Every order made under this Act shall come into force on a day to be named therein, and, without prejudice to the power to cancel it at any time, shall ceased to have effect—

(b) the regulations made under this section shall be of such nature, scope and within the limits as specified under this section.

(c) the principles and standards applicable to the regulations made under this section are those set out in the Interpretation and General Provisions Act (Cap 2) and the Statutory Instrument Act, 2013.
MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTIVES AND REASONS

The need to immediately execute taxation and other revenue raising measures so as to meet the revenue needs of the county means that the measures are necessary to ensure the immediate commencement of the collection of revenue by the county government after the Bill is published.

The process of enacting a bill in legislature is unpredictable in terms of the time that a Bill may take from publication to enactment. This makes it prudent to put measures into place that will ensure that revenue projections are not unduly impaired, hence the powers of the executive to operationalize the proposals in a Bill already published but yet to be enacted.

Part I of the bill provides for the short title of the proposed law.

Part II at clause 2, empowers the Executive Committee Member for Finance to issue orders after the Finance Bill is published that allows any tax or duty, or any rate, allowance or administrative or general provision in respect thereof, to be imposed, created, altered or removed, to have effect as if the Bill were passed into law.

Clause 3 provides for the duration of such orders issued under clause 2.

Clause 4 provides for refund of any taxes if the proposed provision on which the order was premised is rejected by the Assembly.

Clause 5 provide for the power to amend the orders issued by the Executive Committee Member.

This law when enacted will confer on the Executive Committee Member for Finance authority to make provisions having the force of law in Kenya in terms of Article 94(6) of the Constitution of Kenya, 2010

Dated the 12th August, 2013.

WILSON OGONYO MINDI\U,
Chairperson, County Budget and Appropriation Committee.
