- (b) a depiction of such prejudice as the interested party would suffer if the intervention was denied; and
- (c) the grounds or submissions to be advanced by the interested party, their relevance to the proceedings, and their departures from the standpoint of the parties.

(3) An application under this rule shall be determined on the basis of written submissions.

PART IV — CONDUCT OF PROCEEDINGS

25. (1) The Registrar shall, unless the Court certifies the matter as urgent, give parties to the proceedings a notice of not less than fourteen days, ahead of hearing date. Hearing in Court.

(2) Proceedings may be conducted in open court or in chambers, as the Court may direct.

(3) The Registrar shall only certify for a hearing a matter that has complied with the Act and these Rules.

(4) The Court may prescribe the time allowed for making oral presentations, address by the parties, their advocates or other recognized representatives.

26. (1) The Court may call or admit additional evidence in any proceedings. Admission of additional evidence.

(2) A party seeking to adduce additional evidence shall make a formal application to the Court.

(3) In any appeal from a decision of the Court of Appeal, or from a court or tribunal exercising original jurisdiction, the Court may—

- (a) call for or receive any record on any matter connected with the proceedings;
- (b) re-appraise evidence and draw any inferences of fact;
- (c) take additional evidence; or
- (d) direct the trial court or the Registrar to take additional evidence.

(4) Where the Court takes additional evidence either orally or by affidavit, the Court may allow any witness to be cross-examined.

(5) Where the Court directs the trial court to take additional evidence, the trial court shall certify such evidence to the Court, with a statement of its opinion on the credibility of any witness adducing such evidence.

(6) Where evidence is taken by the Registrar, the Registrar shall give statements of opinion on the credibility of the witness.

(7) A party to an appeal is entitled to be present when additional evidence is being taken.

27. (1) A party may, with the leave of the Court, withdraw the proceedings at any time before the delivery of judgment.

Withdrawal of proceedings.

(2) The Court may make an order as to costs, following such withdrawal of proceedings.

28. (1) The Court shall deliver a ruling, judgment or advisory opinion within ninety days from the last day of hearing.

Judgment.

(2) The Court may issue its decision, while reserving the reasons for such decision to a later date.

(3) Where the Court reserves the reasons for a decision, any judge of the Court may deliver the reasons on a determined date.

(4) An Advisory Opinion shall be delivered in open court, and issued in writing.

(5) The Court may review any of its decisions in any circumstance which the Court considers meritorious, exceptional, and in the public interest, either on the Court's own motion, or upon application by a party.

(6) Pursuant to section 21(4) of the Act, a party may apply for formal correction of a judgment, ruling or order, through a Form B set out in the First Schedule.

29. (1) Except for an Advisory Opinion, a decision of the Court on any proceedings shall be in form of a decree or an order, as may be appropriate.

Decrees and orders.

(2) A decree of the Court shall be as set out in Form C of the First Schedule.

(3) An Order of the Court shall be as set out in Form D of the First Schedule.

(4) Any party may, within fourteen days from the date of judgment or ruling, prepare a draft order and submit it for the approval of the other party and who shall, within seven days of receiving the draft order—

(a) approve it, with or without any changes; or

(b) reject it.

(5) Where the parties approve the draft, it shall be submitted to the Registrar who shall, if satisfied that it is properly drawn, certify the Order accordingly.

(6) Where parties do not agree on the content of the Order, any judge who sat at the hearing shall settle the terms of the Order.

30. (1) The Registrar shall certify every decision of the Court for transmission to the High Court for execution. Execution.

(2) An order or a decree of the Court may be enforced as if it were an order of the High Court.

PART V—APPLICATIONS

31. (1) Every interlocutory application to the Court shall be filed together with written submissions and shall be determined by way of written submissions. Interlocutory applications.

(2) An interlocutory application shall not be originated before a petition of appeal or a reference is filed with the Court.

(3) An interlocutory application together with written submissions shall be served within seven days of filing.

(4) A response to the interlocutory application together with written submissions shall be filed and served within seven days.

(5) The applicant, upon service of the response, shall file a rejoinder which may include supplementary submissions within seven days.

(6) An interlocutory application shall be by way of a Notice of Motion.

32. (1) A party seeking to have an application heard on a priority basis shall file the application— Urgent applications.

- (a) accompanied by a certificate of urgency; and
- (b) supported by an affidavit attesting to the urgency.

(2) An application shall be placed before the duty judge who may grant or decline to certify the matter as urgent.

33. (1) An application for certification shall, in the first instance, be made in the court from which the appeal originates.

Application for certification.

(2) Where the Court of Appeal has certified or has declined to certify a matter as one of general public importance, an aggrieved party may apply to the Court for review, within fourteen days.

(3) An application under this rule shall be by way of originating motion as set out in Form E of the First Schedule.

(4) Upon filing an application under this rule—

- (a) the applicant shall serve the application within seven days;
- (b) all responses shall be filed and served within fourteen days of service; and
- (c) upon service of a response, the applicant shall file and serve any rejoinder within seven days.

(5) An application for certification shall—

- (a) only be limited to the parties in the original cause; and
- (b) be determined on the basis of written submissions.

34. (1) If, on the date fixed for the hearing of an application—

- (a) neither party attends the hearing, the application may be dismissed; or
- (b) where either the applicant or the respondent does not attend court, the Court may proceed as it deems fit.

Non-attendance at hearing of application.

(2) A party who, for a sufficient cause, did not attend court and is aggrieved by the decision of the Court under sub-rule (1), may apply to the Court to have the application heard afresh.

(3) The Court, in the case of sub-rule (2), shall consider a request for a fresh determination, and may set aside or vary the decision made:

Provided that the party shall demonstrate sufficient cause for non-attendance

(4) Where, in a criminal matter, the applicant does not attend court by reason of being in custody, but is represented by an advocate, the application shall be heard in the absence of the applicant:

Provided that the Court may direct that the applicant shall be presented in court for the hearing.

35. (1) An application in a criminal appeal shall abate where the applicant is the State, on the death of the respondent, and in any other case, on the death of the applicant.

Abatement of applications.

(2) An application in a civil appeal shall not abate on the death of any party, but the Court may, on the application of an interested person, cause the legal representative of the deceased to be made a party in place of the deceased.

(3) If no application is made within twelve months from the date of death, the application shall abate.

(4) A legal representative of a deceased party or any other interested person may apply for an order to revive an application which has abated.

(5) The Court shall, if it is proved that an applicant was prevented by sufficient cause from continuing with the application, revive the application on such terms as to costs, or otherwise, as the Court may deem fit.

PART VI—APPEALS

36. (1) A person who intends to make an appeal to the Court shall file a notice of appeal within fourteen days from the date of judgment or ruling which is the subject of appeal.

Notice of Appeal.

(2) The notice of appeal shall be—

- (a) in Form F set out in the First Schedule;
- (b) filed at the first instance with the Registrar of the court, or with the tribunal from which an appeal originates.

(3) Upon filing of the notice of appeal, the petitioner shall transmit a copy of the notice to the Registrar.

(4) In lodging an appeal on a matter of general public importance, it shall not be mandatory to obtain such certification before filing the notice of appeal.

37. (1) A petitioner shall, within seven days of lodging a notice of appeal, serve transmitted copies of the notice upon all persons directly affected by the appeal.

Service of notice of appeal.

- (2) A person upon whom a notice of appeal is served shall—
- (a) within fourteen days of receiving the notice, file in the registry a notice of address for service, which shall contain that person's contact detail, including telephone numbers and email address, and shall serve the intended appellant with copies of the notice; and
 - (b) within a further fourteen days, shall serve a copy of the notice of address for service on every other person named in the notice of appeal.
- (3) Where a party cannot serve a petition or a response to a petition, or cannot make any other service under these Rules, the party may apply in writing to the Court for an order of substituted service.
38. (1) An appeal to the Court shall be filed within—
- Institution of appeal.
- (a) thirty days of the date of filing the notice of appeal, where the appeal is as of right; or
 - (b) thirty days after the grant of certification, where such certification is required.
- (2) The requirement for instituting an appeal include—
- (a) a petition of appeal;
 - (b) a record of appeal; and
 - (c) the prescribed fee.
39. (1) A petition of appeal shall be as set out in Form G of the First Schedule.
- Form of Petition of an appeal.
- (2) The petition shall contain—
- (a) a concise statement of the facts relied upon;
 - (b) a summary of the grounds for the petition;
 - (c) a concise presentation of arguments supporting each of the grounds of the petition;
 - (d) the relief sought in the petition and any directions sought pursuant to these Rules; and
 - (e) a schedule listing all the documents annexed to the petition.
40. (1) For the purpose of instituting an appeal from a Court of Appeal decision, the record of appeal shall entail—
- Content of a record of Appeals from the Court of Appeal.

- (a) a certificate, if any, certifying the matter as of general public importance;
- (b) the judgment or ruling of the Court of Appeal being appealed from;
- (c) a judgment or ruling of the High Court or a court of equal status; and
- (d) the relevant pleadings required to determine the appeal.

(2) A ruling under sub rule (1)(b) is relevant only if it relates to the determination of a substantive matter, and shall not include a ruling on an application of less gravity.

(3) The court may, on the application of any party, direct certain documents to be excluded from the record, and an application for such exclusion may be made orally.

(4) Where a document is omitted from the record of appeal under this rule, the appellant may within fifteen days of lodging the record of appeal, without leave, include the document in a supplementary record of appeal.

41. (1) The record of appeal from a court or tribunal exercising original jurisdiction shall contain—

Content of a record of Appeal from other courts or tribunals.

- (a) an index of the documents in the record, with a numbering of the pages on which they appear;
- (b) the notice of appeal;
- (c) the certificate, if any, certifying the matter to be of general public importance;
- (d) a statement showing the address for service of the appellant, including telephone numbers and email address;
- (e) the address for service furnished by the respondent, and as regards any respondent who has not furnished an address for service, the address and proof of service upon the respondent in the notice of appeal;
- (f) pleadings;
- (g) the record of proceedings;
- (h) the trial judge's notes at the hearing;
- (i) the transcript of any shorthand notes taken at the trial;

- (j) the affidavits read, and all documents of evidence at the hearing, or, if such documents are not in the English language, certified translations thereof;
- (k) the judgment or ruling;
- (l) the certified decree or order; and
- (m) such other documents, if any, as may be necessary for the proper determination of the appeal, including any interlocutory proceedings which may be directly relevant.

42. (1) Unless otherwise directed by the Court, a respondent shall file grounds of objection, an affidavit, or both, within fourteen days of service of the petition.

Response to petition of appeal.

(2) The petitioner shall file and serve a rejoinder within seven days of being served with the response.

(3) Pleadings shall close seven days after the lapse of time for the filing of a rejoinder.

43. (1) An appeal in a criminal appeal shall abate where the appellant is the State, on the death of the respondent, and in any other case, on the death of the appellant.

Abatement of appeals.

(2) An appeal in a civil appeal shall not abate on the death of any party, but the Court may, on the application of an interested person, cause the legal representative of the deceased to be made a party in place of the deceased.

(3) If no application is made within twelve months from the date of death, the appeal shall abate.

(4) A legal representative of a deceased party or any other interested person may apply for an order to revive an appeal which has abated.

(5) The Court shall, if it is proved that an applicant was prevented by sufficient cause from continuing with the application, revive the appeal on such terms as to costs, or otherwise, as the Court may deem fit.

44. A notice of appeal shall be served, as soon as practicable, upon the legal representative, where the person upon whom it was to be served is deceased.

Death of respondent before
service of notice.

45. A person upon whom a notice of appeal is served shall, within fourteen days after service of the notice of appeal, lodge in the registry and serve on the appellant and every other person named in the notice—

Address for service.

- (a) an address for service; and
- (b) a notice of address for service, as set out in Form H of the First Schedule

46. (1) Where a party has lodged a notice of appeal, but fails to institute the appeal within the prescribed time, the notice of Appeal shall be deemed to have been withdrawn, and the Court may on its own motion, or on application by any party, make such orders as may be necessary.

Default in instituting appeal.

(2) The party in default shall be liable to pay the costs arising, to any person upon whom the notice of appeal was served.

47. (1) A respondent who intends to cross-appeal shall specify the grounds of contention, and the nature of the relief that the respondent seeks from the Court.

Notice of cross-appeal.

(2) The respondent shall—

- (a) provide contact details including the names, postal address, telephone number and email address of any persons intended to be served with the notice; and
- (b) lodge eight copies of the memorandum of appeal and record of appeal in the registry within thirty days of service upon the respondent, or not less than thirty days before the hearing of the appeal, whichever is the later.

(3) An application or notice to cross-appeal shall be as set out in Form I of the First Schedule.

(4) In a criminal appeal, the Registrar of the court or tribunal from which an appeal originates shall prepare the record of appeal, and cause copies to be served upon the parties and to the Registrar.

48. (1) A respondent who contends on an appeal that a decision of a court or tribunal should be affirmed on grounds other than, or additional to those relied upon by the court, shall give notice in the terms set out in Form J of the First Schedule, specifying the grounds of the contention.

Notice of grounds for affirming decision and service.

(2) A respondent intending to contend at the hearing of the appeal that part of the decision of the court should be varied or reversed, and another part be affirmed on grounds other than, or additional to those relied upon by that court, may include both such contentions in a notice of cross-appeal, and shall not be required to give further notice.

(3) Sub-rules (1) and (2) shall apply, with necessary modifications, to an appellant who desires to contend in opposition to a cross-appeal, that the decision of a court or tribunal should be affirmed on grounds other than, or additional to those relied on by that court.

(4) A notice under this rule shall be served upon other parties within seven days of filing.

49. (1) Where an appeal is withdrawn after notice of cross-appeal is given, the respondent who gave the notice may withdraw it within fourteen days of receiving the notice of withdrawal.

Withdrawal of notice of cross-appeal, or notice of grounds for affirming decision.

(2) If an appeal is not so withdrawn, the cross-appeal shall proceed to hearing, and the provisions of these Rules shall apply as if the cross-appellant were an appellant and the appellant a respondent.

(3) Where an appeal is withdrawn within fourteen days from the date when it was instituted, any respondent who has not lodged a notice of cross-appeal shall be entitled to give notice of appeal despite the expiry of time, except where the respondent gives the notice within fourteen days from the date when the appellant's notice of withdrawal was received.

PART VII— ADVISORY OPINIONS

50. (1) The national government, state organ or a county government may make a reference to the Court for an advisory opinion under Article 163(6) of the Constitution.

Reference for an advisory opinion.

(2) The reference for an advisory opinion shall—

- (a) be in the form set out in Form K of the First Schedule;
- (b) be signed by a duly-authorized officer;
- (c) specify the questions or issues for determination by the Court; and
- (d) concisely and briefly state the question upon which advice is sought.

51. (1) A person filing a reference may propose that the Court may consider admitting any other person to participate in the reference.

Participants in a reference.

(2) Despite sub-rule (1), the Court may on its own motion identify any other person to participate in the reference.

(3) A person who has been admitted as a participant shall file and serve written submission within fourteen days of service of the reference.

(4) The content of the written submissions of an admitted participant shall be in accordance with the directions of the Court.

(5) Any application for joinder as interested party in a reference shall not be allowed.

(6) Where a friend of the court or an expert has been admitted in any proceedings, the Court shall give directions on whether such person shall—

- (a) file written submissions; or
- (b) address the Court orally.

52. Upon filing of a reference, the Registrar shall give—

Notice of reference.

- (a) notice to the applicant to appear before the Court for directions on the persons to be served with notice of such reference; and
- (b) notice of the reference to parties, if any, inviting them to attend the Court for directions regarding the date and mode of hearing.

53. (1) The court may, after giving the parties an opportunity to be heard, reject a reference in whole or in part, if—

Determining a reference.

- (a) it is incompetent within the meaning of Article 163(6) of the Constitution;
- (b) the applicant does not represent those who have interest in the opinion;
- (c) the matter in respect of which the reference is made can, in the opinion of the Court, be resolved by the advice of the Attorney-General, and such advice has not been sought;
- (d) it is satisfied that the application is frivolous, or otherwise an abuse of the process of the Court;
- (e) the applicant has failed to comply with any rule, direction or order of the Court; or
- (f) the reference is materially incomplete, or lacking in clarity, and the applicant has failed to remedy the defects as directed by the Court.

(2) The Court shall, within sixty days of the close of hearing, deliver its opinion on the reference, and the Registrar shall publish the decision.

PART VIII—PETITION ON DECLARATION OF STATE OF EMERGENCY

54. (1) A petition maybe filed under Article 58 of the Constitution challenging—

Filing a petition.

- (a) the validity of a declaration of state of emergency;
- (b) the validity of an extension of a declaration of state of emergency; and
- (c) any legislation enacted, or any action taken, in consequence of a state of emergency.

(2) The petition shall set out grounds upon which the declaration is challenged, accompanied by a supporting affidavit sworn by the petitioner.

(3) The Court shall issue directions on how to proceed with the petition, including the manner of hearing.

55. (1) A petition filed shall be served within—

Service and hearing of petition.

- (a) three days, for a petition challenging the declaration being made;
- (b) seven days, for a petition challenging grant of extension of a declaration of the state of emergency; or
- (c) seven days, for any action, being taken or the publication in the Gazette of the legislation being challenged.

(2) The respondent shall respond to the petition within three days of service, by filing and serving a replying affidavit or response.

(3) The Court shall issue directions on how to proceed with the petition, including the manner of hearing.

PART IX — CONTEMPT OF COURT

56. (1) The Court may cause any person whose conduct before it manifests disobedience, obstruction or contempt, to be detained in custody.

Contempt in the face of the Court.

(2) Within twenty-four hours of making an order under sub-rule (1), the Court shall—

- (a) cause the person to be informed in writing of the contempt of Court with which the person is charged; and
- (b) afford that person an opportunity to make a defence to the charge.

(3) Upon taking such evidence as may be necessary or as may be offered by such person, the Court shall proceed to determine the charge and make necessary orders in accordance with the Act.

57. (1) In a case of contempt referred to under section 28(4) of the Act, the Court may take action on its own motion or on an application made by any person.

Cognizance of contempt in other cases.

(2) Any application for contempt filed shall specify the acts of contempt of court the person is charged with.

(3) The applicant shall serve the application for contempt on the respondent within three days of filing.

(4) Where the Court initiates contempt proceedings on its own motion, the accused shall file a response within 14 days of being notified of the intention to commence such proceedings.

(5) The Court shall determine the contempt matter within ninety days from the date of filing the response or where no response is filed, from the date the period of filing of response lapses.

58. The Court may make such order as it may deem fit, in determining a matter of contempt, including issuing an order denying audience to the contemnor for a period not exceeding one year.

Penalty for Contempt.

PART X — FEES AND COSTS

59. (1) Subject to Article 22 of the Constitution and section 11 of the Act, there shall be payable to the Court such fees as specified in the Second Schedule to these Rules.

Assessment of Fees payable.

(2) Any costs payable by a party shall be—

- (a) assessed by the Court when making its decision; or
- (b) be taxed by the Registrar; or
- (c) determined by consent of the parties.

60. (1) The Registrar has powers to tax costs arising out of any proceedings before the Court, between the parties.

Taxation of costs.

(2) The party-to-party costs shall be taxed in accordance with the scale set out in the Third Schedule to these Rules.

61. (1) The Court may require an advocate, or a representative of a party upon whom costs have been incurred, to show cause why they should not personally bear such costs, where it appears to the Court that the costs were incurred—

Costs improperly incurred.

- (a) improperly or without reasonable cause;
- (b) on account of any undue delay in the proceedings; or
- (c) due to any misconduct or default on the part of the advocate or other recognized representative.

(2) The Court may make such order as the justice of the case may require.

62. (1) A person who is dissatisfied with a decision of the Registrar in the taxing of costs may refer the matter, within seven days, to a single judge for determination. Reference on taxation.
- (2) The decision of the single judge shall be final.
63. (1) A party may apply to the Court, in any proceedings, to waive payment of court fees. Waiver of court fees.
- (2) The Registrar may, where satisfied that a party lacks the means to pay the required fees, permit that the matter be lodged.
- (3) In considering a request for waiver of fees, the Registrar shall take into account—
- (a) whether the person has the capacity to pay the costs;
 - (b) whether the fees were waived in the preceding court;
 - (c) any affidavit of means deponed by the party;
 - (d) the objective merit of the case; and
 - (e) any practice directions made by the President.
- (4) No fee shall be payable in making an application for waiver of fees.
- (5) Any expenses arising from waiver of fees shall be a charge on the Judiciary Fund.

PART XI — GENERAL PROVISIONS

64. (1). The President of the Court may issue practice directions for the better carrying out of the provisions of these Rules. Practice directions.
- (2) Where these Rules contain no provision for exercising a right or procedure, the court may adopt any procedure that is not inconsistent with the Act, these Rules or practice directions.
65. (1) Where any provision in these Rules, or any relevant practice direction is not complied with, the Court may issue such directions as may be appropriate, having regard to the gravity of the non-compliance, and generally to the circumstances of the case. Effect of non-compliance with Rules.
- (2) Any direction given under this rule may include the dismissal of the petition, reference or application.
66. The disposal of the records in the custody of the court shall be in accordance with— Disposal of records.

- (a) provisions of the Records Disposal Act; or Cap. 14
(b) any directions issued by the President.

67. (1) The Supreme Court Rules, 2020 are hereby revoked. Revocation of L.N. 6 of 2020 and saving provision.

(2) Despite the provision of sub-rule (1), any legal or administrative action taken under the revoked Rules shall be deemed to have been taken under these Rules.

68. The Court may review these Rules from time to time. Review of Rules.

(rule 60(2))

TAXATION OF COSTS

1. (1) In this Schedule, a folio means one hundred words. Interpretation.
(2) A single figure or a group of figures up to seven shall count as one word.
2. (1) Where costs are to be taxed, the advocate for the party to whom the costs were awarded shall— Lodging and service of bill of costs.
 - (a) lodge a bill with the taxing officer; and
 - (b) before or within seven days after lodging the bill, serve a copy on the advocate for the party liable to pay it.
(2) A bill of costs shall be lodged as soon as practicable after the making of the order for costs and not later than twenty-one days after a request in writing by the party liable, or such further time as the Registrar may allow.
(3) A bill of costs may not be lodged by an advocate who is not on the record.
3. (1) A bill of costs shall be instituted and filed in the proceedings and shall be prepared in five columns as follows— Form of bill.
 - (a) the first or left hand column for the dates of the items;
 - (b) the second column for the serial numbers of the items;
 - (c) the third column for the particulars of the services charged for;
 - (d) the fourth column for the professional or scale charges; and
 - (e) the fifth column for the taxing officer's deductions.
(2) A bill of costs shall be endorsed with—
 - (a) the name and address of the advocate lodging it;
 - (b) the name and address of every party to be served or their advocate;
 - (c) a certificate signed by the advocate lodging the bill that the number of folios in respect of any item in the bill charged for by the folio, is correct.
(3) If such certificate is found to be incorrect the item may be disallowed.
(4) A bill of costs shall be endorsed at the end with a form of certificate for signature by the taxing officer certifying the result of the taxation.

4. (1) Disbursements shall be shown separately at the foot of the bill of costs. Disbursements.
- (2) Receipts for all disbursements shall be produced to the taxing officer at the time of taxation.
- (3) No disbursement shall be allowed which has not been paid at the time of taxation.
5. No alteration or addition to a bill of costs once lodged shall be made except by consent of the parties or by permission of the taxing officer or a judge. Bills not to be altered after lodging.
6. When a bill of costs has been lodged as aforesaid, the taxing officer shall issue a notice to all parties concerned or their advocates giving the date, time and place at which the bill will be taxed. Notice of taxation.
7. The taxing officer shall have power to limit or extend the time for proceedings before him or her, and to adjourn the same from time to time and from place to place. Time and adjournment.
8. If any party or advocate who has been duly served with a notice of taxation fails to appear at the date and time specified in such notice, the taxing officer may proceed to tax the bill notwithstanding such absence. Failure to attend taxation.
9. (1) The fee to be allowed for instruction to make, support or oppose any application shall be such sum as the taxing officer shall consider reasonable but shall not be less than one thousand shillings. Quantum of costs.
- (2) The fees to be allowed for instructions to appeal or to oppose an appeal shall be such sum as the taxing officer shall consider reasonable, having regard to the amount involved in the appeal, its nature, importance and difficulty, the interest of the parties, the other costs to be allowed, the general conduct of the proceedings, the fund or person to bear the costs and all other relevant circumstances.
- (3) The sum allowed under sub-paragraph (2) shall include all works necessary and properly done in connection with the appeal and not otherwise chargeable, including attendances, correspondence, perusals, and consulting authorities
- (4) Other costs shall, subject to the provisions of paragraphs 10, 11 and 12, be awarded in accordance with the scale set out below or, in respect of any matter for which no provision is made in those scales, in accordance with the scales applicable in the High Court.
10. (1) The fee for drawing a document shall include the preparation of all copies for the use of the party drawing it and for filing and service when only one other party or one advocate for other parties has to be served. Fees for drawing documents.
- (2) Where there are additional parties, fees may be charged for making the necessary additional copies.

11. (1) On taxation the taxing officer shall allow such costs, charges and disbursements as shall appear to have been reasonably incurred for the attainment of justice but no costs shall be allowed which appear to the taxing officer to have been incurred through overpayment, extravagance, over caution, negligence or mistake or payment of special charges or expenses to witnesses or other persons or by other unusual expenses. Taxation of bills.
- (2) In taxing the costs of any civil appeal, the taxing officer shall disallow the costs of any matter improperly included in the record of appeal or in any supplementary record of appeal.
12. If, after a bill of costs has been taxed, the taxing officer considers that, having regard to all the circumstances, the total of the bill before signing the certificate of taxation is excessive, he may make such a deduction from the total as will in his opinion render the sum reasonable. Over-riding discretion.
13. If more than one quarter of the profit costs claimed is disallowed on taxation the costs of drawing, filing and serving the bill and of attending taxation shall be disallowed. Excessive claims.
14. Where a party entitled to receive costs is also liable to pay costs, the taxing officer may tax the costs, which that party is liable to pay and adjust them by way of deduction or set-off and direct payment of any balance. Set-off of costs.
15. (1) Costs of more than one advocate shall not be allowed unless the Court has so directed. Costs of more than one advocate.
- (2) Where an advocate has instructed another advocate to appear at the hearing of an appeal, the fee paid to the latter, or so much thereof as the taxing officer considers reasonable, may be allowed but so that the total of such fee and the instructions fee allowed to the instructing advocate shall not be greater than it would have been if one advocate only had acted in the matter.
- (3) Where the Court has directed that the costs of two advocates be allowed—
- (a) where the senior advocate is not a member of the same firm as the advocate on the record, he shall be allowed the fee paid to him, including fees for attending in court, or so much thereof as the taxing officer shall consider reasonable;
 - (b) where the senior advocate is a member of the same firm as the advocate on the record, he shall be allowed such fee as would have been allowed in the case of an advocate not a member of that firm; and
 - (c) the advocate on record shall be allowed the usual instruction, hearing and other fees.
- (4) The fee paid to another advocate by the advocate on the record shall be shown as a disbursement.

16. If there has been a change of advocates the bill of costs of the first advocate may be annexed to that of the current advocate and its total shown as a disbursement and the bill will be taxed in the ordinary way, the current advocate being heard on it, but the taxing officer may require the first advocate to attend.

Costs where advocate changed during proceedings.

17. Where the same advocate is employed for two or more parties and separate proceedings are taken by or on behalf of any two such parties, the taxing officer shall consider in the taxation of such advocate's bill of costs whether such separate proceedings were necessary and proper, and if of opinion that any part of the costs occasioned thereby has been unnecessarily or improperly incurred, the same shall be disallowed.

Two or more parties.

18. In taxing the costs as between party and party or for payment out of a trust fund of joint executors or trustees who are separately represented, the taxing officer shall, unless otherwise ordered by the Court or a Judge, allow only one set of costs for such parties, such costs to be apportioned among them as the taxing officer shall deem fit.

Costs where trustees defend separately.

19. A taxing officer shall allow the reasonable expenses of a party who appeared in person at the hearing of an application or appeal and those of a witness who gave evidence at any such hearing but shall not allow the expenses of any other person who may have attended the hearing, unless the Court has so ordered.

Expenses of persons attending hearing.
