PART V—AMALGAMATION AND DIVISION OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES

Amalgamation of co-operative societies

34 (1) Any two or more co-operative societies hereinafter referred to as amalgamating societies may, by Special Resolution, in this section referred to as the preliminary resolution, resolve to amalgamate as a single society hereinafter referred to as the amalgamated society.

(2) A copy of the preliminary resolution shall be sent to all the members and creditors of each of the amalgamating societies, and to all other persons whose interests in any of the amalgamating societies will be affected by the Amalgamation.

(3) A member of any of the amalgamating societies may, notwithstanding any by-law to the contrary, by notice in writing given to his society at least one month before the date specified as the date of amalgamation, intimate his intention not to become a member of the amalgamated society.

(4) A creditor of any of the amalgamating societies may, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, by notice in writing given to such society at least one month before the date specified as the date of amalgamation, intimate his intention to demand the payment of any money due to him.

(5) A person whose interest will be affected by the amalgamation may, by notice in writing given to the concerned amalgamating society, not less than one month before the date specified as the date of amalgamation, object to the amalgamation unless his claim is satisfied.

(6) Not less than three months after the date of the meeting at which the preliminary resolution is passed, a further special general meeting of each of the amalgamating societies shall be held to consider the preliminary resolution and any notices received under this section.

(7) At the special general meeting held under subsection (6) provision shall be made by a further resolution of the society (in this section referred to as the secondary resolution) for—

(a) the repayment of the share capital of any member who has given notice under subsection (3),

(b) the satisfaction of any claims by creditors who have given notice under subsection (4), and

(c) the satisfaction of the claims of such other persons who have given notice under subsection (5) securing of their claims in such manner as determined or directed by the Director

Provided that no member or creditor or other person shall be entitled to such repayment or satisfaction until the preliminary resolution is confirmed as provided in subsection (8)

(8) Each amalgamating society may, by further resolution passed by a two thirds majority of the members present and voting, confirm the preliminary resolution

(9) If, within such time as the Director considers reasonable, he is satisfied that the secondary resolutions of each of the societies amalgamating complies with the provision of this section, he may submit his proposal for registration of the amalgamated society and its by-laws to National Co-operative Commissioner

(10) Upon the registration of the amalgamated society—

(a) each of the amalgamating societies shall stand dissolved and its registration cancelled,

(b) the registration of the amalgamated society shall be a sufficient conveyance to vest the assets and liabilities of the amalgamating societies in the amalgamated society,

(c) the remaining members of the amalgamating societies shall become members of the amalgamated society and will be subjected to its by-laws, and

(d) any member of the amalgamating societies or any other persons who have claims against the amalgamating societies, and whose claims were not satisfied in accordance with the secondary resolution, may pursue such claims against the amalgamated society

(11) Where the Director or Commissioner refuses the amalgamation of the amalgamating societies, such societies may within thirty days appeal against such refusal to the Executive Committee Member
Division of co-operative societies

35 (1) A co-operative society (hereinafter referred to as the existing society), may, by Special Resolution (herein referred to as the Preliminary Resolution,) resolve to divide itself into two or more co-operative societies (hereinafter referred to as the New Societies)

(2) The Preliminary Resolution shall contain proposals for the division of assets and liabilities of the existing society among the new societies in which it is proposed to be divided and may prescribe the area of operation of, and specify the members who will constitute, each of the new societies

(3) A copy of the Preliminary Resolution shall be sent to all the members and creditors of the existing society, and to all other persons whose interests will be affected by the division of the existing society

(4) Any member of the existing society may, notwithstanding any by-law to the contrary, by notice in writing given to the society within two months of the receipt of the copy of the preliminary resolution, intimate his intention not to become a member of any of the new societies

(5) Any creditor of the existing society may, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, by notice in writing given to the existing society within two months after his receipt of the copy of the preliminary resolution, intimate his intention to demand the payment of any money due to him

(6) Any other person whose interest will be affected by the division may, by notice in writing given to the existing society within two months of the receipt of the preliminary resolution, object to the division

(7) After the expiry of three months after the date of the preliminary resolution, a further special general meeting of the existing society shall be held to consider the Preliminary Resolution and any notices received under this section

(8) At the Special General Meeting held under this Act, provision shall be made by a further resolution of the society for—

(a) the repayment of the contribution (share capital) of any member who has given notice under subsection (4),

(b) the satisfaction of any claims by creditors who have given notice under subsection (5), and

(c) the satisfaction of the claims of such other persons who have given notice under subsection (6) or the securing of their claims as the Directorate may determine or direct
(9) The society may, by further resolution passed by a two-thirds majority of the members present and voting, confirm the Preliminary Resolution, with or without changes as in the opinion of the Director are not substantial, and the decision of the Director as to whether any changes are or are not substantial shall be final.

(10) If, the Director is satisfied within such time as he considers reasonable that the provisions of the Secondary Resolution and the provisions of this section have been complied with, he may, submit his approval for registration the societies into which the existing society has been divided and the by-laws of such societies to National Co-operative Commissioner and thereupon—

(a) the registration of the existing society shall stand dissolved,

(b) the registration of the new societies shall be sufficient to vest the assets and liabilities of the existing society in the new societies in the manner specified in the Preliminary Resolution, as confirmed, and

(c) the remaining members of the existing society shall become members of one or other of the new societies, as is provided by the Preliminary Resolution, as confirmed.

(11) any shareholder or creditor of the existing society and any other person who have claims against the existing society and whose claims were not satisfied in accordance with the Secondary Resolution, may pursue such claims against one or other of the new societies, as is provided by the Preliminary Resolution, as confirmed.

(12) Where the Director or Co-operative Commissioner refuses to approve the division of an existing society, the society may appeal to the Executive Committee Member within thirty days of the communication to it of the refusal.

(13) A party aggrieved by the decision of the Executive Committee Member may appeal to the High Court within thirty days.

PART VI—RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES

Society to have charge over member's produce

36 (1) A co-operative society which has as one of its objects the sale and marketing of any produce produce, may enter into a contract with its members, either in its by-laws or by a separate document binding the members to dispose, process, market or sell all their produces, or such amounts or descriptions of the same as may be stated therein, to or through the society.
(2) The contract referred to under subsection (1) may—

(a) bind the members to produce the quantities of produces therein specified, and

(b) provide for payment of a specific sum per unit of weight or other measure as liquidated damages for any breach of the contract

(3) The sum referred under subsection (2) shall on becoming payable—

(a) be a debt due to the society, and

(b) be a charge upon the immovable property of the member subject to registration of the charge under the law under which the property is registered and all stock then being thereon

(4) Any such contract as is mentioned in subsection (1) shall have the effect of creating in favour of the co-operative society a charge upon the proceeds of sale of all produce mentioned therein, whether existing or future

(5) A co-operative society may, on the authority of a resolution passed in General Meeting, pledge the produce deliverable by members under any such contract as is mentioned in subsection (1) as security for loans made to the society, in all respects as if it were the owner of the produce

(6) No contract entered into under this section shall be contested in any court on the ground that it constitutes a contract in restraint of trade

Society to have first charge over debts and assets

37 (1) Subject to any other written law as to priority of debts where a co-operative society has—

(a) supplied to any member or past member any seeds or fertilizer, or any animals, feeding stuff, agricultural or industrial implements or machinery or materials for manufacture or building, or

(b) rendered any services to any member or past member, or

(c) lent money to any member or past member to enable him to buy any such things as aforesaid or to obtain any such services, the society shall have a first charge upon such things or, as the case may be, upon any agricultural produce, animals or articles produced therewith or therefrom or with the aid of such money

(2) The charge shall subsist for such period as the loan or value of the services rendered by a co-operative society to a member shall remain unpaid

Society to have first charge over members’ share

38 A co-operative society shall have a first charge upon the share or interest in the capital and on the deposits of a member or past member, and upon any dividend, bonus or accumulated funds payable to a member or past member, in respect of any debt due from such member or past member to the society, and may set off any sum credited or payable to such member, or past member in or towards the payment of any such debt

Failure to remit the sum deducted

39 (1) Where an employer of a person who is a member of a co-operative society has, under the instructions of the employee, made a deduction from the employee’s emoluments for remittance to the co-operative society concerned but fails to remit the deductions within one month after the date upon which the deduction was made, the employer shall be liable to pay the sum deducted together with compound interest thereon at a rate of not less than two per cent per month

(2) The Director may, on behalf of the society, institute legal proceedings in court for recovery of the sum owing under subsection (1) without prejudice to any other mode of recovery and such sum shall be a civil debt recoverable summarily

(3) The Director may, by written notice, appoint any person, bank or institution to be an agent of the society for the purposes of collection and recovery of a debt owed to the society

(4) The agent shall pay the amount specified in the notice issued under subsection (3) out of any moneys which may, at any time during the twelve months following the date of the notice, be held by him for the employer or are due from him to the employer

(5) Where an agent claims to be or to have become unable to comply with subsection (3) by reason of lack of moneys held by or due from him, he shall give a written notification to the Director stating the reasons for his inability and the Director may—

(a) accept the notification and cancel or amend the notice accordingly, or

(b) if he is not satisfied with the reasons, reject the notification in writing

(6) When an agent fails to notify the Director or the notification is rejected, it shall be presumed that the agent has sufficient moneys for the payment of the amount specified in the notice
(7) Where an agent fails to pay the amount specified in the notice within thirty days from the date of service or the date on which any moneys come into his hands for or become due to him from the employer, the agent shall be liable for the amount specified in the notification as if he were the employer.

(8) In any proceedings for the collection or recovery of the amount specified in the notice, it shall not be a defence for the agent to claim lack of the moneys.

(9) This section shall apply notwithstanding that the failure under subsection (1), to remit the sum deducted may constitute an offence under some other law for which the employer has been prosecuted, or is being, or is likely to be prosecuted.

(10) In this section "employer" includes any person, firm or organization holding remuneration or payment for service of a member of a co-operative society and the term "employee" includes any person who receives remuneration or payment for service from such persons or firm or organization.
