(b) sale by auction;

(c) live weight determined by a weighing scale.

Sale by auction.

29. (1) Where any livestock is put up for sale by auction —

(a) the date, time and place of every sale shall be advertised in the prescribed manner and such sale shall take place on the date, at the time and at the place so advertised;

(b) in lots, each lot shall automatically be deemed to be the subject of a separate contract of sale;

(c) the particulars or conditions of any sale including the conditions whether the sale is subject to a reserve or to that effect, it shall not be lawful for the seller or any person employed by him to bid at such sale, or for the auctioneer to take knowingly any such bid;

Provided that if it is stated that the sale shall be subject to a right for the seller to bid, then it shall be lawful for the seller or for any person acting on his behalf to bid at such auction.

(2) If it is stated that the sale will be subject to a reserve price as regards any one or more lots, it shall be lawful for the seller or any person acting on his behalf to give one bid for each such lot and no more.

(3) If the seller or any person acting on his behalf bids at any sale contrary to any of the provisions of this section, any purchaser may refuse to fulfill his purchase; provided that the highest bona fide bidder shall be entitled, if he shall so elect, to have the property at the price offered by him.

(4) No auctioneer shall make a bid either on behalf of himself or as an agent of any person unless on making such bid, he announces that it is his bid.

(5) A bidder may retract his bid at any time before the sale is complete.

(6) The inspector shall charge a fee from the sale of every animal, at a rate to be determined by the County Executive Committee Member for Agriculture and Livestock in accordance with the Baringo County Finance Act.

(7) A person who, knowingly —

(a) receives or makes any bid contrary to the provisions of this section; or

(b) makes a bid which he cannot honour or is fraudulent, or is intended to avoid a valid sale which is subject to the bid, commits an offence.

(8) Where a person convicted of an offence under this section is a licensed auctioneer, he shall, in addition to any other penalty imposed, be liable to having his license revoked.

PART VI – GENERAL PROVISIONS

General Penalty.

30. Any person who contravenes the provisions of this Act for which no other penalty is provided commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or both.

Regulations.

31. The County Executive Committee Member may make regulations with the approval of County Assembly generally for the purpose of carrying out this Act.
