8. Liability to contribute and amounts of contribution

(1) Every contributor shall, so long as he remains the holder of a designated post, and subject to the provisions of section 7(2) of this Act, contribute to the Fund in the manner prescribed by section 9 of this Act, such sum as represents the balance between his contributions under the National Social Security Fund Act (Cap. 258) and seven and a half percent of his gross salary.

(2) In the ascertainment of salary for the purposes of subsection (1)—

(a) during any period for which the contributor is temporarily in receipt of a reduced salary or no salary he may, in the discretion of the local authority, nevertheless be deemed to be in receipt of full salary:

(b) where the salary is not an exact multiple of twenty shillings, then if the residual fraction is less than ten shillings the fraction shall be disregarded, but if it is ten shillings or more it shall be treated as if it were twenty shillings.

(3) Every local authority shall contribute to the Fund monthly, in addition to the sums deducted from its employees pursuant to section 9 of this Act, a further sum equal to the total of such deductions:

Provided that no contribution by a local authority in respect of any one employee under this subsection shall exceed limits imposed as a condition of the approval of provident funds for income tax purposes by the provisions of the East African Income Tax (Management) Act, 1958.

(2) Notwithstanding the actual date on which the deduction is made pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, each contribution shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to be credited to the contributor’s account in the Fund on the last day of the month in respect of which the salary is due.

10. Option to contribute in respect of past service

A contributor may, with the agreement of the local authority which employs him and subject to the approval of the Minister, make contributions to the Fund is made forthwith contribute to the Fund a further sum equal to his contribution;

Fund on the last day of the month in respect of which the deduction is made.

or loss on realization of investments, shall be carried to a profit and loss account maintained by the Board.

(2) Subject to any special or general directions of the Minister, the Board may from time to time transfer from the profit and loss account to a reserve fund such sums of money as appear to the Board to be reasonably sufficient, and may from time to time, in order to keep the fund within proper limits, re-transfer any sums from the fund to the profit and loss account.

12. Annual distribution of profits

From the profit and loss account referred to in section 11 of this Act interest shall be credited in respect of each financial year, to contributors’ account as follows—

(a) in the case of a contributor whose contributions commenced on or after the 1st July in that year, interest shall be credited to his account on the 30th June in that year at the rate of two and one-half per centum per annum for the period from the date of commencement of contributions to the said 30th June, calculated upon the total credit in his account at the said 30th June;

(b) in the case of a contributor whose contributions cease before the 30th June in any year, interest shall be credited to his account on the date of such cessation at the rate of two and one-half per centum per annum for the period from the 1st July in that year to the date of cessation, calculated upon the total credit in his account at the date of cessation;

(c) after payment of the interest provided for in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section the balance of the profit and loss account shall be divided among the remaining contributors by credits to their respective accounts as at the close of the financial year, the division being made in proportion to the total accrued benefits shown in each contributor’s account respectively as at the 1st July in the same year.

13. Closing of accounts

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, on the death of a contributor or on his ceasing to make contributions to the Fund, his account shall be closed.
(2) Where an account is closed under this section, notice of closure and of the amount standing to the credit of the account shall be given—
(a) if the contributor is living, to the contributor; or
(b) if the contributor is dead, to the person or persons appearing to the local authority to be entitled to the personal estate of the contributor, and in either case to such other persons as, in the opinion of the Board, should be given notice.

(c) on termination of his service by a local authority by reason of reorganization or redundancy or for any other reason not due to the contributor's misconduct or inefficiency;
(d) in the case of voluntary resignation after ten years' contributing service or more,

the full amount of the balance standing to the credit of the contributor's account in the Fund at the date of the closing of the account shall be paid to the contributor or to any other person to whom by virtue of this Act or otherwise payment may lawfully be made.

15. Resignation or dismissal

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a contributor who voluntarily resigns from, is dismissed, or leaves the service of a local authority for any reason or in any circumstances other than those specified in section 14 of this Act shall be paid such proportion of the balance standing to the credit of his account in the Fund as is specified hereunder, according to the circumstances—
(a) in the case of voluntary resignation after more than five years', but less than ten years', contributing service, three-quarters of the credit balance in the contributor's account:

Provided that, in the case of a female contributor who resigns after more than five years' contributing service on or with a view to marriage or who is required to retire on account of marriage after a similar period of service, the Board may, on the recommendation of the local authority, pay to such female contributor the full amount of the balance standing in credit in her account;
(b) in the case of voluntary resignation after less than five years' contributing service, one-half of the credit balance in the contributor's account;
(c) in the case of dismissal from the service of a local authority for misconduct or inefficiency, one-half of the credit balance in the contributor’s account:

Provided that—

(i) where the dismissal is in consequence of an offence of a fraudulent character, or of grave misconduct, the person dismissed shall forfeit all claim to any payment under this Act;

(ii) notwithstanding paragraph (i) of this proviso, the Board may, on the recommendation of the local authority, return to him out of the Fund, or pay to his wife or family out of the Fund, a sum equal to the amount of all his contributions thereto under this Act, or to such part thereof as the local authority shall think fit.

(2) (a) In the circumstances specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) of this section, the sum remaining to the credit of a contributor in his account, after payment to the contributor of such sum as he is entitled to thereunder, shall remain in the Fund for a period of twelve months and thereafter, subject to the provisions of section 16 of this Act, shall be paid to the local authority in whose employment the contributor was serving immediately before his resignation.

(b) In the circumstances provided for in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section, the sum remaining to the credit of a contributor in his account, after payment to the contributor of such sum as he is entitled to thereunder, shall forthwith be paid to the local authority in whose employment the contributor was serving immediately before his dismissal:

Provided that where the contributor has served more than one local authority as a contributor to the Fund, the sum so remaining shall be allocated to the respective local authorities in proportion to each local authority’s contribution to the Fund in respect of that contributor.

16. Reappointment to a designated post within twelve months of ceasing to be employed by a local authority

Where a contributor ceases (otherwise than by being dismissed for misconduct or inefficiency) to be employed by a local authority to which this Act applies, but within twelve months after so ceasing is appointed to a designated post under the same or another such local authority, he shall be entitled, upon repaying to the Fund any payment made to him therefrom, to reckon the period of former employment as contributing service for the purposes of sections 14 and 15 of this Act.

17. Transfer to public service

(1) When a contributor transfers from service with a local authority to an office in the public service—

(a) his account shall be closed in accordance with the provisions of section 13 of this Act; and

(b) the amount of the contributions standing to his credit in his account at the time of closure shall not then be paid to the contributor, but shall be dealt with in accordance with subsection (2) of this section:

Provided that notwithstanding that the account is closed, interest on the full amount standing to his credit in his account shall continue to be credited in accordance with section 12 of this Act.
(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, upon termination of such public service in any of the circumstances mentioned in sections 14 and 15 of this Act, the amount standing to the contributor’s credit in his account in the Fund up to the end of the month preceding such termination shall be paid out of the Fund in accordance with the provisions of the said sections, and for the purposes of those sections any period of public service shall be deemed to be contributing service.

18. Transfer from public service

When a person in the public service transfers to service with a local authority and becomes a contributor, his period of public service shall be deemed to be contributing service for the purposes of sections 14 and 15 of this Act.

19. Payment on death of contributor

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, on the death of a contributor the Board shall pay the total amount standing to the credit of his account to the local authority by which he was last employed, for payment to be made as follows—

(a) if the amount does not exceed five hundred shillings, it shall be paid to such person or persons as may have been nominated for the purpose by the contributor, or if no such nomination has been made to the person or persons appearing to the authority to be entitled to the personal estate of the contributor;

(b) if the amount exceeds five hundred shillings it shall be paid to the legal personal representative of the contributor:

Provided that the authority may make an immediate payment, not exceeding three hundred shillings in any one case, out of the amount aforesaid in order to give immediate relief to the widow or children or other dependants of the deceased if in the opinion of the authority relief is required.

(2) A payment made by the Board or a local authority under this section shall be valid and effectual against a demand made upon the Board or the authority by any person in respect of the amount standing to the credit of the contributors’ account in the Fund.

20. Provident fund managed prior to appointed day

Where a local authority has immediately prior to the appointed day, established and managed a provident fund for its employees, such fund shall, with effect from the appointed day, be closed in so far as it relates to employees who on that day are in the employment of the local authority in designated posts, and all moneys, assets and liabilities of that fund, or vested in trustees for the purposes of that fund, pertaining to such employees (including all contributions, by whatever name called, made by such authority to the account of such employees in such fund) shall be thereupon transferred to, and shall vest in, the Fund.

(4) The Board shall, within a period of seven months, or such longer period as the National Assembly may by resolution appoint, after the end of each financial year, submit to the Minister a report of its operations during that year, together with the accounts referred to in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) subsection (1) of this section and the auditor’s report thereon, and the Board shall, if the Minister so requires, publish such reports and accounts in such manner as the Minister may direct.

(5) In this section—

Any question concerning the rights or liabilities of an employee of a local authority, or of a person claiming to be treated as such an employee, under any of the provisions of this Act or of any regulations made under this Act, shall be decided in the first instance by the authority concerned, and, if the employee or person aforesaid is dissatisfied with any such decision or with the authority’s failure to come to a decision, shall be determined by the Minister, and the Minister’s determination shall be final.

24. Presumption of age

Where it appears that there is no satisfactory proof of the correct age of a contributor the Board may, upon such evidence as it thinks fit, determine the age of the contributor, and the age so determined shall be presumed to be the correct age of the contributor for all purposes of this Act.

25. Regulations

The Board may, with the approval of the Minister, make regulations generally for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Act, and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, such regulations may provide that a contributor entitled to receive an amount out of the Fund may elect to receive it either in a lump sum or by periodic payments, or in such other manner as may be prescribed.
