MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Article 209(4) of the constitution together with part 2 of the fourth schedule of the constitution gives counties the power to impose fees and charges for services provided and for regulatory purposes in respect of certain licenced activities. Examples include the power to licence undertakings that sell food (item 2(d) and to issue trade and liquor licences (items 7(b) and 4 (c). These licensing powers are not taxing powers, but are power to charge fees for services.

The Bill provides for the grant of trade licences by county governments to conduct businesses in the county in accordance with the powers mentioned above in part 2 of the fourth schedule of the constitution.

The structure of the Bill is as follows:

Part I (clauses 1–2) of the Bill contains preliminary provisions. These include the title of the Bill, and interpretation of terms as used in the bill.

Part II (clauses 3-10) of the Bill contains trade licence provisions. Clause 3 provides that the County Executive Committee member responsible for Trade shall appoint an officer to be the Chief Licensing Officer. Clause 4 sets out the requirements for a trade licence. Clause 5 provide for the Application for licence as clause 6 is on grant of licence. Clause 7 provides for renewal of licences, Clause 8 contains provisions on cancellation or suspension of licence. Clause 9 is on surrender of licence while clause 10 is on transfer or assignment of license.

Part III (clauses 11-17) this part deals with general provisions. Clause 11 provides for appeals of a person aggrieved by decisions of the chief licensing officer may appeal to the county executive committee member responsible for trade against the decision. Clause 12 provides that the county executive committee member responsible for trade may appoint persons as authorized officers whose powers are spelt out in schedule 1. Clause 13 requires the Chief Licensing Officer to establish and maintain a register of trade licences, which should be available for inspection by the public during usual government office hours. Clause 14 makes it an offence for anybody to makes false or misleading statements. Clause 15 gives the County assembly the duty to determine licence fees and additional fees. Clause 16 is on the county executive committee member responsible for trade power to make rules while clause 17 contains savings and transitional provisions.

The enactment of this Bill shall occasion additional expenditure of public funds which shall be provided through the estimates.

Dated the 24th September, 2014.

SAMMY NDUVA,
Member of the County Assembly.
