(a) question any person in respect of any subject matter under investigation before the Board; and

(b) require any person to disclose any information within that person's knowledge relevant to any investigation by the Board.

PART III — INVESTIGATIONS AND INQUIRY BY THE BOARD

26. (1) The Board may, for the purpose of conducting any investigation or inquiry, employ the services of any County public officer or investigation agency of the County or National Government at the expense of the Board.

(2) For the purpose of investigating any matter or carrying out any inquiry, a public officer or agency whose services are employed under subsection (1) may, subject to the direction and control of the Board—

(a) require the discovery and production of any document;

and

(b) request any public record or copy thereof from any public officer.

(3) The provisions of section 36 shall apply in relation to any statement made by a person before any public officer or agency whose services are employed under subsection (1) as they apply in relation to any statement made by a person in the course of giving evidence before the Board.

(4) The public officer or agency whose services are employed under subsection (1) shall investigate any matter and submit a report to the Board in that behalf.
(5) The Board shall satisfy itself on the correctness of the facts stated and the conclusion arrived at in the report submitted to it under subsection (4) and for that purpose, the Board may make such inquiry, including the examination of any person or persons who conducted or assisted in the investigation, as it deems fit.

27. (1) The Board shall investigate or carry out an inquiry upon any complaint, and may, on its own initiative, investigate or carry out on any matter relating to the carrying out of the functions or implementation of the values and principles of public service and governance in—
   (a) relation to any person;
   (b) a public office; or
   (c) any other body or agency of the County.
   (2) The Board shall endeavour, where appropriate, to resolve any matter brought before it by conciliation, mediation or negotiation.

28. The Board shall not investigate or inquire into—
   (a) any matter pending before any court or judicial tribunal;
   (b) any criminal offence;
   (c) any matter relating to the relationship between the national government and the County;
   (d) anything in respect of which there is a right of appeal or other legal remedy unless, in the opinion of the Board, it is not reasonable to expect that right of appeal or other legal remedy to be resorted to; or
   (e) any matter for the time being under investigation by any other person or Board established under the Constitution.

29. (1) A person aggrieved by any matter relating to the County Public Service or the functioning of any officer or employee, may complaint to the Board in person or on his or her behalf as specified under subsection (2).
   (2) A complaint may be made on behalf of an aggrieved person—
      (a) if the aggrieved person is dead or otherwise not able to act for himself or herself, by a member of his or her family or other person suitable to represent the aggrieved person; or
      (b) by a member of the County Assembly with the consent of the aggrieved person or other person who, under paragraph (a), is entitled to make the complaint on behalf of the aggrieved person.
30. (1) A person wishing to lodge any complaint under section 29 may do so orally or in writing addressed to the secretary or such other person as may be duly authorized by the Board for that purpose.

(2) Where a complaint under subsection (1) is made orally, the person before whom the complaint is made shall cause the complaint to be recorded electronically or in writing.

(3) A complaint under subsection (1) shall be in a form and contain particulars that the Board may prescribe.

(4) Upon receipt of a complaint under subsection (1), the Board may —

(a) call for information or a report regarding the complaint from any responsible person within reasonable time that may be specified by the Board; and

(b) without prejudice to paragraph (a), initiate inquiry as it considers necessary, having regard to the nature of the complaint.

(5) If the information or report called for under subsection (4) (a) is not received within the time specified by the Board, the Board may proceed to inquire into the complaint without the information or report.

(6) If on receipt of the information or report the Board is satisfied that —

(a) no further action is required; or

(b) the required action is under the mandate of a National Government or other County organ or body, the Board shall, in writing, inform the complainant accordingly and take no further action.

31. The Board may decline to investigate or inquire into a complaint if the Board considers that —

(a) there is, in existence, adequate remedies under any written law or administrative practice; or

(b) the complaint is trivial, frivolous, vexatious or is not made in good faith.

32. (1) Before commencing an investigation or inquiry under this Act, the Board shall give notice of the intended investigation or inquiry to the administrative head of the County organ, public office or organisation and the officer or employee to which the investigation or inquiry relates.

(2) The hearings of any investigation or inquiry by the Board shall be open to the public.
33. (1) Subject to subsection (2), if at any stage of an investigation or inquiry the Board —
   (a) considers it necessary to inquire into the conduct of any person; or
   (b) is of the opinion that the reputation of any person is likely to be prejudiced by the investigation or inquiry, it shall give that person an opportunity to appear before the Board in person or by an advocate to give evidence in his or her own defense.
   (2) This section shall not apply where the credibility of a witness is being impeached.

34. No statement made by a person in the course of giving evidence before the Board shall subject that person to civil or criminal proceedings except for giving false evidence by the statement.

35. The Board may, upon any investigation or inquiry into a complaint under this Act take any of the following steps —
   (a) where the investigation or inquiry into a complaint of discrimination discloses a criminal offence, refer the matter to the Director of Public Prosecutions or any other relevant authority or take any other action that the Board may deem fit against the concerned County organ, person or persons;
   (b) recommend to the complainant a course of judicial or other redress which does not warrant an application under Article 22 of the Constitution;
   (c) recommend to the complainant and to the relevant government agency or other body concerned in the alleged discrimination, other appropriate methods of settling the complaint or to obtain relief;
   (d) provide a copy of the investigation or inquiry report to all interested parties.

PART IV — REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS

36. (1) The Board shall inform the complainant, County agency, County public office and organisation to which the investigation relates, on the results of the investigation or inquiry and the full report in writing.
   (2) The report shall include —
      (a) the findings of the investigation or inquiry;
      (b) the recommendation of the Board and the reasons for the recommendation; and
      (c) any other matter that the Board considers appropriate.
(3) The Board may require the County organ, public office or organisation that was the subject of the investigation or inquiry to submit a report to the Board within a specified period on the steps, if any, taken to implement the recommendations of the Board.

(4) If the recommendations of the Board are not implemented within the specified time, the Board may submit the report to the County Assembly as the Board thinks fit.

37. If, after an investigation, the Board is of the opinion that there is evidence that a person, an officer or employee of the County organ, public office or organisation to which an investigation was related is guilty of misconduct, the Board shall take the appropriate disciplinary action.
