"authorized representative" means an advocate, or an agent as defined under the Civil Procedure Act (Cap. 21);

"Authority" means the Competition Authority of Kenya established under section 7 of the Act;

"Chairperson" means the Chairperson of the Tribunal appointed under section 71(2)(a) of the Act;

"confidentiality ring" means an arrangement set up in accordance with a direction by the Tribunal under which documents are treated as confidential and disclosed only on such terms as the Tribunal deems fit;

"electronic" includes a compact disc, memory stick, digital versatile disk, email or any other unalterable electronic media;

"pleading" includes a petition or summons, a statement in writing of the claim or demand of any appellant and of the response of any respondent thereto and of the reply of the appellant to any response or counter claim of a respondent;

"Registry" means the registry of the Competition Tribunal;

"Respondent" means the Authority and any other party required to file a response to an appeal, or any application before the Tribunal;

"Secretary" means a person appointed to head the Secretariat of the Tribunal; and

"Tribunal" means the Competition Tribunal established under section 71(1) of the Act.

3. Language of the Tribunal

(1) The proceedings of the Tribunal shall be conducted in English or Kiswahili.

(2) No appeal, application, document or other papers contained in any other language other than English shall be accepted by the Tribunal unless the same is accompanied by a translation thereof in English attested by a translator and counter signed by the party concerned.

4. Office hours

The official working hours of the Tribunal shall be Monday to Friday from 8.00 am to 5.00 p.m. excluding public holidays, but the Tribunal may sit on such other times as it may determine.

5. Sittings of the Tribunal

The seat of the Tribunal shall be at its headquarters in Nairobi but the Tribunal may sit at such places as the Tribunal may, by special order direct.

[Subsidiary]

6. Filing of documents

Parties shall file with the Tribunal all documents both in print and electronic form.

PART II – GOVERNING PRINCIPLES

7. Governing principles

The Tribunal shall be guided by the principles set out in Article 159(2) of the Constitution.

8. Case Management

(1) The Tribunal shall manage cases by, among others—

- (a) encouraging the parties to co-operate with each other in the conduct of the proceedings;
- (b) identifying and concentrating on the main issues as early as possible;
- (c) employing suitable and appropriate technology in the conduct of the business of the Tribunal;
- (d) adopting procedures that are most effective and appropriate for the case;
- (e) ensuring that hearing is conducted within defined time-limits and without undue delay; and
- (f) encouraging and facilitating the use of alternative dispute resolution mechanisms if the Tribunal considers it appropriate.

(2) The Tribunal shall manage its operations in a manner that promotes good governance, transparency and accountability to ensure access to justice for all.

PART III – JURISDICTION

9. Jurisdiction of the Tribunal

The Tribunal shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the following matters—

- (a) matters referred to it for review of the Authority's decision under section 48 (1) of the Act;
- (b) to hear Appeals from the decisions of the Authority;
- (c) any other matter arising under the Act; and
- (d) any other matter referred to it by a competent court of law.

10. Decisions and orders

(1) In determining the matters set out in rule 9, the Tribunal shall have the power to—

- (a) confirm the decision of the Authority;
- (b) modify the decision of the Authority by ordering restrictions or including conditions in whole or in part;
- (c) set aside, reverse or vacate in whole or in part, the decision or the effect of any decision which is the subject matter of proceedings before it;
- (d) refer the matter back to the Authority for reconsideration on specified terms in accordance with section 75 of the Act;
- (e) make an appropriate order as to costs; or
- (f) grant any other appropriate relief which the Tribunal would have the power to grant under the Act.

(2) The Tribunal shall exercise its power under this rule taking into account all the relevant circumstances, including—

- (a) the urgency of the matter;
- (b) the effect on the party making the request if the relief sought is not granted;
- (c) the effect on competition if the relief is granted; and
- (d) the furnishing and adequacy of any offer of any undertaking as to damages.

(3) A matter referred back to the Authority by the Tribunal may be subject to the Tribunal's further order, direction or final decision.

(4) Subject to sub rules (1) and (3), an order or direction for interim relief may be made against a person who is not a party to the proceedings, provided that no such order may be made unless that person has been given an opportunity to be heard.

(5) If the urgency of the case so requires, the Tribunal may grant the request for interim relief for such period as the Chairperson may deem fit before the parties make their submissions or the person referred to in sub rule (4) has been heard.

PART IV – PARTIES

11. Parties before the Tribunal

Parties to the Tribunal shall include any—

- (a) person or persons aggrieved by a decision of the Authority;
- (b) interested party joined under the provisions of section 48 of the Act;
- (c) party joined by the Tribunal; or
- (d) other person or persons affected by a decision of the Authority who may apply to be enjoined.

12. Representation

A party may appear before the Tribunal in person or through an authorized representative.

PART V – PROCEEDINGS

13. Review under section 48 of the Act

(1) An application under section 48 of the Act for review of the decision of the Authority shall be in Form CT3 as prescribed in the First Schedule accompanied by an affidavit.

(2) Within thirty days upon receipt of the application under sub rule (1) the Tribunal shall give notice in the Gazette of the application of a review and invite interested parties to make submission to the Tribunal in regard to any matter to be reviewed within the time and manner stipulated in the notice.

14. Applications generally

All applications made before the Tribunal shall be made in Form CT3 as prescribed in the First Schedule accompanied by an affidavit.

15. Appeal process for all other appeals

(1) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Authority as envisaged under this Rule, shall file a Notice of Appeal and Memorandum of Appeal in Form CT4 and Form CT5 respectively as prescribed in the First Schedule setting out concisely the grounds upon which the person is appealing against within thirty days from the date of receipt or notification of the decision of the Authority.

(2) Pursuant to sub rule (1), the appellant shall file the Notice of Appeal within fourteen days upon receipt or notification of the decision of the Authority.

(3) The concise statement of the facts shall contain—

- (a) details of the decision to which the proceedings relate;
- (b) a summary of the grounds for contesting the decision, identifying in particular
 - (i) to what extent (if any) the appellant contends that the disputed decision was based on an error of fact or was wrong in law;
 - (ii) to what extent (if any) the appellant is appealing against the Authority's exercise of its discretion in making the disputed decision;

[Subsidiary]

- (iii) a succinct presentation of the arguments supporting each of the grounds of appeal;
- (iv) the relief sought by the Appellant, and any directions sought in accordance with Rule 29;
- (v) a schedule listing all the documents; and
- (vi) a statement identifying the evidence (whether witness statements or other documents annexed to the affidavit) the substance of which, so far as the appellant is aware, was not before the Authority.

16. Memorandum of Appeal

(1) The Memorandum of Appeal shall be accompanied by the following documents —

- (a) an affidavit;
- (b) a copy of the decision appealed against;
- (c) a list and copies of documents in support of the appeal; and
- (d) proceedings, if any, or any materials, reports or documents upon which the Authority based its decision.

(2) Upon filing the Memorandum of Appeal and all accompanying documents, the appellant shall serve the Respondents within fourteen days.

(3) Any party served with the Memorandum of Appeal shall respond by filing a replying affidavit within fourteen days of service.

(4) Any party served with the Memorandum of Appeal or notification of the decision, may file a Cross-Appeal in Form CT6 as prescribed in the First Schedule within fourteen days from the date of service.

(5) The Cross-Appeal shall be accompanied by the documents as set out in sub-rule (1).

(6) A Memorandum of Appeal or applications, counters, rejoinders, supplementary pleadings or other documents, as the case may be, shall be filed in seven bound copies and an additional electronic copy.

17. Joinder of parties

(1) Any person enjoined in the proceedings may, with the leave of the Tribunal, file an appropriate affidavit.

(2) The affidavit shall set out—

- (a) a concise statement of the matters in issue in the proceedings which affect the party;
- (b) a succinct presentation of the facts and arguments supporting the claim;
- (c) the relief sought by the party;
- (d) a schedule listing all the documents annexed to the affidavit;
- (e) a statement identifying the evidence (whether witness statements or other documents annexed to the affidavit) the substance of which, so far as the party is aware, was not before the Authority at the time of making the decision; and
- (f) as far as practicable, a copy of every document (or part of a document) on which the enjoined party relies on, including the written statements of witnesses of fact and expert witnesses, if any.

18. Close of Pleadings

Fourteen days after the filing of the replying affidavit by the Respondent or the affidavit by the enjoined party, no further pleadings shall be filed without leave of the Tribunal upon such terms as it deems fit.

19. Amendments

(1) All amendments of pleadings shall only be filed with the leave of the Tribunal.

(2) Where the Tribunal grants leave under sub rule (1) it may do so on such terms as it deems fit, and may give any further or consequential directions it considers necessary.

(3) In deciding whether to grant leave under sub rule (1), the Tribunal shall take into account all the circumstances including whether the proposed amendment—

- (a) involves a substantial change or addition to the Appellant's case;
- (b) is based on matters of law or fact which have come to the knowledge of the parties since the appeal or application was made; or
- (c) for any other reason could not practicably have been included in the Memorandum of Appeal.

20. Extension of time

The Tribunal may extend the time limit set out under these Rules if it is satisfied that the circumstances are exceptional.

PART VI – SERVICE

21. Service

(1) When a Memorandum of Appeal has been filed, a notice of appearance shall be issued to the Respondent ordering the Respondent to appear within the time specified.

(2) The notice of appearance to be issued shall be in Form CT1 as prescribed in the First Schedule and shall specify the time limit thereto within fourteen days, within which the Respondent shall file a reply.

(3) The notice of appearance, except where the Tribunal is to effect service, shall be collected for service within three days of the filing of the Memorandum of the Appeal.

(4) The Appellant shall serve a copy of the notice of appearance together with the Memorandum of Appeal on the Respondent within fourteen days of collection.

(5) Service of the notice of appearance and the Memorandum of Appeal shall, unless being effected by electronic means, be delivered to the Respondent in person or on the Respondent's Authorized Representative, or the Respondent's last known address indicated in the proceedings before the Authority.

(6) Where in any appeal, after reasonable attempts have been made to serve the Respondent and the Respondent cannot be found, service may be made to the person empowered to accept service or any adult member of the family of the Respondent who is residing with the Respondent.

(7) Where a duplicate of the notice of appearance and Memorandum of Appeal is duly delivered or tendered to the Respondent physically, or on any another person on his behalf, the Respondent or such agent or the person shall be required to endorse an acknowledgment of service on original notice of appearance and Memorandum:

Provided that, if the Tribunal is satisfied that the Respondent or such agent or other persons has refused so to endorse, the Tribunal may declare the summons to have been duly served.

(8) Where the Appellant or Applicant after using all due and reasonable diligence, cannot find the Respondent, or any person upon whom service can be made, the Appellant or Applicant shall affix a copy of the notice on the outer door or some other conspicuous part of the house in which the Respondent ordinarily resides or carries on business or personally works for gain, and shall then return the original to the Tribunal with an affidavit of service detailing the mode of service employed.

(9) Where the Respondent is a corporation, service shall be effected on the secretary, director or other principal officer of the corporation.

(10) Where the appellant or Applicant is unable to find any officers of the corporation mentioned in sub rule (9), the Appellant or Applicant shall effect service by—

- (a) leaving the notice of appearance and the Memorandum of the Appeal at the registered office of the corporation; or

[Subsidiary]

- (b) sending the notice of appearance and the Memorandum of Appeal by prepaid registered post or by a licensed courier service provider approved by the Tribunal to the registered postal address of the corporation; or
- (c) if there is no registered office and no registered postal address of the corporation, by leaving it at the place where the corporation carries on business; or
- (d) by sending it by registered post to the last known postal address of the corporation.

(11) Every notice shall be signed by the Secretary and in the absence of the Secretary, by any other person duly authorized by the Tribunal, and sealed with the seal of the Tribunal.

(12) Save as otherwise as may be prescribed by the Tribunal, where there are more than one Respondents, service of the notice of appearance shall be made on each Respondent.

(13) Where the Tribunal is satisfied that for any reason the notice of appearance and the Memorandum of Appeal cannot be served in accordance with any of the preceding rules, it may on application, order substituted service which may include service by electronic means.

(14) Where upon an application the Tribunal determines that service outside the country is necessary, it shall give an order to such effect and give directions on how such service shall be effected.

(15) The Appellant shall file an affidavit of service within seven days of effective service.

(16) A Respondent who has been duly served shall within seven days of such service file a notice of Address of service.

(17) The notice of address of service shall be in Form CT2 as prescribed in the First Schedule and shall be served upon all the parties within seven days of filing.

(18) The Respondent may within fourteen days of being served with the notice of appearance file a reply to the Memorandum of Appeal.

(19) A Respondent shall serve its reply upon all parties within fourteen days of filing.

(20) The Appellant shall serve its reply, if any to the Respondents reply, within seven days of the date of service on the appellant of the respondents reply.

(21) Parties may with the leave of the Tribunal, file additional documents.

(22) The Rules relating to service of notice of appearance and to the Memorandum of Appeal shall with necessary modifications apply to service of the reply.

(23) Every notice or other document, required to be served on or delivered to any person, may be sent by the Secretary by speed post or by courier or by email to the person or his Authorized Representative to accept service.

PART VII – THE HEARING PROCESS

22. Quorum of the Tribunal

The quorum of the Tribunal shall be as stipulated under section 71 (4) of the Act.

23. Case management conference

(1) Where the pleadings are closed—

- (a) the Tribunal shall set down the Appeal for pre-trial conference and directions; and
- (b) all parties shall be notified of the time and place for the taking of the directions as to the hearing of the appeals.

(2) The Tribunal may make directions inter alia—

- (a) to determine the parties involved;
- (b) whether there is need to publish the Appeal or Application for review;
- (c) to identify the contested and non-contested issues;

- (d) to make an order for security for costs;
- (e) whether to proceed by affidavit or viva voce;
- (f) to create a schedule of events and a timetable for the proceedings;
- (g) to consider consolidation;
- (h) to make a referral order for Alternative Dispute Resolution;
- (i) to set the Appeal or Application down for hearing;
- (j) that the parties file a rejoinder or other additional pleadings or particulars;
- (k) requiring clarification of any matter in dispute or additional information in relation to any such matter;
- (l) for the appointment and instruction of experts, whether by the Tribunal or by the parties;
- (m) for the production of bundles for the hearing;
- (n) for the creation of a confidentiality ring;
- (o) for the disclosure and the production by a party or third party of documents or classes of documents;
- (p) for hearing a person who is not a party where, in any proceedings, it is proposed to make an order or give a direction in relation to that person; or
- (q) whether a matter will be heard under fast-track procedure.

(3) In addition to any other general power, the Tribunal may make any other directions that it may deem necessary and expedient.

24. Fast-track procedure

(1) The Tribunal may, at any time, either of its own initiative or on the application of a party, make an order that particular proceedings be, or cease to be, subject to the fast-track procedure.

(2) Where the Tribunal has ordered that particular proceedings be subject to the fast-track procedure—

- (a) the main substantive hearing is to be fixed to commence as soon as practicable and in any event within six months of an order of the Tribunal stating that the particular proceedings are to be subject to the fast-track procedure; and
- (b) the amount of recoverable costs is to be capped at a level to be determined by the Tribunal.

(3) In deciding whether to make particular proceedings subject to the fast track procedure the Tribunal shall take into account all matters it deems necessary, including—

- (a) the time estimate for the main substantive hearing;
- (b) the complexity and novelty of the issues involved;
- (c) whether any additional claims have been or will be made;
- (d) the number of witnesses involved (including expert witnesses, if any);
- (e) the scale and nature of the documentary evidence involved;
- (f) whether any disclosure is required and, if so, the likely extent of such disclosure; and
- (g) the nature of the remedy being sought and, in respect of any claim for damages, the amount of any damages claimed;
- (h) that the parties file a rejoinder or other additional pleadings or particulars;
- (i) requiring clarification of any matter in dispute or additional information in relation to any such matter;
- (j) for the appointment and instruction of experts, whether by the Tribunal or by the parties;
- (k) for the production of bundles of documents for the hearing;

[Subsidiary]

- (l) for the creation of a confidentiality ring;
- (m) for the disclosure and the production by a party or third party of documents or classes of documents; and
- (n) where the matter is of great public interest.

25. Disclosure

- (1) A party discloses a document by stating that the document exists or has existed.
- (2) A disclosure report shall contain—
 - (a) a brief description of what documents exist or may have existed, that are or may be relevant to the matters in issue in the case;
 - (b) a description of where and with whom those documents are or may be located;
 - (c) in the case of electronic documents, a description of how those documents are stored; and
 - (d) directions which are to be sought regarding disclosure.
- (3) At a subsequent case management conference, the Tribunal shall decide, having regard to the governing principles, the need to limit disclosure and what is necessary to deal with the case justly.
- (4) The Tribunal may at any point give directions as to how disclosure is to be made.
- (5) A party's duty to disclose documents is limited to documents which are or have been in its control.
- (6) For the purpose of sub rule (5), a party has or has had a document in its control if—
 - (a) the document is or was in its physical possession;
 - (b) it has or has had a right to possession of the document; or
 - (c) it has or has had a right to inspect or take copies of the document.

26. Matters under certificate of urgency

Where a Memorandum of Appeal is accompanied by a Notice of Motion under a certificate of urgency, the Chairperson or a member of the Tribunal shall convene a meeting as soon as is reasonably practicable to give directions as to the hearing of the application.

27. Power to strike out

- (1) The Tribunal may, after giving the parties an opportunity to be heard, strike out an appeal or an application in whole or in part at any stage in the proceedings if it—
 - (a) considers that it has no jurisdiction to hear or determine the appeal or an application;
 - (b) considers that the Memorandum of Appeal or application, or part of it, discloses no valid ground;
 - (c) considers that the appellant or applicant does not have (or represent those who have) a sufficient interest in the decision in respect of which the appeal or application is made;
 - (d) is satisfied that the appellant or applicant has habitually and persistently and without any reasonable ground—
 - (i) instituted vexatious proceedings, whether against the same person or different persons; or
 - (ii) made vexatious applications in any proceedings; or
 - (iii) failed to comply with any rule, practice direction, or order or direction of the Tribunal.
- (2) When the Tribunal strikes out an appeal or an application it may make any consequential order it considers appropriate.

28. Summoning or citing of witnesses

(1) The Tribunal may, at any time, either of its own motion or at the request of any party, issue a summons in Form CT7 as prescribed in the First Schedule requiring any person wherever that person may be to—

- (a) attend as a witness before the Tribunal, at the time and place set out in the summons or citation; and
- (b) answer any questions or produce any documents or other material in the possession or under the control of that person which relate to any matter in question in the proceedings.

(2) A request by a party for the issue of a summons or citation under this Rule shall state with reasons—

- (a) upon which facts the witness is to be questioned;
- (b) the documents or material required to be produced.

(3) A person shall only be required to attend in compliance with a summons or citation under this Rule if—

- (a) that person has been given at least seven days' notice of the hearing or such time as the Tribunal may direct; and
- (b) recoverable expenses are provided for, in respect of attendance of the witness in proceedings before the Tribunal.

(4) Where a party applies to the Tribunal under Rule 28 (1), the costs of appearance shall be borne by the requesting party.

(5) The Tribunal may direct a party to serve on its behalf a summons issued under this Rule.

29. Failure to comply with directions

(1) If any party fails to comply with any direction given in accordance with these Rules, the Tribunal may, if it considers that the justice of the case so requires, order that—

- (a) the requirements of the direction be waived;
- (b) the failure be remedied;
- (c) the party be debarred from taking part in the proceedings unless the party is granted leave by the Tribunal;
- (d) the party or the authorized representative be subject to an order for any costs the Tribunal deems fit.

(2) Before making an order under sub rule (1) (c) or (d), the Tribunal shall give the party (or the authorized representative) the opportunity to make submissions as to why the order should not be made.

30. Withdrawal of the appeal or application

(1) The appellant may withdraw its appeal or application only with the leave of the Tribunal.

(2) A party who wishes to withdraw an appeal or application under sub rule (1) shall serve a notice to withdraw to the respondent and other interested parties.

(3) Where leave is granted under sub rule (1), the Tribunal may—

- (a) do so on such terms as it deems fit;
- (b) publish notice of the withdrawal on the Kenya gazette or a newspaper of national circulation.

(4) Where an appeal is withdrawn—

- (a) any interim order of the Tribunal, other than an order made in respect of costs, immediately ceases to have effect; and
- (b) no fresh appeal may be brought by the appellant in relation to the decision which was the subject of the appeal without the leave of the Tribunal.

[Subsidiary]

31. Security for costs

- (1) A Respondent may seek security for its costs of the proceedings.
- (2) A request for security for costs shall be supported by affidavit evidence.
- (3) Where the Tribunal makes an order for security for costs, it shall—
 - (a) determine the amount of security; and
 - (b) direct the manner in which, and the time within which, the security must be given.
- (4) The Tribunal may make an order for security for costs under this rule if it is satisfied that—
 - (a) the appellant or applicant—
 - (i) is resident out of the jurisdiction;
 - (ii) is a company or other body (whether incorporated in or outside Kenya) and there is reason to believe that it will be unable to pay the respondent costs if ordered to do so;
 - (iii) has changed its address since the commencement of proceedings, with a view to evading the consequences of the litigation;
 - (iv) failed to give its address or gave an incorrect address; or
 - (v) has been authorized to act as the class representative in collective proceedings and there is reason to believe that the appellant or applicant will be unable to pay the respondents costs if ordered to do so.
 - (b) any other written law permits the Tribunal to require security for costs.

32. Conduct of hearings

- (1) The hearings before the Tribunal shall be conducted in the manner prescribed under the Act and these Rules.
- (2) Notice of the day fixed for hearing of the appeal or application shall be served on the Respondent or on the authorized representative in Form CT8 as prescribed in the First Schedule.

33. Adjournment of hearings

The Tribunal may, if sufficient cause is shown at any stage of the proceedings, adjourn the hearing for such time or date as it may consider appropriate provided that in any case, the Tribunal may grant adjournment on such reasonable terms.

34. Ex-parte hearings

If a party to the proceedings does not appear on the day fixed for hearing, the Tribunal, upon proof of service, may continue with the proceedings in the absence of the party.

35. Right to begin

During the hearing, except as otherwise directed by the Tribunal, the appellant or applicant shall have the right to begin.

36. Expert evidence

If a party in the proceedings wishes to rely upon expert evidence it shall serve with its application before the Tribunal that evidence, attaching either the statement of expert evidence on which it wishes to rely upon or a detailed explanation of the nature of the expert evidence that it wishes to adduce.

37. Confidentiality

- (1) A request for the confidential treatment of any document or part of a document provided in the course of proceedings before the Tribunal shall—

- (a) be made in Form CT9 as prescribed in the First Schedule indicating the relevant words, figures or passages for which confidentiality is claimed; and
- (b) be supported in each case by specific reasons, and, if so directed by the Tribunal, the person making the request shall supply a non-confidential version of the relevant document.

(2) In the event of a dispute as to whether confidential treatment should be accorded, the Tribunal shall decide the matter after hearing the parties and having regard to the need to exclude the information.

(3) The Tribunal may direct that documents or parts of a document, containing confidential information are disclosed within a confidentiality ring.

38. Submissions at close of the hearing

At the conclusion of the hearing, the parties may make submissions as the Tribunal may direct.

39. Practice and procedure

Notwithstanding the provisions of these Rules, the Tribunal has powers to grant any relief or give directions on how matters may proceed before it.

40. Costs

(1) The Tribunal may, at any stage of the proceedings, make any order it may deem fit in relation to the payment of costs by one party to another in respect of the whole or part of the proceedings including an order for security for costs.

(2) The Tribunal may direct any party against whom an order for costs is made to pay such costs to any other party in a lump sum or such proportion of the costs as may be just.

(3) Where the Tribunal makes an order for costs under this rule, the Tribunal may—

- (a) assess the costs at the time of making the order; or
- (b) direct that the costs be assessed on conclusion of the matter.

(4) Any costs required by an order under this rule to be assessed must be assessed by the Secretary.

(5) The Tribunal may direct that witness expenses be paid to any witness or expert.

PART VIII – CONSERVATORY ORDERS

41. Injunctions generally

(1) The Tribunal may by order, whether interim or final, grant an injunction in all cases in which it appears to be just and convenient to do so.

(2) Any such order may be made either unconditionally or on such terms and conditions as the Tribunal deems just.

42. Conservatory Order

(1) A conservatory order may be made at any time, before proceedings are commenced.

(2) The Tribunal may grant a conservatory order before proceedings are commenced only if—

- (a) the matter is urgent; or
- (b) it is otherwise necessary to do so in the interests of justice.

(3) Where it grants a conservatory order before proceedings are commenced, the Tribunal may give directions on the hearing of the appeal or application.

PART IX – GENERAL

43. Registry as secretariat

The Registry shall act in accordance with the instructions of the Secretary who will be responsible for—

[Subsidiary]

- (a) the establishment and maintenance of a register in which all pleadings and supporting documents and all orders and decisions of the Tribunal are to be registered;
- (b) the acceptance, transmission and custody of documents in accordance with these Rules;
- (c) the enforcement of decisions and orders of the Tribunal, as the case may be, certifying that any order, direction or decision is of the Tribunal;
- (d) receiving and registering appeals, applications, interlocutory and all other miscellaneous appeals or applications, as the case may be;
- (e) maintaining all records of the Tribunal; and
- (f) performing any other functions as the Chairperson may from time to time direct.

44. Perusal of documents

A party to any proceedings before the Tribunal may, on an application made by it or on its behalf, addressed to the Secretary, be allowed to inspect or obtain copies of pleadings and other documents or records in the proceedings on payment of fees specified in the Rules provided the documents have not been declared confidential.

45. Order or judgment of Tribunal

(1) Every judgment of the Tribunal shall be signed and dated by the Chairperson and Members who formed the quorum:

Provided that the Chairperson or a member who dissents with the final decision, shall record the reasons and duly sign and date the judgement.

(2) Orders shall be signed and sealed by the Secretary.

46. Rectification of errors

Clerical or arithmetical mistakes in judgments, orders or errors arising therein from any accidental slip or omission, may, at any time, be corrected by the Tribunal, either on its own motion or on the application of any of the parties.

47. Indemnity for members

The members of the Tribunal shall not be personally liable to any action or other proceedings, for or in respect of any act done or omitted to be done without negligence and in good faith in the exercise or purported exercise of any of the functions conferred by or under the Act and these Rules.

48. Fees

(1) There must be paid to the Tribunal such filing and other fees, including fees for service by the Tribunal of any notice or process, as prescribed in the Second Schedule.

(2) The Tribunal may, if it considers it to be in the interest of justice, and for reasons to be recorded, waive or postpone all or any of the fees payable to the Tribunal.

THE COMPETITION - EXCLUSION

[Legal Notice 160 of 2017]

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred by section 42 (1) of the Competition Act, 2010, the Competition Authority of Kenya excludes the proposed acquisition of 50% of the entire issued share capital of WS Atkins PLC by SNC-Lavalin Group INC from the provisions of Part IV of the Act due to the following reasons—

- (a) the transaction will not affect competition negatively;
 - (b) the acquirer's had no turnover for the preceeding year 2015 while the target's turnover was KES 614,236,000; and
 - (c) the transaction is below the merger threshold required for mandatory notification as contained in the Merger Threshold Guidelines.

THE COMPETITION - EXCLUSION

[Legal Notice 161 of 2017]

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred by section 42 (1) of the Competition Act, 2010, the Competition Authority of Kenya excludes the merger from the provisions of Part IV of the Act due to the following reasons—

- (a) the merger will not affect competition negatively; and
 - (b) the acquirer is a new entrant in the Kenyan market, while the target is a newly incorporated undertaking and hence no turnover for the preceding year, 2016. Therefore, the transaction is below the required threshold for mandatory notification as provided for in the Merger Threshold Guidelines.

PROPOSED ACQUISITION OF DELI SPICES INVESTMENT BY MANE SOUTH AFRICA PROPERTY LIMITED

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred by section 42 (1) of the Competition Act, 2010, the Competition Authority of Kenya excludes the proposed acquisition of 50% of the shares in Deli Spices Investment Holdings Proprietary Limited with voting rights by Mane South Africa

Proprietary Limited from the provisions of Part IV of the Act due to the following reasons

- (a) the transaction will not affect competition negatively;
- (b) the acquirer's turnover for the preceeding year 2016 was KES 309,382 while the target's turnover was KES 8, 044,202; and
- (c) the transaction is below the merger threshold required for mandatory notification as contained in the Merger Threshold Guidelines.

THE COMPETITION - EXCLUSION

[Legal Notice 163 of 2017]

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred by section 42(1) of the Competition Act, 2010, the Competition Authority of Kenya excludes the merger from the provisions of Part IV of the Act due to the following reasons—

- (a) the merger will not affect competition negatively; and
 - (b) the acquirer had no turnover for the preceding year, 2015, while the target's was KES 89,134,819. Therefore the turnover of KES 89,134,819 does not meet the merger threshold required for mandatory notification as required for mandatory notification as provided for in the Merger Threshold Guidelines.
