to Industrial Court

A trade union may refer a dispute to the Industrial Court as a matter of urgency if the dispute concerns—
   (a) the recognition of a trade union in accordance with section 62; or
   (b) a redundancy where—
       (i) the trade union has already referred the dispute for conciliation under section 62(4); or
       (ii) the employer has retrenched employees without giving notice; or
   (c) employers and employees engaged in an essential service.

75. Arbitration Act does not apply

The Arbitration Act (No. 4 of 1995) shall not apply to any proceedings before the Industrial Court.

PART X – STRIKES AND LOCK-OUTS

76. Protected strikes and lock-outs

A person may participate in a strike or lock-out if—
   (a) the trade dispute that forms the subject of the strike or lock-out concerns terms and conditions of employment or the recognition of a trade union;
   (b) the trade dispute is unresolved after conciliation—
       (i) under this Act; or
       (ii) as specified in a registered collective agreement that provides for the private conciliation of disputes; and
(c) seven days written notice of the strike or lock-out has been given to the other parties and to the Minister by the authorised representative of—
   (i) the trade union, in the case of a strike;
   (ii) the employer, group of employers of employers’ organisation, in the case of a lock-out.

77. Powers of Industrial Court

(1) A party to a dispute that has received notice of a strike or lock-out may apply to the Industrial Court to prohibit the strike or lock-out as a matter of urgency if—
   (a) the strike or lock-out is prohibited under this Part; or
   (b) the party that issued the notice has failed to participate in conciliation in good faith with a view to resolving the dispute.

(2) A party that failed to attend any conciliation meeting may not seek relief under subsection (1)(b).

(3) The Industrial Court may, in granting relief in respect of any application made under subsection (1)(b), direct the parties to engage in further conciliation in good faith with a view to resolving the dispute.

78. Prohibited strikes or lock-outs

(1) No person shall take part in a strike or lock-out or in any conduct in contemplation of a strike or lock-out if—
   (a) any law, court award or a collective agreement or recognition agreement binding on that person prohibits a strike or lock-out in respect of the issue in dispute;
   (b) the subject matter of the strike or lock-out is regulated by a collective agreement or recognition agreement binding on the parties to the dispute;
   (c) the parties have agreed to refer the trade dispute to the Industrial Court or to arbitration;
   (d) in the case of a dispute concerning the recognition of a trade union, the trade union has referred the matter to the Industrial Court;
   (e) the trade dispute was not referred for conciliation in terms of—
      (i) this Act; or
      (ii) a collective agreement providing for conciliation;
   (f) the employer and employees are engaged in an essential service;
   (g) the strike or lock-out is not in furtherance of a trade dispute; or
   (h) the strike or lock-out constitutes a sympathetic strike or lock-out.

(2) For the purposes of this section—
   (a) an employee engages in a sympathetic strike if the employee participates in a strike in support of a trade dispute in respect of which the employee’s employer—
      (i) is not a party to the dispute; or
(ii) is not represented by an employer’s organisation that is a party to that dispute; or

(b) an employer engages in a sympathetic lock-out if the employer locks-out an employee in support of a trade dispute—

(i) to which the employer is not a party; or

(ii) in respect of which the employer is not represented by an employer’s organisation that is a party to dispute.

79. Strike or lock-out in compliance with this Act

(1) In this Part, a “protected strike” means a strike that complies with the provisions of this Part and “protected lock-out” means a lock-out that complies with the provisions of this Part.

(2) A person does not commit a breach of contract or a tort by taking part in—

(a) a protected strike or a protected lock-out; or

(b) any lawful conduct in contemplation or furtherance of a protected strike or a protected lock-out.

(3) An employer may not dismiss or take disciplinary action against an employee for participating in a protected strike or for any conduct in contemplation or furtherance of a protected strike.

(4) Civil proceedings may not be instituted against any person for—

(a) participating in a protected strike or a protected lock-out; or

(b) any conduct in furtherance of a protected strike or protected lock-out.

(5) Subsections (2), (3) and (4) do not apply to any action that constitutes an offence.

(6) An employer is not obliged to remunerate an employee for services that the employee does not render during a protected strike or lock-out.

80. Strike or lock-out not in compliance with this Act

(1) An employee who takes part in, calls, instigates or incites others to take part in a strike that is not in compliance with this Act is deemed to have breached the employee’s contract and—

(a) is liable to disciplinary action; and

(b) is not entitled to any payment or any other benefit under the Employment Act during the period the employee participated in the strike.

(2) A person who refuses to take part or to continue to take part in any strike or lock-out that is not in compliance with this Act may not be—

(a) expelled from any trade union, employers organisation or other body or deprived of any right or benefit as a result of that refusal; or

(b) placed under any disability or disadvantaged, compared to other members or the trade union, employers’ organisation or other body as a result of that refusal.
(3) Any issue concerning whether any strike or lock-out or threatened strike or lock-out complies with the provisions of this Act may be referred to the Industrial Court.

81. Essential services

(1) In this Part “essential services” means a service the interruption of which would probably endanger the life of a person or health of the population or any part of the population.

(2) The Minister, after consultation with the Board—
   (a) shall from time to time, amend the list of essential services contained in the Fourth Schedule; and
   (b) may declare any other service an “essential service” for the purpose of this section if a strike or lock-out is so prolonged as to endanger the life, person or health of the population or any part of the population.

(3) There shall be no strike or lock-out in an essential service.

(4) Any trade dispute in a service that is listed as or is declared to be an essential service may be adjudicated upon by the Industrial Court.

(5) A collective agreement may provide that any service may be deemed to be an essential service.

PART XI – MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

82. General penalty

(1) The Industrial Court has jurisdiction in respect of any prosecution for an offence under this Act.

(2) A trade union, employers’ organisation or federation which is convicted for an offence under this Act shall be liable to pay a fine not exceeding forty thousand shillings.

(3) A person who commits an offence under this Act shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding ten thousand shillings.

83. Regulations

The Minister may, after consultations with the Board, make regulations on any matter for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act.

84. Repeal of Cap. 233 and Cap. 234

(1) The Trade Union’s Act and the Trade Disputes Act are repealed.

(2) Transitional provisions dealing with the transition from the Trade Unions Act and the Trade Disputes Act to this Act are contained in the Fifth Schedule.

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

1. Existing trade unions, employers organisations and federations

   (1) A trade union, employers organisation or federation registered under the Trade Unions Act before the commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to be registered under this Act.

   (2) As soon as practical after the commencement of this Act, the Registrar shall—

       (a) enter the names of existing trade unions, employers organisations and federations into the registers as specified in section 19 of this Act;

       (b) issue a certificate of registration in accordance with section 19 of this Act.

   (3) If any provision of a constitution of a trade union, employers’ organisation or federation does not comply with the requirements of this Act, the trade union, employers organisation or federation shall amend its constitution and submit the amendments to the Registrar within six months of the commencement of this Act.

   (4) The provisions of section 19 of this Act apply to an amendment made under subparagraph (3).

2. Pending application for registration

   (1) Any pending application for registration, alteration of the name of a constitution, or amalgamation shall be deemed to have been made under this Act.

   (2) When dealing with an application referred to in subparagraph (1), the Registrar may require the applicant to amend its application in order to comply with the provisions of this Act.
(3) Any collective agreement registered by the Industrial Court prior to the commencement of this Act and still in effect at the commencement of this Act is deemed to have been registered in terms of this Act and shall be have the status of a registered collective agreement under this Act.

(4) Where any of the following matters commenced before the commencement of this Act, the matters shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Trade Disputes Act (now repealed)—

(a) any trade dispute that arose before the commencement of this Act;
(b) any trade dispute referred to the Industrial Court before the commencement of this Act;
(c) any revision or interpretation of an award by the Industrial Court; and
(d) any summary dismissal that took place before the commencement of this Act.

Regulations Under Section 54

TRADE UNIONS REGULATIONS

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Trade Unions Regulations.

FORM OF REGISTER, CERTIFICATES, APPLICATIONS AND NOTICES

2. (1) Every register, certificate, order, application and notice under the Act shall be kept, issued, made or given in the appropriate form set out in the First Schedule.

(2) The number of copies to be submitted of any such application or notice, if more than one, shall be as stated in the form of such application or notice set out in the First Schedule.

(3) Any authority or person having power to issue any certificate under the Act shall, on it being proved to his satisfaction that such certificate has been lost or destroyed and on payment of the prescribed fee, issue a duplicate of the certificate to the person entitled thereto.

REGISTER OF TRADE UNIONS

3. The particulars to be recorded in the register shall be those specified in Form A in the First Schedule.

4. (1) The manner of registering a trade union shall be by entering in the register the name of the trade union, the situation and postal address of its registered office, the titles and names of its officers, and the date of the registration.

(2) The manner of registering a change of name of a trade union shall be by deleting the name under which such trade union has been registered in the register and by substituting therefor the new name of the trade union.

5. (1) The register and any documents in connection therewith shall be open to inspection by the public, during the hours in which the office of the Registrar is open to the public, upon payment of the prescribed fee.

(2) Copies of or extracts from the register or documents in the custody of the Registrar may be obtained by any person giving reasonable notice and upon payment of the prescribed fees.

ANNUAL RETURNS

6. (1) The general statement referred to in subsection (1) of section 47 of the Act shall be furnished to the Registrar on or before the first day of April in each year.

(2) The general statement shall be in the form, and comprise the particulars specified, in the Second Schedule and shall be audited in the manner shown in the form of Auditor’s Report contained in that Schedule.

AMALGAMATION OF TRADE UNIONS

7. A registered trade union, when proposing to amalgamate with one or more other trade unions in the manner provided by section 32 of the Act, shall take steps fully to inform, in a suitable manner, all members concerned as to—

(a) the reasons for the proposed amalgamation;
8. A notice, giving the particulars specified in regulation 7, shall be posted in the registered office of the trade union and in every branch office thereof at least two weeks before the secret ballot is held, and shall remain so posted until the secret ballot has been concluded.

9. The procedure to be followed in taking the secret ballot shall be as follows—
   (a) the ballot shall be conducted jointly by an officer of the trade union and a representative chosen by the members;
   (b) the persons responsible for conducting the ballot shall be furnished with—
      (i) a list of the members entitled to vote thereat;
      (ii) an adequate supply of ballot papers in the form in the Third Schedule and not marked in any way whatsoever so as to identify the person voting; and
      (iii) a suitable ballot box fitted with lock and key,
   (c) arrangements shall be made to enable each member concerned, at places adjacent to the ballot box, to obtain a ballot paper and to mark it, screened from observation, before depositing it in the box;
   (d) the name of each member to whom a ballot paper is handed out shall be marked off on the list of members concerned by the person handing out the ballot papers;
   (e) the member shall, after marking the paper, fold it so as to cover the marking and deposit it in the ballot box;
   (f) the ballot papers shall be examined and the votes shall be counted by the persons conducting the ballot, and certificates of the result of the ballot, in the form in the Third Schedule shall be signed jointly by them; and a signed copy of the certificate shall—
      (i) be posted in the registered office of the trade union and in every branch office thereof for a period of not less than one week after the conclusion of the secret ballot;
      (ii) be attached to the notice of amalgamation sent to the Registrar under subsection (1) of section 33 of the Act, which notice shall be in Form K in the First Schedule.

10. In the event of disagreement as regards the interpretation or application of the above provisions relating to amalgamation or the procedure for taking a secret ballot, the matter shall be referred to the Registrar, who may, if he thinks fit, conduct the secret ballot himself.

NOTICE OF CHANGE OF RULES

11. Whenever a trade union changes its rules, notice of that change in Form M in the First Schedule, signed by the secretary and by seven members of the trade union authorised in that behalf by resolution passed at a general meeting of the trade union, shall be sent to the Registrar within seven days of the change, and shall be accompanied by a copy of the minutes of the meeting at which the change was made, certified as a true copy by the chairman of the meeting.

FEES

12. The fees set out in the Fourth Schedule shall be payable to the Registrar in respect of the several matters specified therein.
13. (1) Every registered trade union shall keep a register of its members, in which shall be entered—

(a) the name, address and occupation of each member;
(b) the date on which each member was admitted to membership;
(c) the payments made by each member in respect of entrance fee, subscriptions or any other matter, and the dates of such payments; and
(d) the date on which any member ceases to be a member.

(2) If any registered trade union fails to keep a register of its members in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (1), the trade union and every officer or person acting or purporting to act as an officer thereof shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred shillings.

NOTIFICATION OF DEFERMENT OF REGISTRATION
[Section 11.]

It is notified that the registration of ................................................................. as a trade union under the Trade Unions Act is deferred, and that by reason of that deferment the trade union has become a probationary trade union.

Dated the ...................................................., 20 ...........

Registrar of Trade Unions
NOTE.—After the expiration of three months and before the expiration of twelve months from the date of this notice, the Registrar (either on the application of the probationary trade union or of his own motion) must, if satisfied that grounds for withholding registration no longer exist, register the probationary trade union as a trade union.

If, at the expiration of twelve months from the date of this notice, the Registrar is of the opinion that there still exist grounds for withholding registration, the probationary trade union will be sent formal notice of refusal to register, together with a statement of the grounds of such refusal. The provisions of subsection (2) of section 16 of the Trade Unions Act will then have effect.

TRADE UNIONS (APPEALS) RULES

1. These Rules may be cited as the Trade Unions (Appeals) Rules.

2. Any appeal to the High Court under subsection (1) of section 18, subsection (5) of section 33 or subsection (8) of section 38 the Act, as the case may be,—
   (a) a refusal of the Registrar to register a trade union as a trade union under the Act; or
   (b) an order by the Registrar cancelling or suspending the registration of any trade union under the Act; or
   (c) a refusal of the Registrar to register either a change of name of a registered trade union or the trade union formed by the amalgamation of any two or more registered trade unions; or
   (d) a refusal of the Registrar either to register a change of officers or to correct the register with respect to any trade union registered under the Act, shall be filed within one month from the date of the refusal or order, as the case may be:
   Provided that High Court may for good and sufficient cause grant any applicant leave to appeal out of time, and, in such event, shall specify the period with which the appeal shall be filed.

3. (1) Every appeal to the High Court shall be preferred in the form of a memorandum signed by the applicant or his advocate, and shall be filed in triplicate in the Registry of the High Court.
   (2) The memorandum shall be supported by one or more affidavits as to facts only, and shall be accompanied by the original of the written notification of the refusal, or of the order, appealed from, or by a certified copy thereof.
   (3) The memorandum shall set forth concisely and under distinct heads the grounds of objection to the refusal or order appealed from, without any argument or narrative; and the grounds shall be numbered consecutively.

4. When a memorandum is lodged, the High Court shall forthwith cause notice of the appeal to be served on the Registrar, who shall be the respondent in the appeal.

5. (1) A copy of the memorandum of appeal and of the affidavit or affidavits in support shall be served on the respondent together with the notice referred to in rule 4.
   (2) The respondent may, within twenty-one days of service, file affidavits in reply:
   Provided that the High Court may for good and sufficient cause extend the period for filing affidavits in reply, and, in such event, shall specify the period within which the affidavits shall be filed.

6. Notice of the day fixed for the hearing of the appeal shall be served on the respondent in the manner provided by the Civil Procedure Rules, for the service on the defendant of a summons to enter appearance; and all the provisions applicable to such summons, and to proceedings with reference to the service thereof, shall apply to the service of that notice.

7. The notice to the respondent referred to in rule 6 shall state that if he does not appear before the High Court on the day fixed for the hearing the appeal may be heard ex parte.
8. (1) The parties to an appeal shall not be entitled to adduce additional evidence, whether oral or documentary, at the hearing of the appeal:

Provided that the High Court may allow any such evidence to be adduced—

(i) if the respondent, in considering the application, has refused or neglected to take into account matters which ought to have been taken into account; or

(ii) if the High Court requires any such evidence to be adduced to enable it to pronounce judgment; or

(iii) for any other substantial cause.

(2) Whenever the High Court allows any additional evidence to be adduced before it, the Court shall record its reasons for so doing.

9. The High Court may make such order as to the costs of an appeal as to the Court seems just.

10. Order XLI of the Civil Procedure Rules, in so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of these Rules, shall apply to every such appeal.

11. (1) On lodging an appeal under these Rules, there shall be paid a fee of twenty shillings.

(2) The scale of fees usually payable in the High Court shall apply to all subsequent acts, applications or proceedings.

SCHEDULE
TRADE UNIONS (ACCOUNTS) REGULATIONS

1. Citation
These Regulations may be cited as the Trade Unions (Accounts) Regulations.

2. Interpretation
In these Regulations, “treasurer” includes any person for the time being acting as a treasurer.

3. Receipts to be issued by collectors
   (1) Every person who collects or receives subscriptions, entrance fees, donations or other contributions for a trade union, hereinafter referred to as a collector, shall issue to the person paying him a receipt in Form P in the Schedule taken from a book of printed receipt forms, the forms being each in duplicate and numbered serially:
       Provided that an employer shall not be required to issue a receipt to his employee for any money so collected on behalf of a trade union.
   (2) The collector shall, when issuing a receipt, ensure that the particulars entered on the receipt form are legibly duplicated by carbon copy on the printed duplicate thereof, and shall preserve in the book the printed duplicate of every receipt issued.
   (3) The collector (other than a treasurer) shall hand over or remit to the treasurer of his trade union, or of his branch of the trade union, at intervals of not more than twenty-one days, all monies which he has collected on behalf of the trade union, together with all receipt books in his possession relating to such monies.
   (4) Every collector shall issue receipts from receipt books issued to him in proper sequence in accordance with their serial numbering.
   (5) Any person collecting for a trade union who contravenes any of the provisions of paragraph (1), (2), (3) and (4) shall be guilty of an offence.

4. Receipts to be issued to the collectors by the treasurer
   (1) The treasurer of every trade union or branch of a trade union shall, when receiving money from a collector, issue to him a receipts in Form Q in the Schedule taken from a book of printed receipt forms, the forms being each in duplicate and numbered serially.
   (2) The treasurer of every trade union or branch of a trade union shall, when issuing a receipt, ensure that the particulars entered on the receipt form are legibly duplicated by carbon copy on the printed duplicate thereof, and shall preserve in the book the printed duplicate of every receipt issued.
   (3) No treasurer of a trade union or branch of a trade union shall issue a receipt from a fresh receipt book unless all receipts from receipt books already in use are completed.
   (4) Every treasurer of a trade union or branch of a trade union shall issue receipts and receipt books in proper sequence in accordance with their serial numbering.
   (5) Every treasurer of a trade union or branch of a trade union shall ensure that a collector accounts to such treasurer for all receipt books issued to such collector when such collector accounts for the cash collected by him.
   (6) When the necessary information has been obtained from the collector’s receipt book or books, as the case may be, the treasurer may return to the collector for further use such receipt book or books as have not been completed.
(7) Any treasurer of a trade union or branch of a trade union who contravenes any of the provisions of paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4) and (5) shall be guilty of an offence.

5. Record of receipt books to be kept

(1) The treasurer of every trade union shall be responsible for the issue of all receipt books, whether to treasurers of branches or to collectors, and the treasurer of a branch of a trade union shall be responsible for the issue to collectors of all receipt books which he receives from the treasurer of the trade union.

(2) The treasurer of every trade union or branch of a trade union shall keep a record of all receipt books which he receives and issues, and such record shall show the serial numbers of all receipt books received by him, the dates on which he received the receipt books, the name of the person to whom each receipt book is issued, the date when he issued such receipt book and the date when the duplicates of the receipts were returned to him, and when he has issued a receipt book to any person (other than a treasurer of a branch) he shall not issue any further book to such person until the duplicate of the first mentioned book has been returned to him.

(3) No treasurer of a branch of a trade union shall issue to any person a receipt book other than a receipt book received by him from the treasurer of the union, and no treasurer of a branch of a trade union nor a collector shall issue to any person a receipt other than a receipt from a receipt book so issued by the treasurer of the union.

(4) Any treasurer of a trade union or branch of a trade union who contravenes any of the provisions of paragraph (2) and (3) shall be guilty of an offence.

6. Payment vouchers to be made out

(1) No person shall make a payment out of trade union funds unless he has first made out a payment voucher in Form R in the Schedule, and—

(a) obtained the signature thereto by the person empowered to authorize such a payment:

Provided that no person shall be empowered to authorise payment to himself;

(b) signed it;

(c) obtained the signature of the payee (but not when payment is made by a crossed-cheque);

(d) where the payment is for travelling expenses, recorded therein—

(i) the name of the person travelling;

(ii) the places from which and to which the person has travelled;

(iii) the mode of transport; and

(iv) the reason for the journey and the date thereof; and

(e) recorded therein the name and address of the recipient of the payment and sufficient information to enable the nature of the payment to be ascertained.

(2) No person shall make a payment out of union funds for an object not authorised by the Act or the rules of the trade union concerned, and no person shall authorise such a payment.

(3) Any person who contravenes the provisions of paragraph (1) and (2) shall be guilty of an offence.

7. Wages book to be kept

(1) Where a trade union or branch of a trade union employs any person, or engages any person to collect money for it on commission, the treasurer of the trade union or branch of a trade union, as the case may be, shall maintain a wages book in Form S in the Schedule, using a separate page for each person so employed or so engaged.
(2) Any treasurer of a trade union or branch of a trade union who contravenes the provisions of paragraph (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

(1) The treasurer of every trade union shall keep a cash book in Form T in the Schedule, and shall record therein all money received and all money paid by the trade union, including receipts from and payments to branches, in the appropriate columns according to the nature of the receipts and payments and according to whether the money is received or paid in cash or is received into or paid out of a bank account or other deposit or savings account of the trade union.

(2) The treasurer shall balance the cash book at the end of every month and shall certify in the cash book that the balances agree with the actual cash in hand and cash at the bank, and the treasurer shall sign the certificate.

(3) Every treasurer shall also keep in respect of every branch of the trade union a branch analysis cash book as indicated in Form U in the Schedule, and shall record therein an analysis of all money received and all money paid by every branch, according to the copies of the cash book sheets received from branch treasurers under regulation 9, and the receipts and payments shall be entered in the appropriate columns as prescribed by paragraph (1).

(4) Any treasurer of a trade union who contravenes any of the provisions of paragraph (1) and (3) shall be guilty of an offence.

(1) The treasurer of every branch of a trade union shall keep a cash book in Form V in the Schedule with the pages thereof numbered serially, and shall record therein all money received and all money paid by the branch, including receipts from and payments to the trade union headquarters, in the appropriate columns as prescribed by paragraph (1) of regulation 8.

(2) The treasurer shall balance the cash book at the end of every month and shall certify in the cash book that the balances agree with the actual cash in hand and cash at the bank, and the treasurer shall sign such certificate and shall forward to the treasurer of the trade union within seven days after the end of the month a copy of every page of the cash book which relates to that month and particulars of the balances.

(3) Any treasurer of a branch of a trade union who contravenes any of the provisions of paragraph (1) and (2) shall be guilty of an offence.

10. Special funds

(1) The treasurer of every trade union or branch of a trade union shall maintain in the trade union’s accounts separate records of any contributions or donations which it collects or receives for a specific purpose, and, subject to any resolutions of the members of the trade union authorising the use of such funds for any other purpose, the treasurer shall not disburse any such funds other than for the specific purpose for which they were collected or donated.

(2) Any treasurer of a trade union or of a branch of a trade union who contravenes the provisions of paragraph (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

11. Preservation of documents

(1) The treasurer of every trade union or branch of a trade union shall preserve all the books of account and documents which it keeps or makes under these Regulations, and all books of duplicate receipts and other supporting documents, for a period of at least three years after the end of the trade union’s financial year to which they relate, and shall take all such precautions as are reasonably necessary for their safe custody.
(2) Any treasurer of a trade union or of a branch of a trade union who contravenes the provisions of paragraph (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

12. Bank account to be maintained

(1) The treasurer of every trade union or branch of a trade union shall cause a bank account to be opened and maintained in the name of the trade union or branch thereof, and whenever he receives any money belonging to the trade union or branch thereof he shall within seven days of such receipt pay it into the bank account:

Provided that where the rules of a trade union permit the treasurer of a branch of that union to retain in cash a sum not exceeding one hundred shillings, the treasurer of such branch shall pay into such bank account any cash in his possession as such treasurer which exceeds one hundred shillings.

(2) Deleted by L.N. 299/1964.

(3) Any treasurer of a trade union or branch of a trade union who contravenes the provisions of paragraph (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

13. Power to exempt

(1) The Minister, on a report from the Registrar, may exempt any trade union from all or any of the provisions of these Regulations if he is of the opinion that the standard of accounting of the trade union is sufficiently high apart from the provisions of these Regulations.

(2) The Minister may at any time cancel an exemption granted under paragraph (1) if he is of the opinion that the standard of accounting of the trade union so exempted has not been sufficiently maintained.

14. Penalty

Any person who is guilty of an offence under these Regulations shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings or to imprisonment of a term not exceeding two months or to both.

TRADE UNIONS TRIBUNAL (PROCEDURE) REGULATIONS
[L.N. 327/1964.]

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Trade Unions Tribunal (Procedure) Regulations.

2. In these Regulations, except where the context otherwise requires—
   "chairman" means the chairman of a Tribunal;
   "Secretary" means the Secretary of Tribunals appointed under regulation 5(1);
   "Tribunal" means a Trade Unions Tribunal appointed by the Minister under section 20A or section 38 of the Act.

3. (1) Where the Minister appoints a Tribunal, he shall appoint one of its members to be chairman.
   (2) If the chairman of a Tribunal is prevented by sickness or any other reason from attending any hearing of the Tribunal, the members shall appoint one of their number to act as chairman of the Tribunal in his absence.

4. A member of a Tribunal shall hold office for such period as may be specified in his appointment, and he shall be eligible for reappointment.

5. (1) The Minister shall appoint an officer of his Ministry to be Secretary of Tribunals, who shall act as Secretary to every Tribunal.
   (2) The Secretary shall, in relation to any matters referred to a Tribunal, comply with the general and special directions of the chairman of the Tribunal.
   (3) The address of the Secretary for the purpose of the presentation or service of documents under these Regulations is Attorney-General’s Chambers, Nairobi.

6. Interested parties may, with the permission of the Tribunal concerned, be represented by counsel in proceedings before the Tribunal.

7. Where the Registrar is not satisfied as to the validity or propriety of any application for registration under section 20A of the Act or of any application to register a change of officers or to correct the register under section 38(4) of the Act, or has reason to believe that a branch of a trade union has been dissolved or has ceased to function in terms of section 20A(5) of the Act, he may request the Minister to appoint a Tribunal and shall thereupon refer the matter to that Tribunal, setting forth briefly the reasons for his dissatisfaction or belief, as the case may be.

8. On receipt of a reference from the Registrar, the chairman of the Tribunal concerned shall appoint a time, date and place for a sitting of such Tribunal for the purpose of hearing the matter referred to it, and the Secretary shall cause a copy of the notice of hearing to be served on—
   (a) each member of the Tribunal;
   (b) the Registrar;
   (c) any party who, in the opinion of the Secretary is an interested party; and
   (d) the registered president and general secretary of the trade union concerned at the headquarters of the union.
9. (1) At the hearing of the matter referred, the following procedure shall be observed—

(a) the Registrar shall detail the matter in dispute and the reasons for his dissatisfaction or belief as the case may be;

(b) any party who, in the opinion of the Tribunal, is an interested party may appear and make submissions and produce such evidence as may be relevant;

(c) at the conclusion of the evidence of any such interested party, the registered president and general secretary of the trade union concerned may make submissions concerning the matter in dispute and may, with the permission of the chairman, call any relevant evidence;

(d) any such interested party shall be entitled to reply but may not rely on any evidence other than that adduced at the hearing;

(e) the chairman or any member of the Tribunal shall be entitled at any stage of the hearing to ask any questions of any party to the proceedings or any witness examined at the hearing, as he considers necessary to the determination of the matter referred;

(f) the parties shall notify the Secretary before the hearing of any witness they propose calling in support of their submissions, and shall at the same time notify any other party on whom notice has been served, but the parties shall be at liberty to call further witnesses with the permission of the Tribunal;

(g) a witness called and examined by any party shall give his evidence on oath and may be cross-examined by any other party to the proceedings, and if so cross-examined may be re-examined;

(h) the Tribunal may, if it thinks necessary, call and examine any witness, and thereafter any such witness may be cross-examined by any party to the proceedings;

(i) the Tribunal may adjourn the hearing of the matter for the production of further evidence or for other good cause, as it considers necessary, on such terms as the Tribunal may determine;

(j) before the Tribunal reaches its decision, the parties to the proceedings shall withdraw from the hearing, whereupon the Tribunal shall, without any unnecessary delay, consider and determine the matter referred;

(k) the decision of the Tribunal shall be determined by a majority of the members present and voting at the hearing, and in the case of an equality of votes the chairman shall have a casting vote in addition to his deliberative vote;

(l) minutes of the hearing shall be kept and the decision of the Tribunal recorded therein.

(2) In this regulation, “Registrar” includes any person authorised by the Registrar to appear on his behalf.

10. In matters of procedure not governed by these Regulations or the Act, the Tribunal may regulate its own procedure.

11. Save where the Tribunal in any particular case otherwise directs or where any party to the proceedings objects, copies of documents shall be admissible in evidence:

Provided that the Tribunal may at any time direct that the original shall be produced notwithstanding that a copy has already been admitted in evidence.
12. All parties to the proceedings shall bear their own costs:

Provided that, where it is the opinion of the Tribunal that in any case the original application to the Registrar was frivolous or vexatious, the Tribunal may require the party making such application appearing before it to bear such costs of the Tribunal and any other party, which shall be such sum as the Tribunal assesses having regard to the nature of the proceedings and the work involved.

13. The chairman shall cause the recommendations of the Tribunal to be communicated without delay to the Registrar in accordance with the Act.
TRADE DISPUTES (LEVIES AND SUBSCRIPTIONS OTHER THAN TRADE UNION DUES) REGULATIONS
[L.N. 280/1974.]

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Trade Disputes (Levies and Subscriptions other than Trade Union Dues) Regulations.

2. (1) The Minister may, in accordance with these Regulations, by order, authorise the collection from trade union members of—
   (a) levies (other than trade union dues); or
   (b) subscriptions (other than trade union dues), for purposes or objects approved by him and specified in such order.

   (2) An employer who employs not less than ten members of a particular trade union or a branch thereof may be required by an order under this regulation to deduct a specified sum from the wages of members of that union or branch thereof, employed by him, and to make payment of the total sum so collected to that trade union.

3. Subject to the provisions of its registered constitution or rules, any trade union may make written application to the Minister for an order under regulation 2, and every such application shall be signed by the general-secretary of the trade union so applying and contain the following particulars—
   (a) purposes and objects of the collection for which the approval of the Minister is desired;
   (b) the number or category of members, or branch of the trade union, to be affected by the proposed collection;
   (c) the total sum sought to be collected;
   (d) the exact sum sought to be deducted from the wages of the members concerned;
   (e) the date on which, or the period during which and the intervals at the end of which, the deductions are sought to be made;
   (f) the name and address (and account number, if any) of the bank of the trade union concerned to which payment is to be required to be made;
   (g) the authority pursuant to which and the manner in which the proposed collection purports to have been authorised by the membership of the trade union or branch to be affected by such collection.

4. (1) Subject to the provisions of regulation (2) of this regulation, the Minister may approve or reject an application under regulation 3 for an order.

   (2) The Minister shall refuse any such application in respect of a collection which has, or appears to him to have or to be likely to have, as any of its purposes or objects—
   (a) the payment of expenses of or in connection with the administration of any trade union or branch;
   (b) the payment of salaries, allowances or expenses of any of the officers of any trade union or branch;
   (c) the prosecution or defence of any legal proceedings to which a trade union or any member thereof is a party, whether such legal proceeding concerns the rights of a member arising from his relationship with his employer or with another member or otherwise;
Labour Regulation

(d) the conduct or furtherance of any trade dispute on behalf of a trade union or any member thereof;

(e) the payment of compensation for loss arising from a trade dispute to any member of a trade union;

(f) the payment of allowances to members of a trade union or their dependants on account of any unemployment, accident, sickness, old age or death;

(g) the payment of any subscription or fee to any federation to which the union making the application may be affiliated;

(h) the payment of any fine or penalty imposed on any person by a court;

(i) any other purpose or object which the Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, declare to be a purpose or object in respect of which a collection shall not be made pursuant to these Regulations.

5. The Minister may at any time in writing revoke, vary or suspend any order made under these Regulations in which event written notice thereof shall be given forthwith to the general-secretary of the trade union concerned.

6. The general-secretary of a trade union in respect of which the Minister has made an order under these Regulations may at any time serve on an employer who employs not less than ten members of that trade union a notice in writing requiring the employer to comply with the Minister’s order in respect of the employees who are named in any such notice and who have acknowledged by their signatures therein that they are members of that trade union and, as the case may be, of a branch thereof specified in the order.

7. Every employer on whom a notice is served under regulation 6 shall comply with the Minister’s order referred to therein subject as follows—

(a) Where an employee notifies the employer in writing that he is not a member of the trade union or, as the case may be, of the branch concerned, no deduction or payment shall be made in respect of the wages earned by that employee in any month following the month in which such notice was given, unless or until such notification is withdrawn;

(b) a deduction or payment shall only be made from the wages due to any employee where those wages, after all deductions required or permitted to be made by or under any other law have been made, exceed the sum which is required by the order to be deducted;

(c) the first deductions and payments made in pursuance of the notice shall be made in respect of the wages earned in the month following the month in which the notice is served;

(d) no deduction or payment shall be made in respect of any wages earned in any month if before the twentieth day of that month the Minister’s order has been revoked or suspended and that revocation or suspension has been published in the Gazette or communicated by the Minister directly to the employer;

(e) where any order made by the Minister is varied before the twentieth day in any month and the order making the variation has been published in the Gazette or communicated by the Minister directly to the employer, any deduction or payment made in respect of wages earned in that month shall be made in accordance with the terms of the order as so varied;

(f) no deduction or payment shall be made by an employer in respect of or during any month in which any of his employees, who is a member of trade union or branch concerned, takes part in any strike, unless and to such extent as the Minister otherwise directs by notice in writing to the employer.
8. No sum deducted from the wages of any employee by the employer under these Regulations shall in any event be recoverable from that employer by his employee.

9. Every trade union authorised to collect levies under these Regulations shall keep written records of income and expenditure accounts in respect of the total sums collected and shall submit its return to the Registrar within sixty days after the 31st December in every year or after the expiry date of the Minister’s order as the case may be.

10. (1) The sums collected by a trade union in respect of levies or subscriptions under these Regulations shall not be used for purposes or objects other than those approved by the Minister’s order.

   (2) Any person who contravenes this regulation shall be guilty of an offence and liable to the penalty prescribed under subsection (2).

11. (1) No employer shall make deductions from the wages of any employee who is not a member of a trade union authorised to collect levies or subscriptions by an order under these Regulations.

   (2) Any employer who contravenes this regulation shall be guilty of an offence and liable to the penalty prescribed under subsection (2) of section 52 of the Act.

Orders under regulation 2 of the above Regulations are not reproduced as they are transitory in effect.
COLLECTION OF SUBSCRIPTION (KENYA LOCAL GOVERNMENT WORKERS’ UNION) ORDER, 1992

1. This Order may be cited as the Collection of Subscriptions (Kenya Local Government Workers’ Union) Order, 1992.

2. The Kenya Local Government Workers’ Union (herein after referred to as “the union”) is authorized to collect subscriptions (other than trade union dues) from its members for the approved purpose of the expansion of the union headquarters premises.

3. Every employer who employs at least ten members of the union and upon whom a notice shall have been served by the General Secretary of the union pursuant to regulation 6 of the Trade Disputes (Levies and Subscriptions other than Trade Union Dues) Regulations, is required to deduct from the wages of each of his employees, who in the notice acknowledges that he is a member of the Union, the monthly sum of twenty shillings from the member’s basic salary for a period of sixty consecutive months with effect from the 31st January, 1992, making a total of one thousand, two hundred shillings from each member.
