A Bill for

AN ACT of Parliament to establish the National Disaster Risk Management Authority and County Disaster Risk Management Committees; to provide a legal framework for the co-ordination of disaster risk management activities and for connected purposes

ENACTED by the Parliament of Kenya as follows—

PART I—PRELIMINARY

1. This Act may be cited as the National Disaster Risk Management Act, 2021.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

“Authority” means the National Disaster Risk Management Authority established under section 9;

“Board” means the Board of the National Disaster Risk Management Authority constituted under section 13;

“Cabinet Secretary” means the Cabinet Secretary responsible for matters relating to disaster risk management;

“Centre” means a County Disaster Risk Management Centre established under section 37;

“climate change” means a change in the climate system which is caused by significant changes in the concentration of greenhouse gases as a consequence of human activities and which is in addition to natural climate change that has been observed during a considerable period;

“County Executive Committee Member” means the county executive committee member responsible for matters relating to disaster risk management;

“County Committee” means the County Disaster Risk Management Committee established under section 35;

“disaster” means a progressive or sudden, widespread, localized, natural or human-caused occurrence which—
(a) causes or threatens to cause—
   (i) death, injury or disease;
   (ii) damage to property, infrastructure or the environment; or
   (iii) significant disruption of the life of a community; and

(b) is of a magnitude that exceeds the ability of those affected by the disaster to cope with its effects using only their own resources;

"disaster risk" means the potential loss of life, injury, or destroyed or damaged assets which could occur to a system, society or a community in a specific period of time, determined probabilistically as a function of hazard, exposure, vulnerability and capacity;

"disaster risk management" means a continuous and integrated multi-sectoral, multi-disciplinary process of planning and implementation of policies, strategies and measures aimed at—

(a) preventing or reducing the risk of disasters;
(b) mitigating the severity or consequences of disasters;
(c) emergency preparedness;
(d) a rapid and effective response to disasters; and
(e) post-disaster recovery and rehabilitation.

"disaster risk reduction" means either a policy goal or objective, and the strategic and instrumental measures employed for—

(a) anticipating future disaster risk; and
(b) reducing existing exposure, hazard or vulnerability;

"early warning system" means an integrated system of hazard monitoring, forecasting and prediction, disaster risk assessment, communication and preparedness activities systems and processes that enables individuals, communities, governments, businesses and others to take timely action to reduce disaster risks in advance of hazardous events;
"emergency preparedness" means—
(a) a state of readiness which enables organs of the National and county governments and other institutions involved in disaster risk management, the private sector, communities and individuals to mobilize, organize and provide relief measures to deal with an impending or current disaster or the effects of a disaster; and
(b) the knowledge and capacities developed by governments, professional response and recovery organizations, communities and individuals to effectively anticipate, respond to and recover from the impacts of likely, imminent or current hazard events or condition improving resilience;

"financial year" means the period of twelve months ending on the thirtieth day of June in each year;

"hazard" means a process, phenomenon or human activity that may cause loss of life, injury or other health impacts, property damage, social and economic disruption or environmental degradation;

"Intergovernmental Council" means the Intergovernmental Council on Disaster Risk Management established under section 5;

"mitigation" means the lessening or minimizing of the adverse impacts of a hazardous event;

"preparedness" means the knowledge and capacities developed by governments, professional response and recovery organizations, communities and individuals to effectively anticipate, respond to, and recover from, the impacts of likely, imminent or current hazard events or conditions;

"prevention" means Activities and measures to avoid existing and new disaster risks;

"reconstruction" means the medium and long-term rebuilding and sustainable restoration of resilient critical infrastructures, services, housing, facilities and livelihoods required for the full functioning of a community or a society affected by a disaster, aligning with the principles of sustainable development and "build back better", to avoid or reduce future disaster risk;
“recovery” means the restoring or improving of livelihoods and health, as well as economic, physical, social, cultural and environmental assets, systems and activities, of a disaster-affected community or society, aligning with the principles of sustainable development and “build back better”, to avoid or reduce future disaster risk;

“response” means actions taken directly before, during or immediately after a disaster in order to save lives, reduce health impacts, ensure public safety and meet the basic subsistence needs of the people affected;

“risk” means the combination of the probability of an event and its negative consequences;

“risk assessment” means the methodology used to determine the nature and extent of risk by analysing potential hazards and evaluating existing conditions of vulnerability which may potentially harm exposed people, property, services, livelihoods and the environment.

“Summit” has the meaning assigned under section 2 of the Intergovernmental Relations Act, 2012;

“the two levels of government” means all relevant departments and agencies of the national and county governments;

“vulnerability” means the conditions determined by physical, social, economic and environmental factors or processes which increase the susceptibility of an individual, a community, assets or systems to the impacts of hazards.

3. The object of this Act is to—

(a) provide for a legislative framework for disaster risk management;

(b) enhance effective and co-ordinated disaster preparedness, prevention, response, mitigation and recovery;

(c) reduce disaster risks and vulnerabilities at the national and county levels of government; and

(d) enhance resilience to the impacts of disaster risks and climate change at both the national and county levels.

4. The guiding principles to disaster risk management...
The National Disaster Risk Management Bill, 2021

shall be —

(a) a comprehensive approach to Disaster Risk Management for balancing between the reduction of risk and the enhancement of community resilience, while ensuring effective response and recovery capabilities;

(e) failure to declare his interest in any matter being considered by the Board;
(f) non-compliance with the requirements of Chapter Six of the Constitution; or
(g) any other ground that would lawfully justify removal from office under the terms and conditions of service.

17. (1) The Board shall be responsible for the general control of the performance and management of the undertakings and affairs of the Authority, and shall include a general duty to ensure that the functions of the Authority are carried out in an efficient, transparent and ethical manner and that no particular person or body is given undue preference or subjected to any undue disadvantage.

(2) The Board shall consider and advise the Cabinet Secretary on the development and maintenance of disaster risk management policy framework and the objectives of the Authority.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsections (1) and (2), the Board shall consider and advise the Cabinet Secretary—

(i) on legislative proposals relating to disaster risk management;
(ii) on measures for the promotion or support of any county government on disaster risk management;
(iii) determine and set priorities for the general performance targets by the Authority;
(iv) consider and determine the strategic plan and budget of the Authority;
(v) ensure that measures for the disaster risk management are initiated and implemented; and
(vi) on such other matters relating to disaster risk management in Kenya.

18. (1) The Board shall have all the powers necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Authority in accordance with the provisions of this Act and in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall have power to—

(a) control and oversee the administration of the assets of the Authority in such manner and for such purposes as best promote the purposes for which the Authority is established;

(b) determine the provisions to be made for capital and recurrent expenditure and for reserves of the Authority;

(c) in collaboration with the relevant bodies, suspend or limit sale, dispensing, or transportation of firearms explosives or such other products which it deems inappropriate in disaster areas;

(d) request any information or documents relating to its mandate from any organization, state department or agency;

(e) establish operational or administrative units for the effective coordination of disaster risk management;

(f) co-ordinate the evacuation of people in disaster prone areas;

(g) access and utilize available resources of government including warehouses, equipment and such other facilities as may be reasonably necessary for disaster emergency operations; and

(h) summon any person whom they may consider necessary in the implementation of their mandate.

19. (1) The Board may, from time to time, establish such committees as it considers necessary for the effective carrying out of its functions under this Act.

(2) The Board may by resolution, co-opt such experts for a specified period as may be necessary to assist in the proper discharge of its functions.

20. The Board may, by resolution either generally or in any particular case, delegate to any of its committees or Committees of the Board.

Delegation by the Board.
to any member, officer, employee or agent of the Board, the exercise of any of the powers or the performance of any of the functions or duties of the Board under this Act or under any other written law.

21. The conduct and regulation of the business and affairs of the Board shall be as provided in the Schedule, but subject thereto the Board may regulate its own procedure.

22. (1) The chairperson and members of the Board shall be paid such remuneration or allowances as the Board in consultation with the Salaries and Remuneration Commission may determine.

(2) The officers, agents and staff of the Authority shall be paid such remuneration and allowances as the Board in consultation with the Salaries and Remuneration Commission may determine.

23. (1) There shall be a Corporation Secretary who shall be appointed by the Board on such terms and conditions as the Board may determine and who shall perform such duties as the Board may, from time to time, assign.

(2) In the performance of his duties under this Act, the Corporation Secretary shall be responsible to the Director-General.

24. (1) There shall be a Director-General of the Authority who shall be competitively recruited and appointed by the Board, and whose terms and conditions of service shall be specified in the instrument of appointment or otherwise in writing from time to time.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of subsection (1), the Director-General shall be appointed for a period of three years' renewable once.

(3) The Director-General of the Authority shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the Authority and shall be subject to the direction of the Board and shall be responsible to it for the —

(a) implementation of the decisions of the Board;

(b) day to day administration and management of the affairs of the Board;
(c) organization and management of the employees; and
(d) any other function that may be assigned by the Board.

25. (1) A person shall be qualified for appointment as a Director-General, if such person—
(a) is a Kenyan Citizen;
(b) holds at least a degree or its equivalent in the relevant field from a University recognized in Kenya;
(c) has a distinguished career in a senior management position in either the private or public sector;
(d) holds at least ten years’ post-qualification professional experience; and
(e) satisfies the requirements of Chapter Six of the Constitution.

(2) A person is not qualified for appointment as a Director-General, if that person—
(a) is a member of Parliament or County Assembly;
(b) is a member of a governing body of a political party;
(c) is a member of a Commission established under the Constitution;
(d) is an undischarged bankrupt;
(e) has been removed from office for contravening the Constitution or any other law; or
(f) has, in the conduct of his affairs, not met any statutory obligations.

26. The Board may remove the Director-General from office in accordance with the terms and conditions of service for—
(a) inability to perform the functions of the office arising out of physical or mental incapacity;
(b) gross misconduct or misbehavior;
(c) incompetence or neglect of duty;
(d) non-compliance with the requirements of Chapter Six of the Constitution; or
(e) any other ground that would lawfully justify removal from office under the terms and conditions of service.

27. The office of the Director-General shall become vacant if he—
(a) is unable to perform the functions of his office by reason of mental or physical infirmity;
(b) is adjudged bankrupt;
(c) is removed from office on any of the grounds provided under section 26;
(d) resigns, in writing, addressed to the Board;
(e) fails to declare his interest in any matter being considered by the Board;
(f) violates any of the provisions of Chapter Six of the Constitution; or
(g) dies.

28. (1) The Board may appoint such officers, agents and staff as are necessary for the proper and efficient discharge of the functions of the Authority and upon such terms and conditions of service as the Board may determine.

(2) The Board may, on the advice of the Director General, engage on behalf of the Authority, the service of such experts in respect of any of the functions of the Authority in connection with which they are considered to have special competence.

29. (1) The common seal of the Authority shall be kept in the custody of the Corporation Secretary, the Director-General or such other person as the Board may direct, and shall not be used except on the order of the Board.
(2) The common seal of the Authority shall, when affixed to a document and authenticated be judicially and officially noticed and unless the contrary is proved, any order or authorization by the Authority under this section shall be presumed to have been duly given.

30. (1) No matter or thing done by a member of the Board or any officer, employee, or agent of the Authority shall, if the matter or thing is done bona fide for executing the functions, powers or duties of the Authority render the member, officer, employee or agent personally liable to any action, claim or demand whatsoever.

(2) Any expenses incurred by any person in any suit or prosecution brought against him in any court, in respect of any act which is done or purported to be done by him under the direction of the Authority, shall, if the court holds that such act was done in bona fide, be paid out of the general funds of the Authority, unless such expenses are recovered by him in such suit or prosecution.

(3) The provision of this section shall not relieve the Authority of the liability to compensate or pay damages to any person for any injury to him, his property or any of his interests caused by the exercise of any power conferred by this Act or any other written law or by the failure, wholly or partially of any works.

PART III—CLASSIFICATION OF DISASTER, PLANS AND ELECTRONIC INFORMATION SYSTEMS

31. (1) The Authority shall develop and maintain an electronic database containing—

(a) particulars of—

(i) national and county organs involved in disaster risk management;

(ii) non-governmental organisations involved in disaster risk management;

disaster risk management; and

(vi) foreign non-governmental organisations and international organisations involved in disaster risk management;

(b) information concerning disasters including information on—

(i) phenomena, occurrences, activities and circumstances that cause or aggravate disasters;

(ii) risk factors underlying disasters and means to reduce such risks;

(iii) disaggregated data on disaster loss and damage showing the, type of disaster, type of impact and its gender, age geographical disaggregation dimensions;

(iv) recurring occurrences that result in loss, but which are not classified as disasters under this Act;

(v) prevention and mitigation of disaster;

(vi) early warning systems;

(vii) areas and communities that are vulnerable to disasters; and

(viii) indigenous knowledge relating to disaster risk management;

(c) the directory of role-players and the names and particulars of their respective contact persons;

(d) emergency response resources and capacity in the national and county governments and in the non-government sectors, including the location and size of, and other relevant information relating to—

(i) police stations;

(ii) hospitals, clinics and other health facilities;

(iii) emergency medical services;

(iv) public buildings and other facilities that may be used as emergency shelters or hospitals in the event of a disaster;

(v) fire-fighting services; and

(vi) airports, airstrips, harbours, and railway stations;

(e) emergency response resources and capacity in neighbouring states and relevant international relief agencies;

(f) emergency preparedness in the different spheres of government;

(g) each disaster classified by the Authority under section 31; and

(h) disaster risk management research and training facilities.

(2) The Authority shall ensure that the database is accessible to the public in accordance with the Access to Information Act, 2016, the Data Protection Act, 2019 and any other relevant law.

(3) Despite subsection (2), the Authority—

(a) shall—

(i) establish security safeguards to ensure that access to the information on the database does not violate the right to privacy;

(ii) subject to the information on the database, restrict access to the information; and

(b) may classify parts of the database as restricted areas and limit access to those parts to authorized persons.

32. (1) The Authority shall—

(a) develop and regularly review the national disaster risk management plan and strategy for organs of State and other institutional role-players involved in disaster risk management;

(b) collaborate with the counties in co-ordinating the implementation of the policies, plans and strategies;
(c) develop guidelines for the integration of the concept and principles of disaster risk management in national and county integrated development plans, protocols, programmes and initiatives; and

(d) mainstream gender issues in the plans and strategies.

(2) In developing and reviewing the disaster risk management plan under subsection (1), the Authority shall collaborate with departments, agencies and institutions involved in the implementation of the development plans and the persons involved in the oversight of the implementation of the development plans.

33. (1) When a disaster occurs or threatens to occur, the Authority shall determine whether the event is a disaster under this Act, and if so, immediately—

(a) assess the magnitude and severity or potential magnitude and severity of the disaster;

(b) classify the disaster as a county disaster or national disaster in accordance with subsections (4), (5) and (6); and

(c) record the prescribed particulars concerning the disaster in the prescribed register.

(2) In assessing the magnitude and severity or potential magnitude and severity of a disaster, the Authority—

(a) shall consider the information and recommendations concerning the disaster received from a County Committee; and

(b) may enlist the assistance of an independent assessor to evaluate the disaster on site.

(3) The Authority may reclassify a disaster classified under subsection (1) (b) at any time after consultation with the relevant County Committee, if the magnitude and severity or potential magnitude and severity of the disaster differs from the initial assessment.

(4) A disaster is a county disaster, if—

(a) it affects a single county; and
(b) the county concerned is able to effectively manage it.

(5) A disaster is a national disaster if it affects—
(a) more than one county; or
(b) a single county which is unable to effectively manage it.

(6) Until a disaster is classified by the Authority, it shall be deemed a county disaster.

(7) Despite the classification of a disaster under this section, in designating primary responsibility for managing a disaster to a particular level of government, the national and county level of government may assist each other in managing a disaster.

(8) The details of classification of a disaster under this section shall be prescribed by the Cabinet Secretary in Regulations.

34. (1) In the event of a national disaster, the President may declare a National State of Disaster by notice in the Gazette.

(2) The declaration of a National State of Disaster shall contain—
(a) a concise statement of the reasons for the declaration; and
(b) the duration of the declaration.

(3) A National State of Disaster declared under subsection (1)—
(a) shall lapse on the date specified in the notice declaring the national state of disaster;
(b) may be terminated by the President at any time before the lapse of the period specified in paragraph (a); or
(c) may by notice in the Kenya Gazette be extended by the President, any time before the period specified under paragraph (a) lapses.

(4) During the subsistence of a declaration of a National State of Disaster, the President may make orders, or the issue directives, concerning—

(a) the release of any available resources of the national government including stores, equipment, vehicles and facilities;

(b) the release of personnel of a national state organ for rendering of emergency services;

(c) the implementation of all or any of the provisions of a national disaster management plan that are applicable in the circumstances;

(d) the evacuation to temporary shelters of all or part of the population from the disaster-stricken or threatened area if such action is necessary for the preservation of life;

(e) the regulation of traffic to, from or within the disaster-stricken or threatened area;

(f) the regulation of the movement of persons and goods to, from or within the disaster-stricken or threatened area;

(g) the authorization of or direction to any person, or any class of persons, to render essential services of a type that that person, or a person of that class, is competent to provide and the provision of reasonable compensation in respect of services so rendered;

(h) the regulation of the distribution, sale and availability of essential goods, services and resources;

(i) emergency procurement procedures;

(j) the imposition of such penalties as may be specified for any contravention of or failure to comply with the provisions of the orders or any directions issued or conditions prescribed by or under the orders or regulations, which may include the confiscation of goods, property or instruments by means of which or in connection with which the offence has been committed:

Provided that no order or regulation shall make provision for the imposition of imprisonment for a period of exceeding six months or of a fine exceeding twenty thousand shillings; or

(k) other steps that may be necessary to prevent an escalation of the disaster, or to alleviate, contain and minimise the effects of the disaster.

(5) When a State of National Disaster lapses or is terminated as provided for in this section, any regulation, order or directive made or issued in consequence thereof shall thereby cease to be in force.

Provided that nothing in this section shall affect the validity of anything done pursuant to a declaration of a national state disaster or any regulation, order or directive made in consequence thereof, prior to the cessation of the declaration of the state of national disaster, the regulation, order or directive as the case may be; or from any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred thereunder.

PART IV—COUNTY DISASTER RISK MANAGEMENT COMMITTEES

35. (1) There is established, in each county, a County Disaster Risk Management Committee comprising—

(a) the Governor of the county, or a representative appointed in writing by the Governor who shall be the Chairperson;

(6) Unless a unanimous decision is reached, a decision on any matter before the Board shall be by a majority of votes of the members present and voting and, in the case of an equality of votes, the chairperson or the person presiding shall have a casting vote.

(7) Subject to subparagraph (4), no proceedings of the Board shall be invalid by reason only of a vacancy among the members thereof.

2. (1) If a member is directly or indirectly interested in any contract, proposed contract or other matter before the Board and is present at a meeting of the Board at which the contract, proposed contract or other matter is the subject of consideration, that member shall, at the meeting and as soon as practicable after the commencement thereof, disclose the fact and shall not take part in the consideration or discussion of, or vote on, any questions with respect to the contract or other matter, or be counted in the quorum of the meeting during consideration of the matter:

Provided that, if the majority of the members present are of the opinion that the experience or expertise of such member is vital to the deliberations of the meeting, the Board may permit the member to participate in the deliberations subject to such restrictions as it may impose but such member shall not have the right to vote on the matter in question.

(2) A disclosure of interest made under this paragraph shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it is made.

(3) A member of the Board who contravenes subparagraph (1) commits an offence and is liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand shillings, or both.

3. Any contract or instrument which, if entered into or executed by a person not being a body corporate, would not require to be under seal, may be entered into or executed on behalf of the Board by any person generally or specially authorized by the Board for that purpose.

4. The Board shall cause minutes of all resolutions and proceedings of meetings of the Board to be entered in books kept for that purpose.
MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill seeks to establish the Intergovernmental Council on Disaster Risk Management and the National Disaster Risk Management Authority to ensure that there is co-ordination of disaster risk management issues at the national and county level. The Bill further seeks to establish County Disaster Risk Management Committees in each of the counties as the role of disaster risk management is a shared function between the national and county governments under the Fourth Schedule to the Constitution. To this end the Bill proposes to bring together the staff of the National Disaster Operations Centre, the National Disaster Risk Management Unit to undertake National Disaster Risk Management.

The main premise of the Bill is to approach disaster risk management in a manner that seeks first to respond effectively and in a timely manner to any disaster or risk of disaster, and to prevent the adverse effects of a disaster, recover, as far as may be possible, the livelihood of communities affected by a disaster.

The enactment of the Bill will assist in the efficient and effective management of disasters across the country.

PART I—contains preliminary provisions.
