MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

To allow for effective discharge of duties by ward members, they require adequate office space and assisting staff. This bill seeks to provide mechanisms of contracting space, construction, financial provision and management of ward office staff.

Part I of the Bill provides for citing, interpretation and general provisions.

Part II provides for office rental or construction of ward offices and lays down guidelines and conditions on how property can be leased or constructed, from who it can be leased and outlines the custodian of lease agreements.

Part III provides for financial procedures in the ward offices. It sets guidelines of how expenditure is managed i.e who the signatories of accounts are and who approves expenditure. It also provides for an elaborate system for reporting and accountability.

Part IV provides for staffing of ward offices. This part sets out guidelines on how recruitment is done, who determines remuneration of ward officer staff, qualifications of such staff, their entitlement and procedure to be followed when staff term comes to an end.

Part V provides for handing over of the offices. This part gives guidelines on what takes place during the transition period when a Member vacates office and before another Member takes over and who takes care of transition expenses and for what duration.

Part VI provides for the miscellaneous provisions and more particularly the powers of the County Assembly Service Board and respect of certain regulations.
