MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Bill is intended to establish a framework for the licensing, regulatory and control of the production, sale, distribution, consumption and outdoor advertising of alcoholic drinks.

In Part I of the Bill, preliminary issues are addressed, including the interpretation of terms and defining the purpose of the Act.

In Part II, the Act establishes the administrative structures. The Act recognizes that the implementation of the Act rests with the office of the Executive Committee Member for the time being responsible for Alcoholic drinks control. This part establishes the Alcoholic Drinks Control Directorate headed by a Director and assisted by sub-county alcoholic drinks licensing officers among others. The part also allows for the establishment of the rehabilitation facilities and programmes.

Part III sets out the Alcoholic Drinks Control Fund. The Fund is intended to meet the operations costs of the Directorate and the Committees established under the Act. The bigger portion of the fund is earmarked to establish the rehabilitation centers.

Part IV sets out the licensing procedure. It established the Alcoholic Drinks Regulatory Committee for each sub-county which is responsible for processing all the applications and recommending licensing to the sub-county alcoholic drinks licensing officer. The Part also sets out a public participation avenue and in particular, introduces an opportunity for the public to file objections or public views. The Part also established the need to maintain records of manufacture, distribution and sale of alcoholic drinks and lists of alcoholic drinks on sale. The Part also defines the general drinking hours which persons drinking in public places must abide to. This is between 5-11pm on weekdays and 2-11pm on weekends.

Part V sets out the general requirements. Under this Part, several prohibitions are spelt out. These includes exposing person under the age of eighteen years to an alcoholic drink, prohibiting hawking or sale of alcoholic drink through vending machines among others.

Part VI prohibits the advertisement of an alcoholic drink in a manner to encourage irresponsible drinking, especially to persons under the age of eighteen years.

Part VII addresses enforcement. It establishes an enforcement committee at the County Level. The section also describes the powers and responsibilities of enforcement committee and officers in ensuring the compliance with the provisions of this Act.
Part VIII is the general provisions sections It provides for the enactment of rules and regulations for better implementation of this Act It also establishes the appeal committee and spells out the process of conduct of appeals under this Act

The Bill also introduces three Schedules The First Schedule address the types of licenses which can be granted under this Act The Second Schedule contains the formats to be used in application for a licence among others The Third Schedule prescribes that fees payable for any services rendered under this Act
