LEGAL NOTICE NO. 185

THE NATIONAL HOSPITAL INSURANCE FUND ACT
(No. 9 of 1998)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred by sections 15 and 26 of the National Hospital Insurance Fund Act, the Board, in consultation with the Minister for Health, makes the following Regulations:—

THE NATIONAL HOSPITAL INSURANCE FUND (STANDARD AND SPECIAL CONTRIBUTIONS) REGULATIONS, 2003

1. These Regulations may be cited as the National Hospital Insurance Fund (Standard and Special Contributions) Regulations, 2003.

2. In these Regulations, except where the context otherwise requires—

"prescribed Form", means such form as the Board may, from time to time, prescribe for the purpose of these Regulations;

"standard contributor" means a contributor under section 15 (2) (a) of the Act;

"special contributor" means a contributor under section 15 (2) (b) of the Act.
3. (1) A person whose total income whether derived from salaried or self employment in the immediately preceding month was not less than one thousand shillings shall contribute to the Fund.

(2) An application by any person to become a contributor to the Fund for any year shall be made in writing, in the prescribed Form.

(3) The rate of contribution shall be graduated from a minimum of thirty shillings for contributors earning one thousand shillings per month to a maximum of three hundred and twenty shillings per month for contributors earning fifteen thousand shillings and above.

(4) In determining the income of a special contributor, the Board may require and inspect, such evidence and documentation as it may deem necessary.

4. The Board may require an applicant under regulation (3) (2) to submit in respect of himself, his named spouse or named dependants, such evidence of identity, age, income, medical or mental conditions as may, in the Board’s opinion, be necessary to determine the application to become a contributor.

5. (1) A standard contributor shall, through his or her employer, submit to the Fund, on the first day of the month following the one in which the deduction was made, his or her prescribed contribution.

(2) An employer shall deduct the prescribed contribution from each employee and submit it to the Fund on the first day of the month following the one deduction is made.

(3) The contribution referred to in this regulation shall be remitted in such manner as the Board may, from time to time, notify the employer.

6. Where as a result of late or delayed submission of standard contribution by an employer a contributor is unable to claim or obtain the benefits stipulated by the National Hospital Insurance Fund (Claims and Benefits) Regulations, the employer shall be liable to the contributor to the extent of the denied benefit and any other injury or inconvenience arising therefrom:

Provided that the liability stipulated in this regulation shall be without prejudice to any other liability and or penalty provided for in the Act.

M. A. HASSAN,
Chief Executive Officer,
National Hospital Insurance Fund.

J. N. MUNGAI,
Chairman,
National Hospital Insurance Fund.
